Not At Home The Suppression Of Domesticity In Modern Art And Architecture:

Not at Home Christopher Reed,1996 This is an investigation of domesticity in visual culture consisting of essays which trace its alternate use and suppression in modern art and architecture from the Victorian period right up to the present day

The Dissolution of Place Shelton Waldrep,2016-03-16 Postmodern architecture with its return to ornamentality historical quotation and low culture kitsch has long been seen as a critical and popular anodyne to the worst aspects of modernist architecture glass boxes built in urban locales as so many interchangeable generic anti architectural cubes and slabs This book extends this debate beyond the modernist postmodernist rivalry to situate postmodernism as an already superseded concept that has been upended by deconstructionist and virtual architecture as well as the continued turn toward the use of theming in much new public and corporate space It investigates architecture on the margins of postmodernism those places where both architecture and postmodernism begin to break down and to reveal new forms and new relationships The book examines in detail not only a wide range of architectural phenomena such as theme parks casinos specific modernist and postmodernist buildings but also interrogates architecture in relation to identity specifically Native American and gay male identities as they are reflected in new notions of the built environment In dealing specifically with the intersection between postmodern architecture and virtual and filmic definitions of space as well as with theming and gender and racial identities this book provides provides ground breaking insights not only into postmodern architecture but into spatial thinking in general

Eileen Gray and the Design of Sapphic Modernity Jasmine Rault,2017-07-05 The first book length feminist analysis of Eileen Gray s work Eileen Gray and the Design of Sapphic Modernity Staying In argues that Gray s unusual architecture and design as well as its history of abuse and neglect emerged from her involvement with cultures of sapphic modernism Bringing together a range of theoretical and historical sources from architecture and design communication and media to gender and sexuality studies Jasmine Rault shows that Gray shared with many of her female contemporaries a commitment to designing spaces for sexually dissident modernity This volume examines Gray s early lacquer work and Romaine Brooks earliest nude paintings Gray s first built house E 1027 in relation to Radclyffe Hall and her novel The Well of Loneliness and Gray s private house Tempe nbsp Pailla with Djuna Barnes Nightwood While both female sexual dissidence and modernist architecture were reduced to rigid identities through mass media women such as Gray Brooks Hall and Barnes resisted the clarity of such identities with opaque non communicative aesthetics Rault demonstrates that by defying the modern imperative to publicity clarity and identity Gray helped design a sapphic modernity that cultivated the dynamism of uncertain bodies and unfixed pleasures which depended on staying in rather than coming out Gender, Space, and the Gaze in Post-Haussmann Visual Culture Temma Balducci,2017-03-27 Charles Baudelaire s fl neur as described in his 1863 essay The Painter of Modern Life remains central to understandings of gender space and the gaze in late nineteenth century Paris despite misgivings by some scholars Baudelaire s privileged and leisurely figure at home on the boulevards underlies theorizations of bourgeois masculinity and by implication bourgeois femininity whereby men gaze and roam urban spaces unreservedly while women lacking the freedom to either gaze or roam are wedded to domesticity In challenging this tired paradigm and offering fresh ways to consider how gender space and the gaze were constructed this book attends to several neglected elements of visual and written culture the ubiquitous male beggar as the true denizen of the boulevard the abundant depictions of well to do women looking sometimes at men the popularity of windows and balconies as viewing perches and the overwhelming emphasis given by both male and female artists to domestic scenes The book's premise that gender space and the gaze have been too narrowly conceived by a scholarly embrace of Baudelaire's flâneur is supported across the cultural spectrum by period sources that include art criticism high and low visual culture newspapers novels prescriptive and travel literature architectural practices interior design trends and fashion journals

Home Alison Blunt, Robyn Dowling, 2022-05-30 Home articulates a critical geography of home in which home is understood as an emotive place and spatial imaginary that encompasses lived experiences of everyday domestic life alongside a wider and often contested sense of being and belonging in the world Engaging with the burgeoning cross disciplinary interest in home since the first edition was published this significantly revised and updated second edition contains new research boxes illustrations and contemporary examples throughout It also adds a new chapter on Home and the City that extends the scalar understanding of home to the urban The book develops the conceptual and methodological underpinnings of a critical geography of home drawing on key feminist postcolonial and housing thinkers as well as contemporary methodological currents in non representational thinking and performance The book's chapters consider the making and unmaking of home across the domestic scale house as home the urban city as home national nation as home and homemaking in relation to transnational migration and diaspora Each chapter includes illustrative examples from diverse geographical contexts and historical time periods Chapters also address some of the key cross cutting dimensions of home across these scales including digital connectivity art and performance more than human constructions of home and violence and dispossession The book ends with a research agenda for home in a world of COVID 19 The book provides an understanding of home that has three intersecting dimensions that material and imaginative geographies of home are closely intertwined that home power and identity are intimately linked and that geographies of home are multi scalar This framework the examples used to illustrate it and the intended audience of academics and students across the humanities and social sciences will together shape the field of home studies into the future

