Mama Blancas Memoirs:

Mama Blanca's Memoirs Teresa de la Parra, 1993 Mama Blanca's Memoirs Teresa de la Parra, 1993 Teresa de la Parra RoseAnna Mueller, 2012-03-15 This book is the first comprehensive study of Teresa de la Parra for English speaking readers The volume includes a biographical chapter and analyses of de la Parra's two novels Iphigenia the diary of a young lady who wrote because she was bored and Mama Blanca's Memoirs An annotated version of the Three Colombian Lectures Women's Influence in the Formation of the American Soul reveals the importance of Latin American women's contributions in Latin American history and speaks to gender issues sparked by critical reactions to Iphigenia Translations of de la Parra's selected letters short stories and entries from the Bellevue Fuenfria Madrid Diary provide a more complete picture of the writer and help tie her works to her life The book reviews literary criticism on de la Parra providing an overview of what Venezuelan Latin American and American critics and biographers have to say about the author and her works De la Parra bridged the gap between Venezuelan and European traditions and this book examines the author's contribution to Venezuelan and Latin American literary traditions while showcasing her as a model of Latin American women's writing whose influence is being rediscovered and reevaluated The Plantation in the Postslavery Imagination Elizabeth Christine Russ, 2009 In a provocative new approach toward understanding transnational literary cultures this study examines the specter of the plantation that physical place most vividly associated with slavery in the Americas For Elizabeth Russ the plantation is not merely a literal location but also a vexing rhetorical ideological and psychological trope through which intersecting histories of the New World are told Through a series of precise in depth readings Russ analyzes the discourse of the plantation through a number of suggestive pairings male and female perspectives U S and Spanish American traditions and continental alongside island societies To chart comparative elements in the development of the postslavery imagination in the Northern and Southern hemispheres Russ distinguishes between a modern and a postmodern imaginary The former privileges a familiar plot of modernity the traumatic transition from a local largely agrarian order to an increasingly anonymous industrialized society The latter abandoning nostalgia toward the past suggests a new history using the strategies of performance such as witnessing reticency and traversal Authors examined include The Twelve Southerners Fernando Ortiz Teresa de la Parra Eudora Welty Antonio Benítez Rojo Gayl Jones Toni Morrison and Mayra Santos Febres among others Applying sharp analyses across a broad range of texts Russ reveals how the language used to imagine communities influenced by the plantation has been gendered racialized and eroticized in ways that oppose the domination of an ever shifting North while often reproducing the fundamental power divide Her work moves beyond the North South dichotomy that has often stymied scholarly work in Latin American studies and importantly provides a model for future hemispheric approaches Latin American Women Writers Kathy S. Leonard, 2007-09-19 There is a wealth of published literature in English by Latin American women writers but such material can be difficult to locate due to the lack of available

bibliographic resources In addition the various types of published narrative short stories novels novellas autobiographies and biographies by Latin American women writers has increased significantly in the last ten to fifteen years To address the lack of bibliographic resources Kathy Leonard has compiled Latin American Women Writers A Resource Guide to Titles in English This reference includes all forms of narrative short story autobiography novel novel excerpt and others by Latin American women dating from 1898 to 2007 More than 3 000 individual titles are included by more than 500 authors This includes nearly 200 anthologies more than 100 autobiographies biographies or other narrative and almost 250 novels written by more than 100 authors from 16 different countries For the purposes of this bibliography authors who were born in Latin America and either continue to live there or have immigrated to the United States are included Also titles of pieces are listed as originally written in either Spanish or Portuguese If the book was originally written in English a phrase to that effect is included to better reflect the linguistic diversity of narrative currently being published This volume contains seven indexes Authors by Country of Origin Authors Titles of Work Titles of Work Authors Autobiographies Biographies and Other Narrative Anthologies Novels and Novellas in Alphabetical Order by Author and Novels and Novellas by Authors Country of Origin Reflecting the increase in literary production and the facilitation of materials this volume contains a comprehensive listing of narrative pieces in English by Latin American women writers not found in any other single volume currently on the market This work of reference will be of special interest to scholars students and instructors interested in narrative

