Not On Any Map Essays On Postcoloniality And Cultural Nationalism:

Not on Any Map Stuart Murray, 1997 The collection draws on the work of scholars and creative producers from all over the world who explore the idea of the nation in a variety of postcolonial contexts Science Fiction and Empire Patricia Kerslake, 2007-04-01 This book is about the human desire to experiment with empire In the past it was done with real soldiers and expeditions and slaves and trade and misery and force In the future it will be done with generation ships and off world pioneers robots and invasion electronic sheep and people who just don't want to be pushed around any more Beginning with a discussion of who we are hopefully the good guys and who they are anyone who isn't us this narrative scans the lights of science fiction looking at the places where humans try to touch a variety of futures Is SF designed to purge our dark imperialistic fantasies or is it a laboratory of mind experiments carefully considered trials of political social and economic scenarios Which tomorrow are we more likely to accept where the blood of empire is red or read Examining such classic SF texts as Lasswitz's Two Planets and Wells The War of the Worlds this book investigates Asimov's Robots and Heinlein's Moon as well as Robinson's Mars and Banks' postcolonial Culture We see the rise and fall of empire through the eyes of Miller Clarke and Wyndham and the apparently inevitable failure of the imperial project as discussed in Solaris The Dispossessed and The Forever War This book offers an insight into the darkest power abuses of mankind where the oppression silencing and marginalisation of those who are not us continues and flourishes Who are the monsters of our future the Others invading from another planet or the unseen and unrecognised Other within Evacuee Cinema Salma Siddique, 2023-02-16 This new history of partition and South Asian cinema is narrated through the careers of migr film personnel as well as through the distinctive genres and ancillary ventures that accompanied the aftershocks of partition Moving beyond arguments about social contingency and political intent the book suggests that the creative energies production and subsequent circulation of popular cinema can offer fresh insights into partition Pointing to regional connections across national boundaries this book asserts that the cinemas of India and Pakistan must be explored in tandem to uncover the legacy of partition for the culture industries of the region one that is not hewn out of national erasures The leitmotifs of migr personnel gossip and satire in film print culture the partisan repertoire of a theatre company the film genres of the Muslim social romantic comedies and charba remakes and the unruly film archives of postcolonial nation states when accessed through the lens of a divisive decolonization reveal the parallaxes and confabulations of the national on both sides Theatre of the Arts, 2021-07-26 This volume celebrates Wilson Harris's eightieth birthday and more than fifty years of creative writing The most original and profound writer of the Caribbean he has revolutionized the art of fiction and its language He has himself contributed to this volume and several Caribbean writers of a younger generation Cyril Dabydeen Fred D Aguiar Andrew Jefferson Miles Mark McWatt Caryl Phillips Lawrence Scott pay tribute here to his genius The essays are by critics from the Caribbean Britain the United States and continental Europe who have long admired and explored his work They cover the various genres of Harris

s writing his poetry fiction and criticism and deal with major aspects of his work bringing out its relevance to the contemporary context of violence in the world its modernity and its contribution to the renewal of the humanities

Post-Colonial Studies: The Key Concepts Bill Ashcroft, Gareth Griffiths, Helen Tiffin, 2003-12-16 This volume provides an essential key to understanding the issues which characterize post colonialism explaining what it is where it is encountered and why it is crucial in forging new cultural identities As a subject post colonial studies stands at the intersection of debates about race colonialism gender politics and language In the language of post colonial studies some words are new others are familiar words charged with new significance Among over 100 entries this book includes definitions of diaspora Fanonism hybridity imperialism Manicheanism mimicry miscegenation negritude orientalism settler colony subaltern trans curation There are suggestions for further reading at the end of each entry and a comprehensive glossary with extensive cross referencing The bibliography of essential writings in post colonial studies is in an easy to use A Z format Recharting the Black Atlantic Annalisa Oboe, Anna Scacchi, 2011-04-13 This book focuses on the migrations and metamorphoses of black bodies practices and discourses around the Atlantic particularly with regard to current issues such as questions of identity political and human rights cosmopolitics and mnemonic history Post-War British Literature and the "End of Empire" Matthew Whittle, 2017-01-03 This book examines literary texts by British colonial servant and settler writers including Anthony Burgess Graham Greene William Golding and Alan Sillitoe who depicted the impact of decolonization in the newly independent colonies and at home in Britain The end of the British Empire was one of the most significant and transformative events in twentieth century history marking the beginning of a new world order and having an indelible impact on British culture and society Literary responses to this moment by those from within Britain offer an enlightening and often overlooked exploration of the influence of decolonization on received notions of race and class while also prefiguring conceptions of multiculturalism As Matthew Whittle argues in this sweeping study these works not only view decolonization within its global context alongside the aftermath of the Second World War the rise of America and mass immigration but often propose a solution to imperial decline through cultural renewal Pacific Islands Writing Michelle Keown, 2007-10-04 The Oxford Studies in Postcolonial Literatures series offers stimulating and accessible introductions to definitive topics and key genres and regions within the rapidly diversifying field of postcolonial literary studies in English The first book of its kind Pacific Islands Writing offers a broad ranging introduction to the postcolonial literatures of the Pacific region Drawing upon metaphors of oceanic voyaging Michelle Keown takes the reader on a discursive journey through a variety of literary and cultural contexts in the Pacific exploring the Indigenous literatures of Polynesia Melanesia and Micronesia and also investigating a range of European or Western writing about the Pacific from the adventure fictions of Herman Melville R L Stevenson and Jack London to the Pkeh European settler literatures of Aotearoa New Zealand The book explores the relevance of international postcolonial theoretical paradigms to a reading of Pacific literatures but it also offers a region specific analysis of key authors and texts drawing upon indigenous Pacific literary theories and sketching in some of the key socio historical trajectories that have inflected Pacific writing Well established Indigenous Pacific authors such as Albert Wendt Witi Ihimaera Alan Duff and Patricia Grace are considered alongside emerging writers such as Sia Figiel Caroline Sinavaiana Gabbard and Dan Taulapapa McMullin The book focuses primarily upon Pacific literature in English the language used by the majority of Pacific writers but also breaks new ground in examining the growing corpus of francophone and hispanophone writing in French Polynesia New Caledonia and Easter Island Rapa Nui

