Not Quite Straight A Memoir:

Not Quite Straight Jeffrey Smart, 2011-09-28 Australian artist Jeffrey Smart's wicked and utterly engaging memoir Born in respectable read dull Adelaide in 1921 Jeffrey Smart made his first Grand Tour of Europe at age 4 By 5 he had discovered Sex with a female classmate and Crime By 18 he'd decided he was the only person in Australia who was not quite straight The subsequent decades brought further enlightenment more travel study with Fernand Leger artistic development adventures high and low international acclaim friends famous and infamous and fittingly for someone who refers to himself as a European who carries an Australian passport a permanent return to the ancient sun soaked landscape of Tuscany This is Jeffrey Smart's account of that very full life He writes with a wicked wit of his family friends and lovers and of his jobs including being the much loved Phidias in ABC Radio's The Argonauts and the more lowly position of sink scrubber on a slow boat to London before finding fame as an artist Throughout he is candid funny and engaging Like Smart's paintings Not Quite Straight offers a singular perspective shaped by a unique life Not Quite Straight Jeffrey Smart, 1996

Philosophical works.- vol. III. Miscellanies and memoir Thomas Hill Green, 1893 Master of Stillness Barry Pearce, 2012 Jeffrey Smart's vision which has altered the way we see the technologies of change that impel us through the fabric of time curiously searches for an elusive stillness that lies at the heart of it and may be seen in Master of Stillness and appreciated with a selection of many of his most important masterpieces Imaging Italy Through the Eyes of Contemporary Australian Travellers (1990-2010) Roberta Trapè, 2011-07-12 For centuries Italy has been the destination of a lifetime for an endless stream of travellers This book focussing on the experience of contemporary Australian intellectuals explores an aspect as of yet scarcely studied within the global phenomenon of travel to Italy and discovers an image of the country starkly different from the one that prevailed in previous writings From the beginning of the 1990s onwards there has been a sizeable output of books by Australian writers set in or about Italy After a meticulous examination of these works Roberta Trapè has selected and analysed those that she considers the most interesting examples of Australians continuing fascination with Italy works of Jeffrey Smart and Shirley Hazzard and of Robert Dessaix and Peter Robb Examining the ways the four authors describe Italian places Imaging Italy looks into what it is that continues to attract Australian writers and artists to the country and tries to detect new trends in their attitude towards it The image of Italy that emerges from the most recent works is no doubt a superb picture not flattering but certainly not false of its contemporary times Heysen to Heysen Catherine Speck, 2019-03-21 The prominent Australian artist Nora Heysen has been said to have worked in the shadow of her father Hans Heysen one of Australia's most recognised landscape painters Letters between the two however reveal a different story In 1934 when Nora first travelled to London to study art she experienced her first time away from home and the first of many often exotic places from where she would write home to Hahndorf South Australia The correspondence between Nora and Hans continued until his death in 1968 Theirs was a close and affectionate relationship in which father and daughter shared a lifetime of thoughts about art and life and a mutual respect and admiration for each other's work Heysen to Heysen is a showcase of letters between Nora and Hans Heysen from the collection of the National Library of Australia Accompanied by carefully selected images and text by leading art historian Catherine Speck the publication lifts the lid on a vista of Australian art