The Twentieth-Century Spanish American Novel Raymond Leslie Williams, 2009-07-21 A Choice Magazine Outstanding Academic Book Spanish American novels of the Boom period 1962 1967 attracted a world readership to Latin American literature but Latin American writers had already been engaging in the modernist experiments of their North American and European counterparts since the turn of the twentieth century Indeed the desire to be modern is a constant preoccupation in twentieth century Spanish American literature and thus a very useful lens through which to view the century s novels In this pathfinding study Raymond L Williams offers the first complete analytical and critical overview of the Spanish American novel throughout the entire twentieth century Using the desire to be modern as his organizing principle he divides the century s novels into five periods and discusses the differing forms that the modern took in each era For each period Williams begins with a broad overview of many novels literary contexts and some cultural debates followed by new readings of both canonical and significant non canonical novels A special feature of this book is its emphasis on women writers and other previously ignored and or marginalized authors including experimental and gay writers Williams also clarifies the legacy of the Boom the Postboom and the Postmodern as he introduces new writers and new novelistic trends of the 1990s

Latin-American Women Writers Myriam Yvonne Jehenson, 1995-08-10 This book provides a much needed grouping of Latin American women emphasizing their differences the diversity of their cultural backgrounds socio economic conditions and literary strategies as well as their commonalities Humble writers of the Spanish and Portuguese testimonio and sophisticated postmodernist authors alike are contextualized within a matriheritage of founding discourses

Voices Out of Africa in Twentieth-century Spanish Caribbean Literature Julia Cuervo Hewitt, 2009 Hewitt Spanish and Portuguese Pennsylvania State U explores the representation of Africa and Afro Caribbean ness in Spanish Caribbean literature of the 20th century Her main argument is that the literary representation of Africa and Africanness meaning practices belief systems music art myths popular knowledge in Spanish speaking Caribbean societies constructs a self referential discourse in which Africa and African things

shift to a Caribbean landscape as the site of the M Other Or in other words these representations imaginatively rescue and simultaneously construct a Caribbean cultural imaginary conceived as the Other within that associates Africa with a cultural womb Among the texts she explores are Fernando Ortiz's interpretations of the Black Carnival in Cuba the early Afro Cuban poems of Alejo Carpentier the Afro Cuban stories of Lydia Cabrera a number of literary representations of the figure of the runaway slave and two works by Puerto Rican novelist Edgardo Rodríguez Juliá

Performing Women and Modern Literary Culture in Latin America Vicky Unruh, 2009-06-03 Women have always been the muses who inspire the creativity of men but how do women become the creators of art themselves This was the challenge faced by Latin American women who aspired to write in the 1920s and 1930s Though women's roles were opening up during this time women writers were not automatically welcomed by the Latin American literary avant gardes whose male members viewed women's participation in tertulias literary gatherings and publications as uncommon and even forbidding How did Latin American women writers celebrated by male writers as the New Eve but distrusted as fellow creators find their intellectual homes and fashion their artistic missions In this innovative book Vicky Unruh explores how women writers of the vanguard period often gained access to literary life as public performers Using a novel interdisciplinary synthesis of performance theory she shows how Latin American women's work in theatre poetry declamation song dance oration witty display and bold journalistic self portraiture helped them craft their public personas as writers and shaped their singular forms of analytical thought cultural critique and literary style Concentrating on eleven writers from Argentina Brazil Cuba Mexico Peru and Venezuela Unruh demonstrates that as these women identified themselves as instigators of change rather than as passive muses they unleashed penetrating critiques of projects for social and artistic modernization in Latin America

Corporeality in Early Twentieth-Century Latin American Literature B. Willis, 2013-01-07 Featuring canonical Spanish American and Brazilian texts of the 1920s and 30s Corporeality in Early Twentieth Century Latin American Literature is an innovative analysis of the body as site of inscription for avant garde objectives such as originality subjectivity and subversion

This America of Ours Gabriela Mistral, Victoria Ocampo, 2009-09-15 2005 Best Book Translation Prize New England Council of Latin American Studies Gabriela Mistral and Victoria Ocampo were the two most influential and respected women writers of twentieth century Latin America Mistral a plain self educated Chilean woman of the mountains who was a poet journalist and educator became Latin America's first Nobel Laureate in 1945 Ocampo a stunning Argentine woman of wealth wrote hundreds of essays and founded the first rate literary journal Sur Though of very different backgrounds their deep commitment to what they felt was their America forged a unique intellectual and emotional bond between them This collection of the previously unpublished correspondence between Mistral and Ocampo reveals the private side of two very public women In these letters as well as in essays that are included in an appendix we see what Mistral and Ocampo thought about each other and about the intellectual and political atmosphere of their time including the Spanish Civil War World War II and the dictatorships of Latin America and particularly how they negotiated the complex issues of identity nationality and gender within their wide ranging cultural connections to both the Americas and Europe
