North True South Bright:

North True South Bright Dan Beachy-Quick, 2019-10-01 This smart lyrical collection explores the dangers of a world so complex that no single consciousness may grasp it however much the attempt must be made Following historical and imagined figures as they encounter specific moments or objects such as Thomas Hariot in the American Wilderness of the late 16th century the poems attempt to record the unraveling of the safe and singular into a multiplicity of unknowns Impelled by metaphor and lilting repetition North True South Bright seeks a sense of the world and ultimately a sense of the Infinite Hariot's Round I know to entice to convince I must sing Your ear inside stone must sing Gold bitten and true the corn kernel one seed I must plant one gold seed in your mouth with my lips Raleigh says the Queen known my name The Crown Of a woodpecker is ruby but shy Inhabitants adorn themselves with feathers and feathers Bright on arrow ends Bow before a Queen Bend closed my book The page is deaf that turns back to look at what it found In North True South Bright Dan Beachy Quick proves the compass of his eye to be perfectly exact precisely true These poems are finely made contemporaries of sunlight And like sunlight their history is Now Donald Revell

Stone-Garland , 2020-09-08 As part of the publisher's Seedbank series aiming to preserve endangered literatures the poet Beachy Quick offers a modern gloss on six ancient Greeks New York Times Book Review New a flower logic a petal theory a blossom word In Stone Garland Dan Beachy Quick brings the term back to its roots linking together the lives and words of six singular ancient Greeks Simonides honest servant to patrons Anacreon lustful singer living on in the work of his acolytes Archilochus cruel critic beloved of the Muses Alcman who took birds as his teachers Theognis chronicler of human excellence and vice Callimachus cosmopolitan head librarian at Alexandria These are the poets who appear in these pages sometimes in fragments sometimes in sustained glimpses Drawing inspiration from the Greek Anthology first drafted in the first century BC Beachy Quick presents translations filled with lovers and children gods and insects earth and water ideas and ideals Throughout the line between the ancient and the contemporary blurs and the logic of how life should be lived decays wondrously into the more difficult possibilities of what life is Spare earthy lovely Stone Garland offers readers of the Seedbank series its lyric blossoms and subtle weave a walk through a cemetery that is also a garden

Of Silence and Song Dan Beachy-Quick, 2017-12-12 Musings on joy and suffering midlife and meaning by a National Book Award nominated poet and essayist praised for his fine ear Publishers Weekly Midway through the journey of his life Dan Beachy Quick found himself without a path unsure how to live well Of Silence and Song follows him on his resulting classical search for meaning in the world and in his particular quiet life In essays fragments marginalia images travel writing and poetry Beachy Quick traces his relationships and identities As father and husband As teacher and student As citizen and scholar And as poet and reader wondering at the potential and limits of literature Of Silence and Song finds its inferno and its paradise in moments both historically vast and nakedly intimate Hell disappearing bees James Eagan Holmes Columbine and the persistent unforgivable crime of slavery And redemption in the

