Women in Sport Mary L. Remley,1991

Ride the Revolution Suze Clemitson,2015-10-22 Ride the Revolution represents the best new writing on cycling from women involved in the sport at all levels as fans key personnel riders photographers journalists and presenters When Marie Marvingt decided to ride the 1908 Tour de France she was told absolutement non by M Degranges and the Societe du Tour de France Instead she rode each stage 15 minutes after the official race had departed and finished all 4 488 kms of the parcours a feat that only 36 of the 110 men who entered the race could equal Her motto I decided to do everything better always and forever It s in the spirit of Breakneck Marie that this book has been written This is not an anthology of women writing about women s cycling Nor is it an anthology of women writing about men s bottoms in lycra or peloton crushes or the curse of helmet hair This is an book that celebrates the diversity of women s writing about the glorious sometimes murky often bizarre and frequently hilarious world of cycling in all its soapy operatic glory from the professional sport to the club run on the roadside and in the saddle behind the scenes and on the massage table These fresh and vibrant voices examine the sport from a new perspective to provide insights that rarely make it into the mainstream what is it like to be a top women rider or work in their support team Where is the women s sport heading and when will more women be represented at the highest level of sport s governance And how do you get out and ride your bike when the news is full of stories of cyclists dying and you can t get clothing that fits

The Kindest People Who Do Good Deeds: Volume 1 David Bruce,2007-04-01 The doing of good deeds is important As a free person you can choose to live your life as a good person or as a bad person To be a good person do good deeds To be a bad person do bad deeds If you do good deeds you will become good If you do bad deeds you will become bad To become the person you want to be act as if you already are that kind of person Each of us chooses what kind of person we will become To become a hero do the things a hero does To become a coward do the things a coward does The opportunity to take action to become the kind of person you want to be is yours This book collects 250 stories of good deeds from the arts from religion and from life

Viswamohan, 2023-01-28 This book is a comprehensive anthology comprising essays on women film directors producers and screenwriters from Bollywood or the popular Hindi film industry It derives from the major theories of modernity postmodern feminism semiotics cultural production and gender performativity in globalized times The collection transcends the traditional approaches of looking at films made by women filmmakers as feminist cinema and focuses on an extraordinary group of women filmmakers like Ashwini Iyer Tiwari Bhavani Iyer Farah Khan Mira Nair Vijaya Mehta and Zoya Akhtar The volume will be of interest to academics and theorists of gender and Hindi cinema as well as anybody interested in contemporary Hindi films in their various manifestations Identity in Professional Wrestling Aaron D. Horton, 2018-03-04

Part sport part performance art professional wrestling's appeal crosses national racial and gender boundaries in large part by playing to national racial and gender stereotypes that resonate with audiences Scholars who study competitive sports tend to dismiss wrestling with its scripted outcomes as fake yet fail to recognize a key similarity both present athletic displays for maximized profit through live events television viewership and merchandise sales This collection of new essays contributes to the literature on pro wrestling with a broad exploration of identity in the sport Topics include cultural appropriation in the ring gender non conformity national stereotypes and wrestling as transmission of cultural values Diversity, equity and inclusion in sport and leisure Katherine Dashper, Thomas Fletcher, 2016-01-08

Despite the mythology of sport bringing people together and encouraging everyone to work collectively to success modern sport remains a site of exclusionary practices that operate on a number of levels Although sports participation is in some cases at least becoming more open and meritocratic at the management level it remains very homogenous dominated by western white middle aged able bodied men This has implications both for how sport develops and how it is experienced by different participant groups across all levels Critical studies of sport have revealed that rather than being a passive mechanism and merely reflecting inequality sport via social agents interactions with sporting spaces is actively involved in producing reproducing sustaining and indeed resisting various manifestations of inequality The experiences of marginalised groups can act as a resource for explaining contemporary political struggles over what sport means how it should be played and by whom and its place within wider society Central to this collection is the argument that the dynamics of cultural identities are contextually contingent influenced heavily by time and place and the extent to which they are embedded in the culture of their geographic location They also come to function differently within certain sites and institutions be it in one's everyday routine or leisure pursuits such as sport Among the themes and issues explored by the contributors to this volume are social inclusion and exclusion in relation to class race and ethnicity gender and sexuality social identities and authenticity social policy deviance and fandom This book was published as a special issue of Sport in Society