Contemporary British Ceramics and the Influence of Sculpture Laura Gray, 2018-01-02 This book investigates how British contemporary artists who work with clay have managed in the space of a single generation to take ceramics from niche interest craft to the pristine territories of the contemporary art gallery This development has been accompanied and perhaps propelled by the kind of critical discussion usually reserved for the higher discipline of sculpture Ceramics is now encountering and colliding with sculpture both formally and intellectually Laura Gray examines what this means for the old hierarchies between art and craft the identity of the potter and the character of a discipline tied to a specific material but wanting to participate in critical discussions that extend far beyond clay

Furnishing Fascism Ignacio G. Galán,2025-05-16 The role of modernist interior design in the construction of Italian nationalism Along with the rise of Mussolini s fascist regime the interwar years in Italy also saw the widespread development of its modernist interior design and furnishing practices While the regime s politics were overtly manifest in monumental government architecture Furnishing Fascism examines the subtler yet effective role of household goods and decor in the cultivation of Italy s exclusionary sense of national identity Presenting a fresh look at the work of various architects and designers including iconic figures such as Gio Ponti and Carlo Enrico Rava Ignacio G Gal n explores how seemingly neutral products of everyday life contributed to the propagation of fascist ideology Through extensive promotion in popular magazines and department stores on the film sets of Cinecitt Studios and throughout the country s colonial territories Italy s modernist design practices were part of a larger political project that aimed to produce a totalizing image of cultural hegemony Interweaving design theory architectural history and media scholarship Furnishing Fascism reexamines the period s so called minor arts to reveal the political entanglement of modernism in early twentieth century Italy and offers valuable insight into the complications of cultural production under the auspices of authoritarian power Retail e book files for this title are screen reader friendly with images accompanied by short alt text and or extended descriptions

The Domestic Interior and the Self in Contemporary Photography Jane Simon,2023-09-18 By carefully conceptualising the domestic in relation to the self and the photographic this book offers a unique contribution to both photography theory and criticism and life narrative studies Jane Simon brings together two critical practices into a new conversation arguing that artists who harness domestic photography can advance a more expansive understanding of the autobiographical Exploring the idea that self representation need not equate to self portraiture or involve the human form artists from around the globe are examined including Rinko Kawauchi Catherine Opie Dayanita Singh Moyra Davey and Elina Brotherus who maintain a personal gaze at domestic detail By treating the representation of interiors domestic objects and the very practice of photographic seeing and framing as autobiographical gestures this book reframes the relationship between interiors and exteriors public and private and insists on the importance of domestic interiors to understandings of the self and photography The book will be of interest to scholars working in photographic history and theory art history and visual studies      The Routledge Companion to Art and Disability Keri Watson,Timothy W. Hiles,2022-03-30 The Routledge Companion to Art and Disability explores disability in visual culture to uncover the ways in which bodily and cognitive differences are articulated physically and theoretically and to demonstrate the ways in which disability is culturally constructed This companion is organized thematically and includes artists from across historical periods and cultures in order to demonstrate the ways in which disability is historically and culturally contingent The book engages with questions such as How are people with disabilities represented in art How are notions of disability articulated in relation to ideas of normality hybridity and anomaly How do artists use visual culture to affirm or subvert notions of the normative body Contributors consider the changing role of disability in visual culture the place of representations in society and the ways in which disability studies engages with and critiques intersectional notions of gender race ethnicity class and sexuality This book will be particularly useful for scholars in art history disability studies visual culture and museum studies      A Companion to Contemporary Design since 1945 Anne Massey,2019-04-22 A critical overview of contemporary design and its place within the broader context of art history A Companion to Contemporary Design since 1945 introduces readers to a collection of specially commissioned essays exploring the complex areas of design that emerged through the latter half of the twentieth century design history design methods design studies and more recently design thinking The book delivers a thoughtful overview of all design disciplines and also strives to stimulate inter disciplinary debate and examine unconsidered convergences among design applications in different fields By offering a new perspective on design the articles assembled here present a challenging account of the boundaries between design history and its cognate disciplines especially art history The volume comprises five sections Time Place Space Objects and Audiences that discuss environments for design and how we interact with designed objects and spaces Notable features include 24 new essays reflecting the current state of design history and theory and examining developments on a global basis Contributions by eminent scholars and practitioners from around the globe Enriched throughout with illustrations A Companion to Contemporary Design since 1945 provides a new and thought provoking revision of our conception and understanding of contemporary design that will be essential reading for students at both undergraduate and graduate levels as well as researchers and teachers working in design history theory and practice and in related fields      Tourism: New directions and alternative tourism Stephen Williams,2004 This collection of key articles from the most influential journals and books in the field examines what social scientists mean by the term tourism and what it means to be a tourist Carefully selected and introduced by the editor this material charts the sociological changes that have occurred in tourism and the change from the upper class grand tours of the late nineteenth century to the mass tourism of the present day The collection also assesses the economic impacts of tourism on local economies environmental considerations and whether the growth of tourism is sustainable in a post September 11th world Tourism Critical Concepts in the Social Sciences is an accessible and comprehensive resource designed for academics and scholars researching in tourism globalization and human geography