Francis Bacon Mark Stevens, Annalyn Swan, 2021-03-23 THE TIMES BEST ART BOOK OF THE YEAR FINALIST FOR THE PLUTARCH AWARD AND THE APOLLO AWARD There are not many biographical masterpieces but Mark Stevens and Annalyn Swan have produced one wrote the novelist John Banville of Francis Bacon Revelations By the Pulitzer prize winning authors of de Kooning An American Master this acclaimed biography contains a wealth of never before known details about one of the iconic artists of the 20th century a singularly private darkly funny eruptive man and his extraordinary art whose iconoclastic charm keeps the pages turning The Washington Post Francis Bacon created an indelible image of mankind in modern times and played an outsized role in both twentieth century art and life from his public emergence with his legendary Triptych 1944 its images so unrelievedly awful that people fled the gallery to his death in Madrid in 1992 Bacon was a witty free spirit and unabashed homosexual at a time when many others remained closeted and his exploits were as unforgettable as his images He moved among the worlds of London's Soho and East End the literary salons of London and Paris and the homosexual life of Tangier Through hundreds of interviews and extensive new research the authors probe Bacon's childhood in Ireland he earned his father's lasting disdain because his asthma prevented him from hunting his increasingly open homosexuality his early design career never before explored in detail the formation of his vision his early failure as an artist his uneasy relationship with American abstract art and his improbable late emergence onto the international stage as one of the great visionaries of the twentieth century In all Francis Bacon Revelations gives us a more complete and nuanced and more international portrait than ever before of this singularly private darkly funny eruptive man and his equally eruptive extraordinary art Bacon was not just an influential artist he helped remake the twentieth century figure

Carrick Hill Richard Heathcote, 2011 From the late 1930s Carrick Hill was the home of one of Adelaide's most prestigious couples Adelaide heiress Ursula nee Barr Smith and successful businessman Edward Hayward Their foothills mansion with its glorious gardens was alive with social gatherings at which guests from all walks of life were welcomed and entertained The house was full of antiques and paintings by notable Australian and French artists The estate was bequeathed to the people of South Australia and this book brings alive the glory and beauty of Australia's most intact twentieth century house museum

Genealogies of Identity, 2005-01-01 Genealogies of Identity examines issues of sex and sexuality across a range of critical and cultural perspectives The volume considers historically specific discourses of sex and sexuality their effect within public contexts such as the church and the workplace and the link of those discourses to understandings of individual identity citizenship nation and human rights As well the volume analyses representations of sexuality and desire in art literature theatre and theory representations that serve both to codify and to subvert social norms and aesthetic and theoretical traditions Finally and more broadly the volume attests to the critical importance of inter and multidisciplinary approaches to understanding constructions of gender sex and sexuality Genealogies of Identity consists of fifteen essays versions of which were presented at the First Global Conference on Critical Issues in Sexuality held in Salzburg Austria in October 2004 The True Story of Alice B. Toklas Anna Linzie, 2006-04 In this original and intriguing study Anna Linzie examines three mid twentieth century texts never before treated as interrelated in a book length work of literary criticism Gertrude Stein's The Autobiography of Alice B. Toklas 1933 and Alice B. Toklas's The Alice B. Toklas Cook Book 1954 and What Is Remembered 1963 Taking these three texts as intertexts or as an assemblage of the true story of Alice B. Toklas Linzie challenges assumptions about primary authorship and singular identity that have continued to limit lesbian and feminist rereadings of autobiography as a genre and of Stein and Toklas as writers and historical figures The True Story of Alice B. Toklas explores how the concept of autobiography as a primarily referential genre is challenged and transformed in relation to autobiographical texts written about the same person the same life but differently by different writers at different points in time The concept of one true story is deconstructed in the process as Linzie modifies Homi K. Bhabha's almost the same but not quite not white for the purposes of this particular study as almost the same but not quite not straight The investigation moves simultaneously on the planes of textuality and sexuality in order to provisionally articulate a lesbian autobiographical subject in Linzie's reading of these three texts Linzie's study fills a gap in literary criticism where Stein's companion and her work have been more or less neglected conceptualizing the Stein-Toklas sexual textual relationship as fundamentally reciprocal The True Story of Alice B. Toklas provides a new critical perspective on Toklas as indispensable to Stein's literary production a cultural laborer in her own right and a writer of her own books Making a significant contribution to recent lesbian feminist reconceptualizations of the genre of autobiography this study will fascinate Stein and Toklas scholars as well as those interested in queer and autobiography studies Nora Heysen: A Portrait Anne-Louise

