Love Human And Divine The Heart Of Christian Ethics:

Love, Human and Divine Edward Collins Vacek, 1994-04-01 Although the two great commandments to love God and to love our neighbors as ourselves are central to Christianity few theologians or spiritual writers have undertaken an extensive account of the meaning and forms of these loves Most accounts in fact make love of God and love of self either impossible or immoral Integrating these two commandments Edward Vacek SJ develops an original account of love as the theological foundation for Christian ethics Vacek criticizes common understandings of agape eros and philia examining the arguments of Aquinas Nygren Outka Rahner Scheler and other theologians and philosophers He defines love as an emotional affirmative participation in the beloved's real and ideal goodness and he extends this definition to the love between God and self Vacek proposes that the heart of Christian moral life is loving cooperation with God in a mutually perfecting friendship

Pluriform Love Thomas Jay Oord, 2022-02-25 A masterpiece from the preeminent theologian of love A strong case can be made that love is the core of Christian faith And yet Christians often fail to give love center stage in biblical studies and theology And most fail to explain what they mean by love Why is this Thomas Jay Oord explores this question and offers ground breaking answers Oord addresses leading Christian thinkers today and of yesteryear He explains biblical forms of love such as agape philia hesed and ahavah We should understand love's meaning as uniform he says but its expressions are pluriform Widely regarded as the world's foremost theologian of love Thomas Jay Oord tackles our biggest puzzles about the nature and meaning of love divine and creaturely His proposals are novel They align with love described in scripture and expressed in everyday experience Oord also provides radical and yet persuasive answers to questions about evil hell the Big Bang divine violence divine abandonment and more Pluriform Love changes the landscape of Christian love studies What they're saying Thomas Jay Oord is the first to systematically clarify a variety of types of love and show that all are characteristic of God This is an original contribution to theology Though a complex task Oord writes in an accessible and attractive way John B. Cobb Jr Cobb Institute Author of Salvation Jesus's Mission and Ours Christian theology in the years to come will need a facelift a true restoration of the biblical witness to the centrality of God's love If we wish to help make the faith truly relatable to our world today Oord's clear compassionate and compelling voice is one we will be thankful for Peter Enns Eastern University and Co host of The Bible for Normal People Thomas Jay Oord adds to his proposals on open and relational theology developing a theology of love which is both uniform in meaning and pluriform according to situation and recipients The volume is indispensable for those researching the nature of love Paul Fiddes University of Oxford The glowing multiform forcefield of love embraces every sentence of Pluriform Love Free of sentimentality and pretense refusing to pit eros and agape against each other it unfolds a full scale theology This amorous vision will attract a wide readership Catherine Keller Drew University Author of Facing Apocalypse Thomas Oord is a global leader exploring the primacy of love within Christian thought and practice In this book he presents a theology of love in a loving way When he grapples with the Scriptures he shows an attitude of fairness His writing style combines scholarly depth with accessible simplicity In the end Oord makes a radical claim much of traditional Christian theology cannot take love as seriously as it must Love must revolutionize Christian theology and Oord explains how Brian D McLaren Author of Do I Stay Christian This is a rigorous provocative creative and very readable account of the meaning of love especially divine love It s a very important contribution to theological thought on this central topic Keith Ward University of Oxford      Self Love and Christian Ethics Darlene Fozard Weaver,2002-10-17 Publisher Description      The Nature of Love Thomas Jay Oord,2010-04-01 God is love Consequently shouldn t love exist at the center of Christian theology When love is at the center theology is understood differently than it has typically been understood Some theologians have placed faith at the center others God s sovereignty still others the Church but Dr Oord places the emphasis on love God s love for us revealed in Christ in the Church and in creation and our love for God and others as ourselves must be afforded its rightful place Beginning with the foundation of love is what differentiates the Christian faith from others a loving God Dr Oord defines love as To love is to act intentionally in sympathetic empathetic response to God and others to promote overall well being Is this not what has defined Christians throughout history      The Intentional Life Series Ramesh P. Richard,2004-05-01 This set includes all three books of the Intentional Life Series Soul Passion Soul Mission and Soul Vision Throughout the Ages humanity has pursued the meaning of life However most of us live decidedly arbitrary lives muddling through from day to day In the Intentional Life Series Dr Ramesh Richard who has been called the layman s Ravi Zacharias articulates how a meaningful life must be a truly intentional life comprised of passion mission and vision He believes that in order for us to embody our true selves and become what we were designed to be we must reevaluate that passion mission and vision and conform them to God s will In Soul Passion Richard argues that even though many of us know there must be something more to life we stumble about with undirected goals and undiscovered passion He motivates readers to ask themselves what their passion is where they have placed their heart love trust and sufficiency Discovering your soul passion is the foundation for living a biblically well built and profitable life In Soul Mission Richard explores what it means to have a mission for your life that is in response to God s universal purpose Readers will find themselves deeply challenged to evaluate why they re here and find assistance with developing their own soul mission In Soul Vision Richard closes the trilogy by orienting his readers to the future through guidance from the Divine Visionary      Love, Technology and Theology Scott A. Midson,2020-06-25 This volume explores love in the context of today s technologies It is difficult to separate love from romanticist ideals of authenticity intimacy and depth of relationship These ideals resonate with theological models of love that highlight the way God benevolently created the world and continues to love it Technologies which are designed in response to our desires do not necessarily enjoy this romanticist resonance and yet they are now remodelling the world Are technologies then antithetical to love In this volume leading theologians have brought together themes of theology technology and love for the first time exploring different areas where notions of love and technology are problematized In a world where algorithms and artificial intelligences interact with us and shape our lives in ever more intricate and even intimate ways we might feel attachments to and through machines that suggest sentiments of love while also changing how we think about love Does love always have to be reciprocal How can we enact love and care for others with technologies Whose desires do technologies serve consumers corporations creatures This volume offers a systematic review of the challenges of living in a technologically saturated world by means of critical application of as well as reflection on theological discussions about love

