Pocket Guide to Paris and the Cities of Northern France United States. Army Service Forces. Information and Education Division, 1944 A handbook for U S military personnel stationed in France during World War II A Handbook of Northern France William Morris Davis, 1918 Medieval Jewry in Northern France Robert Chazan, 2019-12-01 Originally published in 1974 Focusing on a set of Jewish communities Robert Chazan tells how by the eleventh century French Jews had created for themselves a role as local merchants and moneylenders in adapting to the political economic and social limits imposed on them French society striving to become more powerful and civilized was willing to extend aid and protection to the Jews in return for general stimulation of trade and urban life and for the immediate profit realized from taxation While the authorities were relatively successful in protecting the Jews from others there was no power to impose itself between the Jews and their protectors The political and social well being of the Jews was therefore dependent on the will of the governing authorities who taxed their holdings and regulated their activities During the twelfth and thirteenth centuries the position of the Jews was constantly under attack by reform elements in the church concerned with Jewish moneylending and blasphemous materials in Jewish books these reformers were eventually devoted to a serious missionizing effort within the Jewish community The Jews situation was further complicated by deep popular animosity expressing itself in a damaging set of slanders and occasionally in physical violence Despite the impressive achievements of the Jews in medieval northern France by the thirteenth century their community was increasingly constricted and in 1306 they were expelled from royal France by Philip IV Overcoming the handicap of a lack of copious source material Chazan analyzes the Jews political status their relations with key elements of Christian society their demographic development their economic outlets their internal organization and their attitudes toward the Christian environment As it highlights aspects of French society from an unusual perspective Medieval Jewry in Northern France should be of special interest to the historian of medieval France as well as to the student of Jewish history This story is also significant for all who are fascinated by the capacity of human groups to respond and adapt creatively to a hostile and limiting environment Female Enterprise Behind the Discursive Veil in Nineteenth-Century Northern France Béatrice Craig, 2016-11-09 This volume explores the role of women in business in nineteenth century Northern French textile centers Lille and the surrounding towns were then dominated by big and small family businesses and many were run by women Those women did not withdraw into the parlour as the century progressed and the separate ideology spread Neither did they become mere figure heads most were business persons in their own rights Yet they have left almost no traces in the collective memory and historians assume they ceased to exist This book therefore seeks to answer three interrelated questions How common were those women and what kind of business did they run What factors facilitated or impeded their activities And finally why have they been forgotten and why has their representations in regional and academic history been so at odd with reality Indirectly this study also sheds light on the process of industrialization in this region and on industrialists strategies

Song, Landscape, and Identity in Medieval Northern France Jennifer Saltzstein, 2023 Song Landscape and Identity in Medieval Northern France offers a new perspective on how medieval song expressed relationships between people and their environments Informed by environmental history and harnessing musicological and ecocritical approaches author Jennifer Saltzstein draws connections between the nature imagery that pervades songs written by the trouvés of northern France to the physical terrain and climate of the lands on which their authors lived In doing so she analyzes the different ways in which composers lived environments related to their songs and categorizes their use of nature imagery as realistic aspirational or nostalgic Demonstrating a cycle of mutual impact between nature and culture Saltzstein argues that trouvée songs influenced the ways particular groups of medieval people defined their identities encouraging them to view themselves as belonging to specific landscapes The book offers close readings of love songs pastourelles motets and rondets from the likes of Gace Brul Adam de la Halle Guillaume de Machaut and many others Saltzstein shows how their music text relationships illuminate the ways in which song helped to foster identities tied to specific landscapes among the knightly classes the clergy aristocratic women and peasants By connecting social types to topographies trouvée songs and the manuscripts in which they were preserved presented models of identity for later generations of songwriters performers listeners patrons and readers to emulate thereby projecting into the future specific ways of being on the land Written in the long thirteenth century during the last major era of climate change trouvée songs as Saltzstein demonstrates shape our understanding of how identity formation has rested on relationships between nature culture and change

Agent Michael Trotobas and SOE in Northern France Stewart Kent, Nick Nicholas, 2015-11-30 The exceptional exploits courage and leadership of British SOE Agent Trotobas have long been recognised in France but not in his own country despite being recommended for the Victoria Cross Captured on his first mission Trotobas led a mass break out from Mauzac Internment Camp and eventually returned to England He immediately volunteered to return and established and ran a resistance group around Lille and the Pas de Calais for a year As the Nazis closed in he refused to leave the French men and women who had shown him complete loyalty He paid the ultimate price fighting to the death rather than undergo capture As well as describing the operations of the Sylvestre Farmer circuit the authors record the rivalries and intrigues that sprang up culminating in betrayals and extraordinary demand for the court martial and execution of the Circuit's British second in command This book is a major addition to the bibliography of the SOE and French Resistance camp The sources in the volume show how the perpetrators attempted to dupe their victims regarding the destination of the transports and how Jewish organizations attempted to alleviate the suffering of the deportees The documents additionally illustrate how the resistance movement gained momentum during this period Learn more about the PMJ on <https://pmjdocuments.org> Bulletin, 1905 A First Report on the Relations Between Climates and Crops Cleveland Abbe, 1905 Summary of expert opinion published up to 1891 on seed germination soil temperature and moisture solar energy atmospheric conditions and influences of climate with data for selected U S and foreign locations Commerce Reports, 1932 Whole Cloth the Floyd Family from England to Georgia, The Chalk Aquifers of Northern Europe R.P.