Willoughby, 2019-04-01 Hahndorf artist Nora Heysen was the first woman to win the Archibald Prize and Australia's first female painter to be appointed as an official war artist A portraitist and a flower painter Nora Heysen's life was defined by an all-consuming drive to draw and paint In 1989 aged 78 Nora re-emerged on the Australian art scene when the nation's major art institutions restored her position after years of artistic obscurity Extensively researched and containing artworks and photographs from the painter's life this is the first biography of the artist and it has been enthusiastically embraced by the Heysen family This authorized biography coincides with a major retrospective of the works of Nora and her father landscape painter Hans Heysen to be held at the National Gallery of Victoria in March 2019 Memoirs of the Geological Survey of India Geological Survey of India, 1880 Red Silk Penelope DeBelle, 2011 Elliott Johnston is a working class hero He and Elizabeth Johnston became Communists in 1941 and he resigned only to join the South Australian Supreme Court Bench His appointment as Queen's Counsel by the Dunstan Government after his controversial rejection by the former government of

Steele Hall was the highest public office attained by a Communist in Australia In 1991 he made his national mark as head of the Royal Commission into Aboriginal Deaths in Custody From extensive discussions with Elliott Johnston and access to his private papers and documents Penelope DeBelle has compiled the biography of a committed intellectual who studied at Chairman Mao s international Communist school visited Soviet Russia before and after the fall of Stalin and sat a few feet from Pablo Picasso at the 1950 Peace Congress in Warsaw As the dream of Communism faded Elliott held onto his faith He used the law to improve the rights of injured workers by pursuing compensation cases through the courts setting new standards for employer responsibility and winning the respect of the profession as an outstanding criminal lawyer

Jacqueline Hick Gloria Strzelecki,2013 Jackie was born wise and born unperturbed said Jeffrey Smart of his friend Jacqueline Hick Jacqueline Hick 1919 2004 was one of Australia s most successful figurative painters In a long and fruitful career she also explored print making and enamelling Her subjects included the Australian landscape musical and theatrical performances and city life Above all Hick was drawn to the human figure Whether observing the foibles of modern living or the displacement of Aboriginal people s traditional lifestyles her figurative works sought to expose human insensitivity Jacqueline Hick Born wise showcases many of Hick s finest works and traces a life that like her art was imbued with wit wisdom and empathy Rewriting and Rereading the XIX and XX-Century Canons Brian Zuccala,Samuele Grassi,2022-07-21 The book takes its lead from academic Annamaria Pagliaro s experience straddling Australia and Italy over a thirty year period As both former colleagues and collaborators of Pagliaro we editors intend to open a kaleidoscope of perspectives on the international research landscape in the fields of Italian and Anglophone studies starting from Pagliaro s own contribution to the creation of relations between the two cultures in the period that saw her work transnationally as Director of the Monash University Prato Centre 2005 2008 Autobiographical Writing and British Literature 1783-1834 James Treadwell,2005-01-20 The word autobiography is a late eighteenth century coinage yet by 1826 it was used as the title for a multi volume anthology of self writing and in 1834 Thomas Carlyle wrote of these Autobiographical times of ours Over the course of those few decades readers and writers came to recognize and name a new genre This book is the first full study of the phenomenon examining both the conditions and the practice of autobiographical writing in Romantic literature Historians of autobiography have often pointed to the turn of the nineteenth century as a pivotal moment In Rousseau and De Quincey s Confessions Wordsworth s Prelude and other canonical documents it has been argued self writing begins to serve the purpose of expressing the individuality autonomy and interiority of the self A more wide ranging view of the actual state of autobiography at the time exposes this narrative as a misrepresentation Self writing does gain a new kind of prominence around 1800 not however because it articulates Romantic ideologies of selfhood but because it becomes a focus of scrutiny and of contention The decades of the Romantic period identified themselves as Autobiographical times but did so anxiously This book asks what forms did that recognition and that anxiety take within the literary culture of the period What did autobiography mean to Romantic readers and writers How do autobiographical texts of the period reflect express and negotiate these conditions As well as reading a wide variety of those documents with single chapters devoted to works by Coleridge Byron and Lamb Treadwell examines writing on and around autobiography essays reviews and other forms of commentary By preserving a continuous relation between the texts and their contexts this book offers the first proper study of what is actually meant by Romantic autobiography
