African American visual artists painters Black Women of the Harlem Renaissance Era Lean'tin L. Bracks, Jessie Carney Smith, 2014-10-16 The Harlem Renaissance is considered one of the most significant periods of creative and intellectual expression for African Americans Beginning as early as 1914 and lasting into the 1940s this era saw individuals reject the stereotypes of African Americans and confront the racist social political and economic ideas that denied them citizenship and access to the American Dream While the majority of recognized literary and artistic contributors to this period were black males African American women were also key contributors Black Women of the Harlem Renaissance Era profiles the most important figures of this cultural and intellectual movement Highlighting the accomplishments of black women who sought to create positive change after the end of WWI this reference work includes representatives not only from the literary scene but also Activists Actresses Artists Educators Entrepreneurs Musicians Political leaders Scholars By acknowledging the women who played vital if not always recognized roles in this movement this book shows how their participation helped set the stage for the continued transformation of the black community well into the 1960s To fully realize the breadth of these contributions editors Lean tin L Bracks and Jessie Carney Smith have assembled profiles written by a number of accomplished academics and historians from across the country As such Black Women of the Harlem Renaissance Era will be of interest to scholars of women s studies African American studies and cultural history as well as students and anyone wishing to learn more about the women of this important era African-American Business Leaders and Entrepreneurs Rachel Kranz, 2004 For as long as there have been blacks in the Americas there have been African American entrepreneurs Diverse Histories of American Sociology Anthony Blasi, 2005-06-01 This volume presents views of American sociology from minority groups and important intellectual movements that did not merge into the mainstream Coinciding with the centenary of the American Sociological Association it provides little known background information to the development of the field A first section highlights tensions between impartial scientific sociology and scientific social reform A second section uncovers the experiences of female African American and Latino pioneers in the field as well as a sociologist from a religious minority A third section traces the organizational history of the field including gendered racial regional and outsider perspectives A final section focuses on several neglected trajectories With this volume American sociology can be seen in its full context The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2001 This massive guide sponsored by the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America Restoring the First-century Church in the Twenty-first Century Warren Lewis, Hans Rollmann, 2005-10-15 Restoring the First century Church in the Twenty first Century Essays on the Stone Campbell Restoration Movement in Honor of Don Haymes is a snap shot of a major American religious movement just after the turn of the millennium When the Disciples of Alexander Campbell and the Christians of Barton Warren Stone joined forces early in the 19th century the first indigenous ecumenical movement in the United States

came into being Two hundred years later this American experiment in biblical primitivism has resulted in three possibly four large segments Best known is the Christian Church Disciples of Christ active wherever ecumenical Christians gather The denomination is typically theologically open having been reshaped by theological Liberalism and the Social Gospel in the twentieth century and has been re organized on the model of other Protestant bodies The largest group the Churches of Christ easily distinguished by their insistence on a cappella music singing only is theologically conservative now tending towards the evangelical and congregationally autonomous though with a denominational sense of brotherhood The Christian Churches Churches of Christ Independent are a via media between the two other bodies theologically conservative and evangelical congregationally autonomous pastorally oriented and comfortable with instrumental music The fourth numerically significant group the churches of Christ Anti Institutional is a conservative reaction to the a cappella churches much in the way that the Southern a capella churches reacted against the emerging intellectual culture and social location instrumental music and institutional centrism of the Northern Disciples following the Civil War Besides these four numerous smaller fragments typically one article splinter groups decorate the history of the Restoration Movement One Cup brethren Premillennialists No Sunday School congregations No Located Preacher churches and others This movement to unite Christians on the basis of faith and immersion in Jesus Christ and to restore New Testament Christianity is too little recognized on the American religious landscape and it has been too little studied by the academic community This volume is focused primarily on the a cappella churches and their interests but implications for the entire Stone Campbell Restoration Movement abound The voices that speak freely within were unimpeded in authoring these essays by standards of orthodoxy imposed from without All of the contributors are acquainted with Don Haymes the honoree of the volume and have been inspired by this friend and colleague a man with a rigorous and earthy intellect and a heavenly spirit David Bundy series editor Studies in the History and Culture of World Christianities
