The communist regimes of Eastern Europe the fight for women's rights and trying to adapt to a new life in Canada while suspended between two worlds are towering themes in this hard hitting book Yakimov takes her readers to faraway places You ll meet Mrs Bailey who finds herself in a strange place right in her own country you ll learn how so many are struggling with life in the post communists democracies while battling the consequences of totalitarianism and you ll feel how agonizing it can be for a mother to yearn for a child in a faraway place And of course you ll walk through the doors of Caf The Blue Danube where immigrants united by a common love of dancing and music can congregate and come to terms with their own circumstances their own problems and their own regrets all while looking to the future The memoirs in Caf The Blue Danube deftly point out that being a newcomer can be a difficult experience but they also celebrate what makes us all different as well as the same Good
