Heller, Geraldine Lee-Treweek, Jeanne Katz, Julie Stone, Sue Spurr, 2005-02-01 This book explores the challenging issues associated with complementary and alternative medicine in the context of the social political and cultural influences that shape people's health. Divided clearly into three sections, this book sets out the general context of social change, consumption and debate around the rise of public interest in CAM, argues for and against different classifications of CAM, critically assesses the importance of ethics and values to CAM practice and how these inform what practitioners do, focuses on the question of what people want, the changing and contested nature of health and the nature of personal and social factors associated with the use of CAM, leading to a focus on therapeutic relationships, examines the diversity of settings in which CAM takes place and the social political and economic milieu in which CAM is provided and used. Together with its accompanying text, Complementary and Alternative Medicine: Structures and Safeguards, it forms the core text for the Open University course K221 Perspectives on Complementary and Alternative Medicine. Partners in Care Frederick Reklau, R. Scott Perry, 2010-05-01 The needs for and the benefits of holistic health care care that extends to the physical, mental, emotional and spiritual aspects of individuals have been well known for 2,500 years or so. But still to quote the late Rodney Dangerfield, some caregivers don't get no respect. Fred Reklau is out to change that with this book, offered as an exploration of the synergies possible among those who care for persons. In the 1980s he wrote the theses that formed the core of this book. Since then they have helped many in groups and singly to see their work in a new light. Chaplains, pastors, parish nurses, lay caregivers, hospice workers, all will rejoice to read this heartfelt plea to elevate them to equal status with the vital care giving services performed by physicians, psychologists, psychiatrists and other members of the medical professions.

Co-Dependency Bruce Carruth, Warner Mendenhall, 2014-06-03 Co-dependency has finally become recognized in the late 1980s as a legitimate and a key issue in the chemical dependency field. Most of the literature available on the topic is addressed to the consumer, the co-dependent individual. In Co-dependency, leading therapists share some remarkable insights into the characteristics of the alcoholic, home co-dependents, patterns of responding to the alcoholic and the particular problems that family members experience as a result of the environment, including fear, shame and guilt, anger, denial and confusion. Clinical case material is used to illustrate the value of helping co-dependents through education, peer support, outpatient treatment and psychotherapy. Creative solutions for working with lesbian and gay men and children of alcoholics are also featured. Animals as Guides for the Soul Susan Chernak McElroy, 1999-08-31 In her New York Times bestseller Animals as Teachers and Healers, Susan Chernak McElroy movingly explored the wide and enriching horizons of human relationships with animals. In this new volume of reflections and true animal stories, she invites us to broaden and deepen that relationship. While living with her husband and animals on a farm in Oregon, McElroy pondered the ancient bonds that connect humans and animals, the healing gifts of animals, the genius of people who talk to them and the power of animal messengers. She also asked herself the tough questions that engage every true animal lover: How can we soothe our anguish and guilt when a loved animal suffers or dies How do we atone for our mistakes When are animals prisoners and when are they fulfilled Is it moral to eat other beings And how can we go about transforming our relationship with animals Through daily experiences with the animals around her and those in her dreams along with compelling true stories sent to her by readers McElroy began to find answers She discovered that animals are guides in the development of our souls A frail llama teaches lessons of joy and unconditional love a barn cat proves that service need not be imprisonment but fulfillment a mortally injured hawk infuses a cancer patient with renewed strength and faith an attentive rabbit awakens an abused child from a trance of sadness and a skinny white horse does more for a damaged six year old boy in one hour than any human has done in six years In this deeply personal yet universal testament to the profound connection between animals and humans there is wisdom and blessing As the author reminds us the fingerprint of God is often a pawprint Dr. and Master Sha: Miracle Soul Healer William Gladstone,2014-09-02 What accounts for miraculous healings unexplainable by doctors Is there a reality to spiritual healings William Gladstone initially approached Dr Zhi Gang Sha with some skepticism and disbelief William believed that there was more to life than the material world but he knew that the world has many dishonest and self deceiving mystics So he decided to explore William having studied medical anthropology at Harvard University had met and worked with some of the greatest spiritual leaders on the planet He was excited to explore Dr Sha and his healing practices William spent weeks with Dr Sha watching him at work talking to his students and observing his healings He interviewed him at length asking for specifics and addressing difficult questions He delved into the science behind Dr Sha s work and explored the underlying concepts beneath these miracle healings What William learned amazed him and opened his mind to possibilities he never expected Dr Zhi Gang Sha is a medical doctor trained in both Western medicine and traditional Chinese medicine as well as ancient Chinese sacred energy and spiritual healing Over the last decade he has healed hundreds of thousands of individuals with thousands documented and available for viewing on YouTube How does he do it Is it the placebo effect or something much more profound Dr and Master Sha Miracle Soul Healer documents the remarkable journey of a world renowned spiritual teacher and master healer who has not only demonstrated the ability to heal but also to teach people to heal themselves Written for skeptics as well as believers Dr and Master Sha Miracle Soul Healer explores the results and methodology of Dr Sha s unique life journey and his stated life mission to serve humanity and the Divine and create a healthier and happier world This book explores the ultimate mystery of how faith science and healing can change your life Gratitude Louise L.