Beginning from Man and Woman Bernard K. Wong, 2017-04-30 Engaging with contemporary thought on love and the family Bernard Wong argues that our notion of love has been deeply influenced by modern technological culture and political ideologies leading to the detriment of familial relationships Dr Wong demonstrates how Christian doctrines can be used to critique and resist these ideologies Through a careful analysis of Christ's love expressed in his life death and resurrection the author presents a notion of Christ's love bearing the characteristics of fraternal incarnational and unfolding love These aspects of Christ's love are pertinent to the relationships between husbands and wives parents and children and families and their neighbours It is through practicing Christ's love that Christians strengthen their familial relationships and bear witness to Christ in the world

The Love of God John C. Peckham, 2015-07-28 Theology has constantly wrestled with the nature of God's love and what it means for how God relates to the world In this comprehensive canonical theology of divine love John C Peckham argues for an account that avoids the errors of both voluntarist and experientialist theologies and faithfully represents the full biblical witness

Theologies of Failure Roberto Sirvent, Duncan B. Reyburn, 2019-03-26 What does failure mean for theology In the Bible we find some unsettling answers to this question We find lastness usurping firstness and foolishness undoing wisdom We discover too a weakness more potent than strength and a loss of life that is essential to finding life Jesus himself offers an array of paradoxes and puzzles through his life and teachings He even submits himself to humiliation and death to show the cosmos the true meaning of victory As David Bentley Hart observes most of us would find Christians truly cast in the New Testament mold fairly obnoxious civically reprobate ideologically unsound economically destructive politically irresponsible socially discreditable and really just a bit indecent By incorporating the work of scholars working with a range of frameworks within the Christian tradition Theologies of Failure aims to offer a unique and important contribution to understanding and embracing failure as a pivotal theological category As the various contributors highlight it is a category with a powerful capacity for illuminating our theological concerns and perspectives It is a category that frees us to see old ideas in a brand new light and helps to foster an awareness of ideas that certain modes of analysis may have obscured from our vision In short this book invites readers to consider how both theology and failure can help us ask new questions discover new possibilities and refuse the ways of the world      Lovescapes, Mapping the Geography of Love Duncan S. Ferguson, 2012-12-06