Performing the Body/Performing the Text Amelia Jones, Andrew Stephenson Nfa, Andrew Stephenson, 2005-08-12 This book explores the new performativity in art theory and practice examining ways of rethinking interpretive processes in visual culture Since the 1960s visual art practices from body art to minimalism have taken contemporary art outside the museum and gallery by embracing theatricality and performance and exploding the boundaries set by traditional art criticism The contributors argue that interpretation needs to be recognised as much more dynamic and contingent Offering its own performance script and embracing both canonical fine artists such as Manet De Kooning and Jasper Johns and performance artists such as Vito Acconci and Gunter Brus this book offers radical re readings of art works and points confidently towards new models for understanding art

Borders of Socialism L. Siegelbaum, 2016-04-15 This fascinating book argues that in Russia the relations between culture and nation art and life commodity and trash often diverged from familiar Western European or American versions of modernity The essays show how public and private overlapped and shaped each other creating new perspectives on individuals and society in the Soviet Union

Networks of Design Jonathan Glynn, Fiona Hackney, Minton, Viv, 2010-06 Networks of Design maps a new methodological territory in design studies conceived as a field of interdisciplinary inquiry and practice informed by a range of responses to actor network theory It brings together a rich body of current work by researchers in the social sciences technology material culture cultural geography information technology and systems design and design theory and history This collection will be invaluable to students and researchers in many areas of design studies and to design practitioners receptive to new and challenging notions of what constitutes the design process Over ninety essays are thematically organised to address five aspects of the expanded notions of mediation agency and collaboration posited by network theory Ideas Things Technology Texts and People The collection also includes an important new essay on rethinking the concept of design by Bruno Latour one of the most influential figures in the philosophy and sociology of science and technology and a pioneer of actor network theory and essays deriving from forum discussions involving designers and designer makers responsive to actor network theory Rather than an anthology of previously published essays Networks of Design presents work in progress on design theory and its applications It is the outcome of a live and vigorous debate on the possibilities and actualities offered by actor network led conceptualisations of the relationships and processes constituting design All the essays many collaborative derive from papers presented at the international conference of the Design History Society held at University College Falmouth UK in the Autumn of 2008

The Still Life in the Fiction of A. S. Byatt Elizabeth Hicks, 2010-08-11 This book explores the ways in which English writer

A S Byatt s visual still lifes descriptions of real or imagined artworks and what are termed verbal still lifes scenes such as laid tables rooms and market stalls are informed by her veneration of both realism and writing It examines Byatt s adoption of the Barthesian concept of textual pleasure showing how her ekphrastic descriptions involve consumption and take time to unfold for the reader thereby highlighting the limitations of painting It also investigates the ways in which Byatt s still lifes demonstrate her debts to English modernist author Virginia Woolf French writer Marcel Proust and the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood of nineteenth century Britain A number of Byatt s verbal still lifes are read as semiotic markers of her characters particularly with regard to economic status and class Further her descriptions uniting food and sexuality are perceived as part of her overall representation of pleasure Finally Byatt s employment of vanitas iconography in many of her portrayals of death is discussed showing how her recurring motif of Keats s Ode on a Grecian Urn teases out the still life s inherent tension between living passion and cold artwork

Welcome to the Dreamhouse Lynn Spigel,2001-06-01
Historical and theoretical essays on television and media culture by a leading feminist studies scholar Modernist Impersonalities R. Rives,2012-08-16 Rives uncovers a context of aesthetic and social debate that modernist studies has yet to fully articulate examining what it meant for various intellectuals working in early twentieth century Britain and America to escape from personality

Narrating Modernity: The British Problem Picture, 1895-1914 Pamela M. Fletcher,2018-02-05 This title was first published in 2003 Problem pictures were very popular during the Edwardian period These pictures invited multiple interpretations of modern life and were often slightly risque Pamela Fletcher explores how these works of art engaged with questions of gender sexuality and identity during their heyday
