

Love Poem

I hope this does not make you blush
But you're my pin up and my crush
You send my blood cells
(in their legions) Flooding to my nether regions

Jagodzinski,1999 Proposes that the emergence of the concept of privacy as a personal right and the core of individuality is connected in a complex way with the easy availability of printed books and the spread of the ability to read that emerged during the period Looks at representations of reading and readers especially women in devotional books conversion narratives personal letters drama and the novel Also explores how privacy became gendered in the early modern period Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR May Sarton Selected Letters 1955 To 1995 May Sarton,2002-06-04 All her life May Sarton carried on a voluminous private correspondence with family friends and lovers Early childhood into middle age covers topics of theater study travel teaching and the anguish as World War II approaches Later joys of flowers affection for animals and illustrious acquaintances and intimates both here and abroad are shown Letters As Archive Theo Rourke,AI,2025-05-05 Letters As Archive explores the untapped potential of personal correspondence as invaluable historical documents Challenging traditional historical methodologies the book champions letters as archives that capture individual experiences and reflect broader social and cultural norms Did you know personal letters can offer insights into migration patterns or reveal attitudes during times of war providing firsthand accounts often missing from official records By examining these primary sources the book advocates for a more inclusive understanding of the past amplifying voices often excluded from mainstream historical narratives The book unfolds systematically first establishing a theoretical framework for analyzing letters as historical archives Subsequent chapters delve into specific themes and case studies such as the role of letters in shaping family history or documenting social upheaval This approach offers practical guidance on archival methods and textual analysis emphasizing ethical considerations Ultimately Letters As Archive encourages a decentralized approach to historical inquiry urging scholars to consider personal correspondence as a vital source of historical knowledge

Letters of Samuel Taylor Coleridge Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 1895 Textual Subjectivity A. C. Spearing, 2005-10-27 This book investigates how subjectivity is encoded in the texts of a wide variety of medieval narratives and lyrics not how they express the subjectivity of individuals but how subjectivity escaping the bounds of individuality is incorporated in the linguistic fabric of their texts Most of the poems discussed are in English and the book includes analyses of Chaucer's Troilus and Criseyde Man of Law's Tale and Complaint Unto Pity the works of the Pearl poet Havelok the Dane the lyric sequence attributed to Charles of Orleans the earliest such sequence in English and many anonymous poems It also devotes sections to Ovid's Heroides and to poems by the troubadour Bernart de Ventadorn For the first time it brings to bear on medieval narratives and lyrics a body of theory which denies the supposed necessity for literary texts to have narrators or speakers and in doing so reveals the implausibilities into which a dogmatic assumption of this necessity has led much of the last century's criticism
