

A large, diverse crowd of people is gathered for a protest. Many individuals in the foreground have their mouths open as if shouting or chanting. They are holding a long white banner that spans the width of the image. In the background, several red flags are visible, held high by the participants. The scene is outdoors, and the atmosphere appears to be one of active demonstration.

Northern Ireland Living With The Crisis:

Facets of the Conflict in Northern Ireland Seamus Dunn, 2016-07-27 an important volume for anyone anxious to understand the fundamentals of politics in Northern Ireland today Margaret O Callaghan Irish Times Facets of the Conflict in Northern Ireland is written by practising social science researchers all currently or recently working within Northern Ireland It provides an up to date background to the conflict and much of the material used arises from the wide range of funded researches carried out at the Centre for the Study of Conflict University of Ulster during the past sixteen years Each chapter focuses on a different facet of the problem and these include social legal political religious economic and cultural matters

A Bibliography of British History, 1914-1989 Keith Robbins, American Historical Association, Royal Historical Society (Great Britain), 1996 Containing over 25 000 entries this unique volume will be absolutely indispensable for all those with an interest in Britain in the twentieth century Accessibly arranged by theme with helpful introductions to each chapter a huge range of topics is covered There is a comprehensive index

Northern Ireland Alan J. Ward, 1987

God's Peoples Donald H. Akenson, 1992 Akenson brings to light critical similarities among three politically troubled nations South Africa Israel and Northern Ireland

Northern Ireland Alan J. Ward, 1987-06-11 In this book Alan Ward has collected contributions from education psychology law political science religion literature and poetry in order to examine the life and mind of a community in crisis Much has been written about the causes of conflict in Northern Ireland Little has been said on the conflict's impact on the community This book fills the gap by addressing not only the way violence affects daily life by also its influence on art and culture

Mental Health and Politics in Northern Ireland Pauline Prior, 1993 This text traces the development of policies for mentally ill people in Northern Ireland It describes a service based on lunacy law inherited from 19th century Ireland which remained virtually unchanged until after World War II The 1950s and 1960s were revolutionary heralding the emergence of a modern mental health care system under the direction of the newly created Northern Ireland Hospitals Authority

Access to Social Justice Katie Boyle, Diana Camps, Kirstie English, Jo Ferrie, Aidan Flegg, Gaurav Mukherjee, 2025-01-31 Available open access digitally under CC BY NC ND licence This book proposes a conception of social justice according to international human rights law Social rights include everyday rights such as housing food fuel and social security Drawing on extensive research with frontline practitioners the book frames access to social justice as a journey that should end with the realisation of an effective remedy It highlights discourses that marginalise and disempower rights holders and reclaims the narrative around social rights as legal rights This is a unique contribution to our understanding of access to social justice from a social rights perspective complete with key recommendations for policy and practice

Power, Politics and Territory in the 'New Northern Ireland' Elizabeth DeYoung, 2023-10-15 Winner of the ACIS Donald Murphy Prize for Distinguished First Book 2023 In the wake of the Good Friday Agreement the redevelopment of the former Girdwood Army Barracks in North Belfast was hailed as a symbol of hope for Northern Ireland It was a major investment in a former conflict zone and an internationally significant peacebuilding project. Instead of adhering to the tenets of the Agreement, sectarianism dominated the regeneration agenda. Throughout the process, politicians, community groups, and paramilitaries wrangled over the site's future, and territorial contest won out over housing need. After eleven years of negotiation and 11.7 million the EU-funded Girdwood Community Hub opened its doors to the public in 2016, but its impact has been underwhelming. The Hub's redevelopment is a microcosm of the peace process itself and the ways in which post-Agreement politics have failed to deliver a shared future for the people of Northern Ireland twenty-five years on. This ethnography provides a lively account of Girdwood's redevelopment and a wry critique of the fractious political context around it. Through fieldwork and encounter, the author brings us across peace walls into community meetings and behind the scenes of decision-making in Northern Ireland. Girdwood's story also sheds light on how power, politics, and territory intersect in divided cities globally.

Northern Ireland Feargal Cochrane, 2021-03-09. The complete history of Northern Ireland from the Irish Civil War to Brexit. A wonderful book beautifully written. Informative and incisive. Irish Times. After two decades of relative peace following the Good Friday Agreement of 1998, the Brexit referendum in 2016 reopened the Northern Ireland question. In this thoughtful and engaging book, Feargal Cochrane considers the region's troubled history from the struggle for Irish independence in the nineteenth century to the present. New chapters explain the reasons for the suspension of devolved government at Stormont in 2017 and its restoration in 2020, as well as the consequences for Northern Ireland of Britain's decision to leave the European Union. Providing a complete account of the province's hundred-year history, this book is essential reading to understand the present dimensions of the Northern Irish conflict.

Northern Ireland, the BBC, and Censorship in Thatcher's Britain Robert J. Savage, 2022. This is a study of how Thatcher's government tried to control the narrative of the Northern Ireland conflict in an effort to shape how the Troubles were understood by regional, national, and international audiences, and exploring how Britain's status as a leading global democracy was tarnished by the imposition of censorship in the 1988 Broadcasting Ban.