Colonial and Postcolonial Literature Elleke Boehmer, 2005-10-06 Colonial and Postcolonial Literature is the leading critical overview of and historical introduction to colonial and postcolonial literary studies Highly praised from the time of its first publication for its lucidity breadth and insight the book has itself played a crucial part in founding and shaping this rapidly expanding field The author an internationally renowned postcolonial critic provides a broad contextualizing narrative about the evolution of colonial and postcolonial writing in English Illuminating close readings of texts by a wide variety of writers from Kipling and Conrad through to Kincaid from Ngugi to Noonuccal and Naipaul explicate key theoretical terms such as subaltern colonial resistance writing back and hybridity This revised edition includes new critiques of postcolonial women s writing an expanded and fully annotated bibliography and a new chapter and conclusion on postcolonialism exploring keynote debates in the field relating to sexuality transnationalism and local resistance

Black France Dominic Thomas, 2007 Without a doubt one of the most important studies so far completed on literature in French grounded in the experiences of migrants of sub Saharan African origin Alec Hargreaves Florida State University France has always hosted a rich and vibrant black presence within its borders But recent violent events have raised questions about France s treatment of ethnic minorities Challenging the identity politics that have set immigrants against the mainstream Black France explores how black expressive culture has been reformulated as global culture in the multicultural and multinational spaces of France Thomas brings forward questions such as Why is France a privileged site of civilization Who is French Who is an immigrant Who controls the networks of production Black France poses an urgently needed reassessment of the French colonial legacy

New Indian Cinema in Post-Independence India Anuradha Needham, 2013-11-26 Shyam Benegal is an Indian director and screenwriter whose work is considered central to New Indian cinema By closely analysing several of Benegal s films this book provides an understanding of India s post independence history The book examines the filmmaker s focus on women by highlighting his subtle and critical engagement with a truism of Indian nationalism women's centrality to the nation state's negotiation with modernity It looks at the importance Benegal accords to history its little known contested or iconic events and figures in crafting national culture and identities and goes on to discuss the filmmaker's nuanced representation of the developmental agendas of the nation state The book presents an account of the relationship of historical film and fiction to official history and provides a fuller understanding of Indian cinema and how it is shaped by as well as itself shapes national imperatives Filling a gap in the literature the book offers an analysis of cinematic treatment of post independence narratives and gives important insights into the imagination of the time It is a useful contribution for students and scholars of Film Studies South Asian History and South Asian Culture Home

Truths: Fictions of the South Asian Diaspora in Britain Susheila Nasta, 2017-04-20 The figure of the diasporic or migrant writer has recently come to be seen as the Everyman of the late modern period a symbol of the global and the local a cultural traveller who can traverse the national political and ethnic boundaries of the new millennium Home Truths Fictions of the South Asian Diaspora in Britain seeks not only to place the individual works of now world famous writers such as VS Naipaul Salman Rushdie Sam Selvon or Hanif Kureishi within a diverse tradition of immigrant writing that has evolved in Britain since the Second World War but also locates their work as well as many lesser known writers such as Attia Hosain GV Desani Aubrey Menen Ravinder Randhawa and Romesh Gunsekera within a historical cultural and aesthetic framework which has its roots prior to postwar migrations and derives from long established indigenous traditions as well as colonial and post colonial visions of home and abroad Close critical readings combine with a historical and theoretical overview in this first book to chart the crucial role played by writers of South Asian origin in the belated acceptance of a literary poetics of black and Asian writing in Britain today The Cambridge History of Twentieth-Century English Literature Laura