The Thinking Root Dan Beachy-Quick, 2023-08-10 Acclaimed poet and translator Dan Beachy Quick offers this newest addition to the Seedbank series a warm vivid rendering of the earliest Greek intellectuals inviting us to reconsider writing and thinking as a way of living meaningfully in the world We have lost our sense of thinking as the experience that keeps us in the world writes Beachy Quick and the figures rendered in The Thinking Root Heraclitus Anaximander Empedocles Parmenides and others are among the first examples we have in Western civilization of thinkers who used writing as to record their impressions of a world where intuition and observation and spirit and nature have yet to be estranged In these pages we find clear eyed ideas searching for shapes and forms with which to order the world and to reveal our life in flux Drawn from words that think these ancient Greek texts are fresh and alive in the hands of Beachy Quick who translates with the empathy of one who knows that a word is its own form of life In aphorisms axioms vignettes and anecdotes these first theories of the world articulate a relationship to the world that precedes our story of its making a world where the beginning and the end are in common A remarkable collection from one of our most accomplished poets The Thinking Root renders a primary apprehension of life amidst life a vision that echoes our gaze upon the stars Field Manual United States. Department of the Army, 1944 Goest Cole Swensen, 2016-05-30 Treating subjects from landscape to sculpture to a 19th century technical encyclopedia the poet is fascinated with light glass mirrors flame ice mercury things transparent evanescent impossible to grasp Likewise Swensen's lyrics which with elliptical phrasing and play between visual and aural change the act of seeing and reading offering glimpses of the spirit or ghost that enters a poem where the rational process breaks down From The Invention of Streetlights Certain cells it's said can generate light on their own There are organisms that could fit on the head of a pin and light entire rooms Throughout the Middle Ages you could hire a man on any corner with a torch to light your home were lamps made of horn and from above a loom of moving flares we watched Notre Dame seem small Now the streets stand still By 1890 it took a pound of powdered magnesium to photograph a midnight ball Goest sonorous with a hovering ghost which shimmers at the root of all things is a stunning meditation even initiation on the act of seeing proprioception and the alchemical properties of light as it exists naturally and inside the human realm of history lore invention and the whites of painting Light becomes the true mistress and possibly the underlying language of all invention Swensen's poetry documents a penetrating intellectus light of the mind by turns fragile incandescent transcendent Anne Waldman Scouting and Patrolling for Infantry Units, 1991 Dialogues in the Dark Nicholas Morrow Williams, 2025-07-15 Dialogues in the Dark traces how Chinese readers and scholars since the Han dynasty have variously interpreted the ancient poem Heavenly Questions Tianwen an enigmatic work attributed to Qu Yuan fl ca 300 BCE Nicholas Morrow Williams analyzes how the poem s meaning evolved in different time periods and provides three new translations Gadamer on Celan Hans-Georg Gadamer,1997-01-01 Brings together all of Gadamer's published writings on Celan's poetry and makes them available in English for the first time This is accessible commentary on a notoriously difficult poet In the Ghost-House Acquainted Kevin Goodan,2016-08-01 These soulful lyrics use allusive imagery and ecumenical diction to consider the pastoral as a life to inhabit not an artifact or idealized place to visit Here the specter of loss makes a world more precious notions of home and love must be ever evolving as colts are stillborn and pigeons slaughtered apple blossoms frozen in spring and dead lambs burned in diesel fire But these poems insist there is beauty in the soil and beauty in birth and death in birth and beauty in death as well And Upon the Earth No Wind Pigeons erupting from a barn Twenty three ewes stand at once ice chunks clinking in their wool I call soft call loud but the mare treads the snow blue Am I born to constant hazard Wood becomes more than wood simply by its burning Steam rises up from the land I call but do not move The moon rising shines even upon all things and I can't tell which is mare and what's weather Silence in eaves ever after It is rare to see a poet work so hard in the physical world serious farm labor and still catch a fleeting glimpse of the spirit Kevin Goodan does this convincingly because his language is so precise and his mind knows when to jump and when to stand still This is a remarkable book James Tate Kevin Goodan received his BA from the University of Montana and his MFA from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst His poems have been published in Ploughshares and other journals Active Romanticism Julie Carr,Jeffrey C. Robinson,2015-03-31 Essays that highlight the pervasive role of Romantic poetry and poetics on modern and contemporary innovative poetry Here, Bullet Brian Turner,2014-09-01 A first person account of the Iraq War by a soldier poet winner of the 2005 Beatrice Hawley Award Adding his voice to the current debate about the US occupation of Iraq in poems written in the tradition of such poets as Wilfred Owen Yusef Komunyakaa Dien Cai Dau Bruce Weigl Song of Napalm and Alice James own Doug Anderson The Moon Reflected Fire Iraqi war veteran Brian Turner writes powerfully affecting poetry of witness exceptional for its beauty honesty and skill Based on Turner's yearlong tour in Iraq as an infantry team leader the poems offer gracefully rendered unflinching description but remarkably leave the reader to draw conclusions or moral lessons Here Bullet is a must read for anyone who cares about the war regardless of political affiliation Man in the Moon Stephanie G'Schwind,2014-06-01 Science claims it will one day be able to eliminate fathers from the equation by mating bone marrow with ovum When that day comes I imagine this book along with a handful of other works King Lear Fun Home will become even more necessary Herein find the blueprints for the mystery the maps for the uncharted the keys to the archetype Nick Flynn author of The Reenactments and Another Bullshit Night in Suck City At this moment I find myself at loose ends lost in the various vacuums left by my father's dying and my sons departures out into the voids Yet this stunning constellation of essays centered me became for me fine instruments of reckoning of where to stand in the ceaseless entropic dynamic of kin of paternal keening These waxing meditations demonstrate the inflationary universe the heft and velocity of that big ol

nothing They elegantly fill with sober hope and the balm of joy the terrifying infinite spaces between those waning stars Michael Martone author of Michael Martone and Four for a Quarter What an unreachable mystery the father is preoccupied unknowable pervasive In these fascinating essays a shared portrait emerges as writers articulate the perpetual puzzle of the father and with grace and candor explore what it means to not know him to never know him As one voice these essays investigate the man his inventories his myths his mere traces who makes up our horizons who forever shimmers there beyond our collective grasp Susanna Sonnenberg author of Her Last Death and She Matters A Life in Friendships Selected from the country's leading literary journals and publications Crazyhorse Colorado Review The Nervous Breakdown Creative Nonfiction Georgia Review Gulf Coast The Missouri Review The Normal School and others Man in the Moon brings together essays in which sons daughters and fathers explore the elusive nature of this intimate relationship and find unique ways to frame and understand it through astronomy arachnology storytelling map reading television puzzles DNA and so on In the collection's title essay Bill Capossere considers the inextricable link between his love of astronomy and memories of his father The man in the moon is no stranger to me he writes I have seen his face before and it is my father's and his father's and my own Other essays include Dinty Moore's Son of Mr Green Jeans A Meditation on Missing Fathers in which Moore lays out an alphabetic investigation of fathers from popular culture Ward Cleaver Jim Anderson Ozzie Nelson while ruminating on his own absent father and hesitation to become a father himself In Plot Variations Robin Black attempts to understand through the lens of teaching fiction to creative writing students her inability to attend her father's funeral Deborah Thompson tries to reconcile her pride in her father's pioneering research in plastics and her concerns about their toxic environmental consequences in When the Future Was Plastic At turns painfully familiar comic and heartbreaking the essays in this collection also deliver moments of sear