Two Sides of the Same Coin Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-23. This book delves into the complexities of Northern Ireland, a land of captivating contrasts and profound divisions. Anti-Sectarianism and Reconciliation in Northern Ireland Cillian

McGrattan,2024-08-12 This book addresses the limitations of dominant ways of thinking about and doing politics in Northern Ireland Arguing for the foregrounding of anti sectarianism as a way of displacing the divisive dynamics of religion and nationalism it provides a new lens for studying Northern Ireland Drawing upon a close reading of the political philosophy of Jacques Ranci re the book aligns anti sectarianism to the ways that people refuse affiliation with the traditional ethnic values and practices It describes this refusal as dis identification and reveals how dissensus acts as an alternative to the displacing of equality Returning equality and equality claims making to a clear position of visibility the book provides a radical rethinking of Northern Ireland a quarter century beyond the 1998 peace accord It will appeal to all those interested in politics and peacebuilding studies

Irish Unity Ben Collins,2022-10-05

Growing up during The Troubles I was determined that I was not going to be forced into Irish unity by terrorist violence or the threat of it At the time there was no space to think about a different future But since then we have had peace however imperfect it may be and we now have the opportunity to freely decide our fate Why will everyone living on the island of Ireland benefit from Irish unity How will the referendum be won Do we need to start preparing now What will happen when Ireland is reunified Disillusioned with the state of pro union politics in Britain and Northern Ireland scarred by what he and many others see as a detrimental vote for Brexit and determined to heal the wounds inflicted by partition Ben Collins sets out a multitude of political social and economic benefits of removing the border on the island of Ireland once and for all Written from the viewpoint of an East Belfast born former UUP campaigner Irish Unity Time to Prepare addresses the concerns of unionists in Northern Ireland and sceptics in the Republic and urges everyone on the island of Ireland to escape the crumbling United Kingdom so that we can build a peaceful and prosperous future together for ourselves and our children Resituating Crisis Dorte Jagetic Andersen, Lola Aubry, 2025-01-01 The world is increasingly influenced by ongoing crisis or at least this is what mainstream media and politics wants us to believe When portrayed here crisis most often comes in the form of situations challenging a sense of normality such as with violent conflicts pandemics or forced migration However crisis is not just a situation twisting normality but can become constitutive of normality itself In exploring transformative and constructive elements to being in crisis this volume resituates the view on crisis in everyday life to foster critical and nuanced examination of discourses on and experiences of it A London Bibliography of the Social Sciences ,1931 Vols 1 4 include material to June 1 1929 Public Policy, Philanthropy and Peacebuilding in Northern Ireland Colin Knox, Padraic Quirk, 2016-05-31 This book examines the role played by one important external stakeholder Atlantic Philanthropies a limited life foundation in helping to build peace and promote reconciliation in Northern Ireland Northern Ireland is now referred to as a post conflict society largely due to the absence of political violence and relatively stable political institutions These are necessary but insufficient conditions for what Galtung has described as positive peace which requires a more fundamental review of the structural inequalities that contributed to the conflict in the first place Using detailed case studies the authors illustrate the role played by voluntary and community sector groups funded by Atlantic Philanthropies in influencing the public policy agenda and securing long term systemic changes They also critique the work of Atlantic as a pay to play organization whose original mission moved from funding the higher education sector on the island of Ireland to become a key foundation with a significant role in the peace process Crises and Challenges for the European Union Mark Rhinard, Neill Nugent, William E. Paterson, 2023-10-19 The crises of the European Union extend beyond the challenges of Covid 19 Brexit the Eurozone and mass migration cutting to the core of the EU itself Taking a structural rather than event based approach this text unpacks all aspects of the EU in crisis and analyses the implications of these crises for the EU and its member states This edition argues that crises and challenges are no longer unique and discreet events facing the EU but rather they are better understood as sustained conditions that have changed the relationships between member states the functioning of institutions the nature of public engagement and the prospects for integration Chapters broach institutional issues as well as specific policy challenges covering questions of legitimacy and leadership and offering a full chapter on democracy and Euroscepticism Working within both historical and theoretical frameworks this is the perfect companion for those studying and researching contemporary challenges facing the EU European integration political crisis management and transboundary crises more broadly Austerity Bites 10 Years On Mary O'Hara, 2024-09-17 Austerity has proven deadly Over the last decade the damage caused by austerity measures in the UK has had a long lasting and profound effect on many lives The first edition of Austerity Bites offered on the ground reportage of one of the most significantly regressive economic strategies of any post war government Over a year Mary O Hara toured the UK to gauge the immediate impact and expectations of people affected and found many clinging to the hope that austerity cuts would not last long as the damage became increasingly apparent Alas this was not how things unfolded Instead much of the Welfare State had its vital support systems systematically undermined The public sector including the NHS is now on its knees Schools are buckling under multiple structural and budgetary pressures Councils even big ones are going broke Homelessness is rampant While Brexit the pandemic and war have no doubt impacted the economic health of the country previous austerity cuts left the UK less prepared to weather such extraordinary events With new commentary Austerity Bites 10 Years On assesses on the true scale of the damage these policies have inflicted on the country s most vulnerable groups public institutions and on the wider society It reflects on where we have been where we are now and what needs to happen next to undo the damage and avoid the same mistakes again
