Varga, Timothy Monreal, Rebecca C. Christ, Wayne Journell, 2023 This collection of essays explores posthuman approaches to social studies education challenging the field to think differently about the precarious status of the world Authors examine how educators and scholars can foster

Queering the Countryside Mary L. Gray, Colin R. Johnson, Brian J. Gilley, 2016-03-15 This collection of original essays confronts the assumption that queer desires depend upon urban life for meaning By considering rural queer life the contributors challenge readers to explore queer experiences in ways that give greater context and texture to modern practices of identity formation The book's focus on understudied rural spaces throws into relief the overemphasis of urban locations and structures in the current political and theoretical work on queer sexualities and genders It highlights the need to rethink notions of the closet and coming out and the characterizations of non urban sexualities and genders as isolated and in need of outreach Provided by publisher

Contemporary Authors Terrie M. Rooney, 1999 Your students and users will find biographical information on approximately 300 modern writers in this volume of Contemporary Authors Authors in this volume include Robert W Chambers William Jefferson Clinton Paul Ruebens Timberlake Wertenbaker Queer Lasting Sarah Ensor,2025-02-04 Queer Lasting asks what contemporary environmentalism s seemingly necessary emphasis on the future has rendered unthinkable and looks to the literatures from two periods of queer extinction the 1890s and the 1980s for grammars of care continuance and collective action that emerge only at the last Essential Breakthroughs: Conversations about Men, Mothers and Mothering Fionna Joy Green,2015-11-01 Essential Breakthroughs Conversations About Men Mothers and Mothering thinks from the nexus of gender essentialism and care The authors creatively blend the philosophical and the personal to collectively argue that while gender is essential to our social and theoretical definitions of care it is dangerously co opted into naturalized discourses which limit particular identities and negate certain forms of care The perspectives curated in Essential Breakthroughs illuminate how care as a respected and productive cultural ethic is neither inherent nor instinctual for any human but is learned and fostered The chapters are informed by feminist queer and trans politics wielding post structuralist methodologies of unlearning and deconstruction while maintaining the maternal lens as a credible feminist analytical tool and not as a gender essentialist practice How to Have Theory in an Epidemic Paula A. Treichler,1999 A collection of essays on the AIDS epidemic by a leading feminist cultural theorist of science American Nature Writing 1998 John A. Murray,1998 This newest in the Sierra Club s acclaimed Nature Writing series includes autobiographical writings essays short stories and poetry that communicate a passion for nature which enhances our appreciation of a wide range of landscapes and wildlife Diverse in mood and setting the 19 selections including 7 in print for the first time represent the best of the genre Contributors include Rick Bass Barry Lopez Terry Tempest Williams and many others American Nature Writing ,2001 Reconstructing Illness Anne Hunsaker Hawkins,1999 Serious illness and mortality those most universal unavoidable and frightening of human experiences are the focus of this pioneering study which has been hailed as a telling and provocative commentary on our times As modern medicine has become more scientific and dispassionate a new literary genre has emerged pathography the personal narrative concerning illness treatment and sometimes death Hawkins s sensitive reading of numerous pathographies highlights the assumptions attitudes and myths that people bring to the medical encounter One factor emerges again and again in these case studies the tendency in contemporary medical practice to focus primarily not on the needs of the individual who is sick but on the condition that we call disease Pathography allows the individual person a voice one that asserts the importance of the experiential side of illness and thus restores the feeling thinking experiencing human being to the center of the medical enterprise Recommended for medical practitioners the clergy caregivers students of popular culture and the general reader Reconstructing Illness demonstrates that only when we hear both the doctor s and the patient s voice will we have a medicine that is truly human A View from the Loft ,2000 Feminist Bookstore News ,1997 The Graywolf Silver Anthology ,1999-04-01 This anthology an eclectic and entertaining mix of poetry and prose showcases some of the extraordinary writers who have helped shape a literary quarter century Their work provides clear evidence of the critical role Graywolf and other independent presses play in the otherwise increasingly homogenous publishing universe a realization made all the more remarkable when contrasted against the simple charm of Graywolf's earliest days as a letterpress publisher as described in an introductory historical essay by founder Scott Walker