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Contemporary American Poetry Craig Svonkin, Steven Gould Axelrod, 2023-01-12 With chapters written by leading scholars such as Steven Gould Axelrod Cary Nelson and Marjorie Perloff this comprehensive Handbook explores the full range and diversity of poetry and criticism in 21st century America The Bloomsbury Handbook of Contemporary American Poetry covers such topics as Major histories and genealogies of post war poetry from the language poets and the Black Arts Movement to New York school and the Beats Poetry identity and community from African American Chicana o and Native American poetry to Queer verse and the poetics of disability Key genres and forms including digital visual documentary and children's poetry Central critical themes economics publishing popular culture ecopoetics translation and biography The book also includes an interview section in which major contemporary poets such as Rae Armantrout and Claudia Rankine reflect on the craft and value of poetry today Half/Life Laurel Snyder, 2006-03-23 Written by authors born into the so called dilemma of intermarriage the stories in Half Life explore the experience of being raised in a half Jewish home Though each essay is distinct and the experiences are vastly different each describes growing up without a streamlined identity unsure of community or religious direction From Jenny Traig whose experiences led her to extreme devotion in the form of religious obsessive compulsion scrupulosity to Thisbe Nissen who finally felt Jewish after discovering a rosary in her boyfriend's sock drawer these authors examine the complicated relationships they felt with the Jewish community and the world at large By turns tragic and funny religious and heartbreaking angry and surprisingly familiar Half Life represents the altogether diverse memories and reflections of a handful of men and women who have spent a lifetime grappling with how to define themselves or not Resulting from that struggle is a complex exploration and some truly brilliant prose The Far Mosque Kazim Ali, 2016-05-30 These gently fragmented narrative lyrics pursue enlightenment in long elegant yet plain spoken dark yet ecstatic lines Ali travels by water and by night seeking the Far Mosque and its overarching paradox that when God and Self are one an ascent into Heaven is a voyage within Map Reading United States. Department of the Army, 1956 Reading Notes Dirk Van Hulle, 2004 Reading notes constitute a vast resource for an understanding of literary history and culture They indicate what writers read as well as how they read and what they used in their own work As such they play an important role in both the reception and the production of texts The essays in this volume representing the newest trends in European and international textual scholarship examine literary creation and the relationship between reading and writing To study how readers respond to writing and how reading engenders new writing the contributing scholars no longer take for granted that authors write in splendid isolation but turn to a more broadly sociological investigation of authorship assigning new roles to the writer as reader notetaker annotator book collector and so on Notes and annotations may be fragmentary private undigested and embryonic but as witnesses to the reading process they tell unique stories about writers and readers ranging from great marginalists like Coleridge to women annotators of cookbooks This subject of research is a junction of several fields of research and tries to bridge gaps between separate disciplines with a common ground such as the history of the book the history of reading and the history of writing scholarly editing and textual genetics the analysis commentary and critical interpretation of the way in which works of art come into being bridging the gap between literary and textual criticism

Philosophers and Their Poets Charles Bambach, Theodore George, 2019-12-01 Examines the role that poets and the poetic word play in the formation of philosophical thinking in the modern German tradition Several of the most celebrated philosophers in the German tradition since Kant afford to poetry an all but unprecedented status in Western thought Fichte Hegel Nietzsche Heidegger and Gadamer argue that the scope limits and possibilities of philosophy are intimately intertwined with those of poetry For them poetic thinking itself is understood as intrinsic to the kind of thinking that defines philosophical inquiry and the philosophical life and they developed their views through extensive and sustained considerations of specific poets as well as specific poetic figures and images This book offers essays by leading scholars that address each of the major figures of this tradition and the respective poets they engage including Schiller Archilochus Pindar Hölderlin Eliot and Celan while also discussing the poets contemporary relevance to philosophy in the continental tradition Above all the book explores an approach to language that rethinks its role as a mere tool for communication or for the dissemination of knowledge Here language will be understood as an essential event that opens up the world in a primordial sense whereby poetry comes to have a deeply ethical significance for human beings In this way the volume positions ethics at the center of continental discourse even as it engages philosophy itself as a discourse about language attuned to the rigor of what poetry ultimately expresses
