Constructing Victimhood Cheryl Lawther, 2024-11-13 Constructing Victimhood seeks to go beyond innocence and guilt to expand the criminological victimological and transitional justice image of who we see as victims what we hear as experiences of victimisation and who makes these determinations The book argues that the construction reproduction and politicisation of victimhood is structured not only by notions of innocence and guilt and the existence of complex victims but by larger questions concerning the existence of complex hierarchies of victimhood that supersede simplistic notions of good and bad victims Lawther also considers the exercise of voice the role of silence and the silencing of certain variants of victimhood in gender based crimes for example the politicisation of victims groups and the impact of unresolved legacies of violent conflict The author argues that in the failure to cast the transitional justice gaze more widely it is not only the voices in the cracks that will be overlooked but entire experiences of victimhood and victimisation If transitional justice is to live up to its claims of being victim centred widening its conceptual and practical boundaries to recognise the multiple and overlapping variables that construct and reproduce victimhood is essential

Pursuing this line of enquiry Constructing Victimhood aims to change our understanding of victimhood in post conflict and transitional contexts The Routledge Companion to Military Research Methods Alison J. Williams, Neil Jenkins, Rachel Woodward, Matthew F. Rech, 2016-04-28 This new handbook is about the practices of conducting research on military issues As an edited collection it brings together an extensive group of authors from a range of disciplinary perspectives whose chapters engage with the conceptual practical and political questions raised when doing military research The book considers a wide range of questions around research about on and with military organisations personnel and activities from diverse starting points across the social sciences arts and humanities Each chapter in this volume Describes the nature of the military research topic under scrutiny and explains what research practices were undertaken and why Discusses the author s research activities addressing the nature of their engagement with their subjects and explaining how the method or approach under scrutiny was distinctive because of the military context or subject of the research Reflects on the author s research experiences and the specific often unique negotiations with the politics and practices of military institutions and military personnel before during and after their research fieldwork The book provides a focussed overview of methodological approaches to critical studies of military personnel and institutions and processes and practices of militarisation and militarism In particular it engages with the growth in qualitative approaches to military research particularly research carried out on military topics outside military research institutions The handbook provides the reader with a comprehensive guide to how critical military research is being undertaken by social scientists and humanities scholars today and sets out suggestions for future approaches to military research This book will be of much interest to students of military studies war and conflict studies and research methods in general The Palgrave Handbook of Global Political Psychology H. miss The methods explored in this work chime with the contemporary interest in critical approaches to peace and conflict studies and approaches that are interested in local perspectives The volume also connects with a growing interest in civic epistemology or the co production of data whereby research subjects participate in the research and have a chance of understanding the relevance of research All of the contributors to the volume have significant field experience in conflict affected areas and their work is informed by an engagement with the everyday challenges and opportunities facing people in war zones This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Intervention and Statebuilding Armed Struggle Richard English, 2008-09-04 A timely work of major historical importance examining the whole spectrum of events from the 1916 Easter Rising to the current and ongoing peace process fully updated with a new afterword for the paperback edition An essential book closely reasoned formidably intelligent and utterly compelling required reading across the political spectrum important and riveting Roy Foster The Times An outstanding new book on the IRA a calm rational but in the end devastating deconstruction of the IRA Henry McDonald Observer Superb the first full history of the IRA and the best overall account of the organization English writes to the highest scholarly standards Moreover he writes with the common reader in mind he has crafted a fine balance of detail and analysis and his prose is clear fresh and jargon free sets a new standard for debate on republicanism Peter Hart Irish Times The one book I recommend for anyone trying to understand the craziness and complexity of the Northern Ireland tragedy Frank McCourt author of Angela's Ashes Political Transition Paul Gready, 2003-04-20 In the twentieth century many countries around the globe experienced rapid and often traumatic political transformations From East Germany and Northern Ireland to Argentina Chile and Zimbabwe political transition has been momentous and has had a deep impact on the individual culture of each society This collection explores these periods of political transition and the impact that they have had through an analysis of memory identity space place and voice Concentrating in particular on post colonial and post oppressive regimes in Europe Southern Africa and Latin America the contributors assess how individuals come to terms with rapid political change and the enduring legacies of the past in the present They examine how political transformations affect people's memories and identities reworking spaces places and voices and how both official and unofficial mechanisms set up to cope with these changes impact on these issues Juxtaposing different country and regional experiences and different historical eras this is a comprehensive guide to the vast range of issues involved in political transition Education and Reconciliation Julia Paulson, 2011-03-31 What is the relationship between education and reconciliation initiatives Who encourages and enacts it and who discourages and detracts from it Do reconciliatory educational practices offer any insight into the nature of reconciliation as a process Drawing on international research in numerous countries including Bosnia Herzegovina Rwanda South Africa Jordan Peru and the USA the contributors consider conceptually and empirically the role of education in reconciling societies groups and individuals divided by conflict These case studies expand conceptual and empirical understandings of the understudied relationship
