North of Boston Robert Frost, 2014-04-15 SOMETHING there is that doesn't love a wall That sends the frozen ground swell under it And spills the upper boulders in the sun And makes gaps even two can pass abreast The work of hunters is another thing I have come after them and made repair Where they have left not one stone on a stone But they would have the rabbit out of hiding To please the yelping dogs The gaps I mean No one has seen them made or heard them made But at spring mending time we find them there I let my neighbour know beyond the hill And on a day we meet to walk the line And set the wall between us once again We keep the wall between us as we go To each the boulders that have fallen to each And some are loaves and some so nearly balls We have to use a spell to make them balance Stay where you are until our backs are turned We wear our fingers rough with handling them Oh just another kind of out door game One on a side It comes to little more There where it is we do not need the wall He is all pine and I am apple orchard My apple trees will never get across And eat the cones under his pines I tell him He only says Good fences make good neighbours Spring is the mischief in me and I wonder If I could put a notion in his head Why do they make good neighbours Isn't it Where there are cows But here there are no cows Before I built a wall I'd ask to know What I was walling in or walling out And to whom I was like to give offence