Marcus, Peter Nicholls, 2004 Publisher Description Tamil Cinema Selvaraj Velayutham, 2008-04-03 Hitherto the academic study of Indian cinema has focused primarily on Bollywood despite the fact that the Tamil film industry based in southern India has overtaken Bollywood in terms of annual output This book examines critically the cultural and cinematic representations in Tamil cinema It outlines its history and distinctive characteristics and proceeds to consider a number of important themes such as gender religion class caste fandom cinematic genre the politics of identity and diaspora Throughout the book cogently links the analysis to wider social political and cultural phenomena in Tamil and Indian society Overall it is an exciting and original contribution to an under studied field also facilitating a fresh consideration of the existing body of scholarship on Indian cinema Sport, Representation and Evolving Identities in Europe Philip

Dine, Seán Crosson, 2010 Sport annually mobilizes millions of people across Europe as practitioners in a wide variety of competitive educational or recreational contexts and as spectators who are physically present or following events through the mass media This book presents original research into modern sport funded by the Irish Research Council for the Humanities and Social Sciences Its aim is to examine the distinctive contribution made by this complex phenomenon to the construction of European identities Attention is focused on sport s social significance as a set of mass mediated practices and spectacles giving rise to a network of images symbols and discourses The book seeks to explore and ultimately to explain the processes of representation and mediation involved in the sporting construction and subsequent renegotiation of local national and increasingly global identities It offers a survey of key developments in sporting Europe from the mid nineteenth century to the present and from the Atlantic to the Urals presenting findings by acknowledged international experts and emerging scholars at the level of individuals communities regions nation states and Europe as a whole in both its geographical and political incarnations Its focus on representation offers a broadly conceived and consciously inclusive approach to issues of Europeaness in modern and contemporary sport Being Maori in the City Natacha

Gagné,2013-01-21 Indigenous peoples around the world have been involved in struggles for decolonization self determination and recognition of their rights and the M ori of Aotearoa New Zealand are no exception Now that nearly 85% of the M ori population have their main place of residence in urban centres cities have become important sites of affirmation and struggle Grounded in an ethnography of everyday life in the city of Auckland Being Maori in the City is an investigation of what being M ori means today One of the first ethnographic studies of M ori urbanization since the 1970s this book is based on almost two years of fieldwork living with M ori families and more than 250 hours of interviews In contrast with studies that have focused on indigenous elites and official groups and organizations Being M ori in the City shines a light on the lives of ordinary individuals and families Using this approach Natacha Gagn adroitly underlines how indigenous ways of being are maintained and even strengthened through change and openness to the larger society Pacifist Invasions Yasser

Elhariry,2017 Pacifist Invasions is about what happens to the contemporary French lyric in the translingual Arabic context Drawing on lyric theory comparative poetics and linguistics it reveals three generic modes of translating Arabic poetics into French in works by Habib Tengour Algeria Edmond Jab s Egypt Salah St ti Lebanon Abdelwahab Meddeb Tunisia and Ryoko Sekiguchi Japan From language shift to language revitalization and sustainability Albert Bastardas-Boada,2019-11-25

This book aims to contribute to the overall integrated understanding of the processes of language contact and their evolution be they the result of political or economic dis integrations or migrations or for technological reasons Via an interdisciplinary holistic approach it also aims to support the theoretical grounding of a unified common sociolinguistic paradigm based on an ecological and complexity perspective This approach built on the fact that linguistic structures do not live in isolation from their social functions and must be situated in relation to the sub and supra systems that determine their existence if we are to understand their fortunes It is a useful contribution to understanding and promoting the processes of linguistic revitalization in the world combining at the same time the maintenance and development of diversity while ensuring the intercommunication of human species Out of Africa Pal Ahluwalia,2010-04-05 At the heart of this book is the argument that the fact that so many post structuralist French intellectuals have a strong colonial connection usually with Algeria cannot be a coincidence. The biographical fact that so many French intellectuals were born in or otherwise connected with French Algeria has often been noted but it has never been theorised. Ahluwalia makes a convincing case that post structuralism in fact has colonial and postcolonial roots. This is an important argument and one that connects two theoretical currents that continue to be of great interest: post structuralism and postcolonialism. The re-reading of what is now familiar material against the background of decolonial struggles demonstrates the extent to which it is this new condition that prompted theory to question long held assumptions inscribed in the European colonial enterprise. The wide ranging discussion ranging across authors as different as Foucault, Derrida, Fanon, Althusser, Cixous, Bourdieu and Lyotard enables the reader to make connections that have remained unnoticed or been neglected. It also brings back into view a history of struggles both political and theoretical that has shaped the landscape of critique in the social sciences and humanities. This clear and lucid discussion of important and often difficult thinkers will be widely read and widely debated by students and academics alike.
