The Atlantic Monthly ,1858 Atlantic Monthly ,1858 Relationality and the Concept of God Henry Jansen, 2025-02-10 Classical theism the dominant tradition in Christian theology has stressed the metaphysical concept of God i e God s ontological transcendence and independence from the world In this century however this concept of God has increasingly met with criticism On the basis of the Bible and new philosophical considerations it is argued that a relational concept of God better answers the fundamental concerns of the Christian faith In this book the author investigates the questions of whether one can conceive of God apart from the metaphysical attributes and whether reflection on the biblical depiction of God leads necessarily to a relational concept of God The author explores the questions by examining the relational concepts of God found in two contemporary German theologians Jürgen Moltmann and Wolfhart Pannenberg and uses the divine attribute of immutability as a focus for the discussion He argues that the relational concept of God presupposes another metaphysical conception of God which raises problems as serious as those in classical theism and that the Bible itself because of its nature as a narrative text is ambiguous in many respects as far as God is concerned A truly Christian doctrine of God must take both the metaphysical and relational aspects of God into account The Image of God in an Image Driven Age Beth Felker Jones, Jeffrey W. Barbeau, 2016-03-08 Humans are created in the image of God yet by choosing to rebel against God we become unfaithful bearers of his image But Jesus who is the image of God restores the divine image in us At the intersection of theology and culture these essays offer a unified vision of what it means to be truly human and created in the divine image in the world today Credit and Faith Philip Goodchild, 2019-11-12 In line with the development of political theology and economic theology in contemporary European thought Credit and Faith offers a critical account of the faith structures within economic life and institutions Goodchild's ground breaking work provides a philosophical appropriation of the economic dimension of the New Testament and fresh theological philosophical and economic perspectives on the present Covering the theological roots of the way economic life was and is articulated the philosophical roots of value and debt and the economic roots of credit and creation this book charts the emergence of early theories of capital and banking through a consideration of credit It draws on some neglected historical figures as well as Jules Lagneau Simone Weil the Kantian problem of freedom and necessity and a critical reading of the early Marx and of Nietzsche's genealogy through this Goodchild explains how the Financial Revolution was able to conceal the credit economy which was its foundation and foster the pursuit of self interest instead of the common good This innovative interweaving of theology philosophy and economics constructs a new metaphysical framework for a critical account of the faith structures within economic life and institutions and returns to the practice of philosophy as a way of life a practical engaged worldly discipline International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes Easier Said Than Done TJ Anthony, 2020-07-21 It's the summer of 1981 Soon we will celebrate Princess Diana's royal wedding and MTV will launch us into a new music era However those events will be mere footnotes in a story that is brewing in a small
