Seeing rightly says Mark Labberton is the beginning of how our hearts are changed Through careful self examination in the Spirit we begin to bear the fruit of love toward others that can make a difference Here is a chance to reflect on why our ordinary hearts can be complacent about the evils in the world and how we can begin to see the world like Jesus The Love of Jesus and the Love of Neighbour Karl Rahner, 1983 The Catholic Moral Tradition Today Charles E. Curran, 1999-04-05

The Catholic tradition has always tried to explain its theology in a coherent and systematic way but the great changes and tensions existing within Catholic moral theology today have made it difficult to develop systematic approaches to what was once called fundamental moral theology Now a leading scholar active in this field for forty years offers a synthesis of Catholic moral theology set in the context of the broader Catholic tradition and the significant developments that have occurred since the Second Vatican Council Charles E Curran's succinct coherent account of his wide ranging work in Catholic moral theology points out agreements disagreements and changes in significant aspects of the Catholic moral tradition His systematic approach explores major topics in a logical development the ecclesiological foundation and stance of moral theology the person as moral subject and agent virtues principles and norms conscience and decision making and the role of the church as a teacher of morality Curran's work condenses and organizes a large amount of material to show that the Catholic theological tradition is in dialogue with contemporary life and thought while remaining conscious of its rich history Of great interest to theologians for its broad synthetic scope this book is also a thorough introduction to the Catholic moral tradition for students and interested readers including non Catholics Cura Animarum Ioan C. Veres, 2025-04-25 As artificial intelligence advances healthcare faces a profound ethical question Can machines truly care This book critically examines the rise of AI driven social robots carebots in patient care evaluating their benefits and potential harms through the lens of Christian ethics While AI may enhance efficiency and offer support in specific healthcare contexts it also risks dehumanizing care replacing genuine human presence with technological substitutes Grounded in a theology of covenant care this work builds its ethical argument around the biblical parable of the Good Samaritan emphasizing the irreplaceable nature of human compassion It presents theological and ethical criteria to guide the responsible use of AI in healthcare ensuring that technology serves rather than supplants the dignity of human relationships This book is essential reading for theologians ethicists healthcare professionals and AI developers navigating the intersection of faith ethics and emerging technology As healthcare increasingly integrates AI Cura Animarum challenges readers to consider where technology supports human dignity and where it threatens to erode the essence of genuine care Is AI merely a tool or does it risk redefining what it means to care

Pool,2009-01-01 This book constitutes the first volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God s Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering Divine Vulnerability and Creation This study first develops an approach to interpreting the contested claims about the suffering of God Thus the larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God Through this approach this volume of studies into the Christian symbol of divine suffering then investigates the two major presuppositions that the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally hold an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love When fully elaborated these presuppositions reveal the conditions of possibility for divine suffering and divine vulnerability with respect to creation Semi-annual Conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints,1906 The Sin of White Supremacy Fletcher Hill, Jeannine ,2017-08-17 How Christian supremacy gave birth to white supremacy The witchcraft of white supremacy When words create worlds The symbolic capital of New Testament love The cruciform Christ Christian love in a weighted world