Lovescapes introduces the reader to the various meanings and manifestations of love and its many cognates such as compassion caring altruism empathy and forgiveness It addresses how love and compassion have been understood in history and the religions of the world It goes on to explore the ways that our environments and heredity influence our capacity to love and suggests ways to cultivate love and compassion in one's life The book shows how the values of love and compassion are integral to finding humane solutions to the daunting problems we face as individuals as a human family and as an earth community a world in crisis Lovescapes has the following features Describing how love is the essence of the divine and therefore the ground of reality Understanding the meaning of love and its place in our lives Learning how love and compassion have been understood across history culture and tradition Gaining insight about how to increase our capacity to love and show compassion Discerning how love and compassion can be applied in all aspects of our lives in the regions where we live and in our global setting      Heart of the Living God Michael G. Maness, 2004-06-23 Maness asks us to tie up our sneakers for we are going to have some fun as we hike into the Grand Canyon of Love Love is the treasure of life It is Love all the way Nothing else really matters outside of Love Best of all our Love will only get better in heaven The treasured ability to have loving relationships is God's gift to us in our Imago Dei the image of God we all share Likewise what we know of Love this side of heaven is but a dusty image of what God experiences I want to get personally involved says Maness Can we have a free will relationship with anyone even God if all of what we do and think is settled I don't think so Love is greater than that and I shall prove that and that is indeed a Grand Canyon Maness brings some of the brain splitting complexities of this to light with good humor introduces dynamic foreknowledge and challenges Classical Theism's avoidance of Love And he exposes some foul play in the process That's the first half of the book For those wanting to strike out on their own wanting to see more of the depth and diversity of the Grand Canyon the second half contains reviews of about 60 major authors a 4 000 Abysmal

Bibliography and a huge index to just about everything in the book Maness has thrown a gauntlet before the Classical Theists So tie up your sneakers and take a hike with Michael G Maness as he walks with you into the Grand Canyon see more at www.PreciousHeart.net

Kierkegaard and the Problem of Self-Love John Lippitt, 2013-04-25 The problem of whether we should love ourselves and if so how has particular resonance within Christian thought and is an important yet underinvestigated theme in the writings of Søren Kierkegaard In Works of Love Kierkegaard argues that the friendships and romantic relationships which we typically treasure most are often merely disguised forms of selfish self love Yet in this nuanced and subtle account John Lippitt shows that Kierkegaard also provides valuable resources for responding to the challenge of how we can love ourselves as well as others Lippitt relates what it means to love oneself properly to such topics as love of God and neighbour friendship romantic love self denial and self sacrifice trust hope and forgiveness The book engages in detail with Works of Love related Kierkegaard texts and important recent studies and also addresses a wealth of wider literature in ethics moral psychology and philosophy of religion

Being about Borders Michele Saracino, 2011-05-01 In an age of globalization where borders seem to be disappearing everywhere between nations religions and even within families it is easy to believe our reactions to difference are vanishing as well Bringing together the latest insights from constructive theology contemporary continental theory and trauma studies Michele Saracino shows how deceiving and even deadly this assumption can be She argues that in the post 9 11 era Christians are obligated now more than ever to be vigilant about difference to be attentive to the emotional dissonance that encountering others incites and to acknowledge it before border disputes escalate into violence We are neither so different that we have nothing to talk about nor so similar that we have everything to celebrate Instead for Saracino we are caught in the middle at porous borders at in between spaces which cause consternation fear anger and even rage By embracing these conflicting emotions that accompany border life Saracino claims that Christians can honor the person and work of Jesus Christ and the mystery of the incarnation and perhaps become living memorials to those who have suffered trauma all in the name of their being different Michele Saracino is an associate professor of religious studies at Manhattan College in Riverdale New York She is the author of On Being Human A Conversation with Lonergan and Levinas and researches and teaches on the intersections between theology and culture
