North East England, 1850-1914 Graeme J. Milne, 2006 The development of the coalfield and the riparian manufacturing districts moulded new industrial landscapes the growth of ports and conurbations demanded innovative approaches to government and administration and the business strategies of North East entrepreneurs challenged conventional boundaries The author concludes that riverside districts on the Tyne Tees and Wear represented more viable working horizons than any regional North East in this era and raises important questions about the study of the English regions in their historical context Jacket Northumbria Constance Mary Fraser, K.
