Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1964-2005 Metropolitan Museum of Art, 2012-10-09 The present volume Publications of The Metropolitan Museum of Art 1964 2005 is a successor to a volume published by the Museum in 1965 entitled Publications of The Metropolitan Museum of Art 1870 1964 These two bibliographic volumes endeavor to list all the known books pamphlets and serial publications bearing the Museum s imprint and issued by the institution during the first 135 years of its existence through June 2005 The first volume was compiled by Albert TenEyck Gardner at the time an Associate Curator of American Paintings and Sculpture and the present volume has been compiled from the Annual Reports issued by the Museum during the relevant years Together the two volumes testify to the tremendous contributions made to knowledge by the curators and conservators of the Metropolitan and by the many other experts who have contributed to the Museum s exhibition catalogues Various issues of the Bulletin emphasize the great sweep of the Museum s acquisitions during these years and the exhibition catalogues a number of them Alfred H Barr Jr Award or the George Wittenborn Award testify to the continuity of the institution s dedicated program to enrich people s lives through knowledge of art This title was originally published in 2006 he revival of the bronze statuette popular in classical antiquity stands out as an enduring achievement of the Italian Renaissance. These small sculptures attest to early modern artists' technical prowess, ingenuity, and desire to emulate or even surpass the ancients. From the studioli or private studies of humanist scholars in fifteenth-century Padua to the Fifth Avenue apartments of the Gilded Age, collectors and viewers have delighted in the mysteries of these objects: how they were made, what they depicted, who made them, and when. This catalogue is the first systematic study of The Metropolitan Museum of Art's European Sculpture and Decorative Arts collection of Italian bronzes. The collection includes statuettes of single mythological or religious figures, complex figural groups, portrait busts, reliefs, utilitarian objects like lamps and inkwells, and more. Stunning new photography of celebrated masterpieces by leading artists such as Antico Riccio and Giambologna, enigmatic bronzes that continue to perplex, quotidian objects, later casts, replicas, and even forgeries show the importance of each work in this complex field. International scholars provide in-depth discussions of 200 objects included in this volume, revealing new attributions and dating for many bronzes. An Appendix presents some 100 more, complete with provenance and references. An essay by Jeffrey Fraiman provides further insight into Italian bronze statuettes in America, with a focus on the history of The Met's collection, and Richard E. Stone, who pioneered the technical study of bronzes, contributes an indispensable text on how artists created these works and what their process conveys about the object's maker. A personal reminiscence by James David Draper, who oversaw the Italian sculpture collection for decades, rounds out this landmark catalogue that synthesizes decades of research on these beloved and complex works of art.

Early American Silver in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Beth Carver Wees, Medill Higgins Harvey, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2013. This lavishly illustrated book documents the most distinguished works from the Metropolitan Museum's extensive collection of domestic ecclesiastical and presentation silver from the Colonial and Federal periods. Detailed discussions provide a stylistic and socio-historical context for each piece, offering a wealth of new information to both specialist and non-specialist readers. Every object is documented with new photography that captures details, marks, and heraldic engraving. Finally, accompanying essays discuss issues of patronage and provenance, design and craft, and patterns of ownership and collecting, providing windows onto the past that help bring these pieces to life. Published by The Metropolitan Museum of Art, Distributed by Yale University Press.

Islamic Arms and Armor in The Metropolitan Museum of Art David G. Alexander, 2015-12-31. Arms and weaponry were central to Islamic culture, not only as a means of conquest and the spread of the faith, but also as symbols of status, wealth, and power. The finest arms were made by master craftsmen working with the leading designers, goldsmiths, and jewelers, whose work transformed utilitarian military equipment into courtly works of art. This book reveals the diversity and artistic quality of one of the most important and encyclopedic collections of its kind in the West The Metropolitan Museum's holdings span ten centuries and include representative pieces from almost every Islamic culture from Spain to the Caucasus The collection includes rare early works among them the oldest documented Islamic sword and is rich in helmets and body armor decorated with calligraphy and arabesques that were worn in Iran and Anatolia in the late fifteenth century Other masterpieces include a jeweled short sword yatagan with a blade of watered steel that comes from the court of Sleyman the Magnificent a seventeenth century gold inlaid armor associated with Shah Jahan and two gold inlaid flintlock firearms belonging to the guard of Tipu Sultan of Mysore Presenting 126 objects each handsomely photographed and richly documented with a detailed description and discussion of its technical historical and artistic importance this overview of the Met's holdings is supplemented by an introductory essay on the formation of the collection and appendixes on iconography and on Turkman style armor
