Yemen in the face of Decisive Storm 2nd volume Prof.Dr. Abudlazizi Saleh Bin Habtoor,2017-08-08 The book highlights the overall situation arising from the aggression and its economic social and humanitarian manifestations and the violence of the Yemeni man Through the method of monitoring analysis characterization and evaluation of the long months of aggression against Yemen it was the culmination of excessive killing massive destruction and harm in order to stifle and silence the voice of a free and patriarchal people who wanted to confiscate their right to a decent life and to take ownership His order The book consists of 445 pages of glossy paper and includes four sections where the first section contains analytical articles during the aggression and this section distributed in three chapters absorbed political and humanitarian topics about the city of Aden since the beginning of the aggression on 25 3 2017 passing through the conditions and suffering of citizens in Aden

The second chapter dealt with a broad title about the Yemeni political reality in light of the aggression and the emergence of the Yemeni people in a solid and transcendent position on painful invasive surgeries caused by the aggression and its collaborators from the Yemeni agents and mercenaries. The meeting carried political topics on the search for a peaceful political solution to the Yemeni issue among the enemy brothers in Geneva, Switzerland, Kuwait, and Oman. The second section, which came under the title of the University of Aden in the time of aggression, has varied topics where the first chapter dealt with the 45th anniversary of the founding of the university and coincided with the year of aggression in 2015, in addition to highlighting the most famous celebrities of the founders and developers at home and abroad. It also focused on showing and highlighting the national role in its activities and scientific, academic, and national tasks. Aden University for the first time in its history and the history of the Yemeni universities obtained a high scientific certificate issued by the British Academic Foundation QS for the global classification of the best Arab and international universities in 2015, with telegrams that arrived to the university from Arab and foreign universities as well as telegrams of congratulations received from academic and legal personalities. Chapter III included a glimpse of the lamentations of personalities written during the time of aggression and divided into lamentations of national public figures and lamentations of national academic figures. The inclusion of Part IV, television and press interviews conducted by a number of local and Arab newspapers, number with Professor Ben Habtoor, which talked about the priorities of the government in light of the continued aggression and siege and the position of the National Salvation government from a number of local and international issues at the end of the book, was shown and highlighted images. For the examples of crimes and massacres committed against our Yemeni people and models of images of the brutal destruction of the capabilities of the people built for decades of construction and reconstruction.

Women's Sport in Africa John Bale, Michelle Sikes, 2016-04-14 In recent decades, Africa has emerged as a sporting giant. The African sporting phenomenon has been addressed in the popular press and it has also attracted scholarly interest; however, this interest is almost entirely focussed on men. Yet women's participation in recreational and elite sport is worthy of exploration and research. This path-breaking collection of essays provides an introduction to a variety of dimensions of women's participation in African sports. Several key concepts are addressed in the book: women and media, women and sport, migration, sport and empowerment, sporting and social development, women's sport and postcolonial Africa, and professional sport and economic development. This collection, authored by established scholars, will attract readership from students from Sports Studies to African Studies and from undergraduate students to university teachers. This book was published as a special issue of Sport in Society.

Sport, Dance and Embodied Identities Noel Dyck, Eduardo P. Archetti, 2020-08-20 Sport and dance command the passions and devotion of countless athletes, dancers, and fans worldwide. Although conventionally thought to reside within separate social realms, these two embodied cultural forms are revealed in this benchmark volume to share a vital capacity to constitute and express identities through their practiced movements and scripted forms. Thus, the work of choreographers and coaches along with the performances of dancers and athletes offer not merely entertainment and aesthetic accomplishment but also powerful means for celebrating existing social arrangements and cultural ideals or alternately for imagining and advocating new ones Drawing on a wide selection of sport and dance activities from around the world this book elucidates the ways in which embodied performances both mirror and reshape social life It traces for example how football salsa and tango can each be employed to articulate or rewrite national and gender identities Also examined are children s sport and the dynamics by which immigration and cultural integration along with the socialization of children and youth may be directed through the organization of community sport The volume investigates the marshalling of sport and dance in settings from Africa to Ireland as vehicles for framing moral issues that revolve around the appropriate use protection and exhibition of the body This innovative study establishes the paradoxical fashion in which dance and sport can unite certain people and communities while at the same time serving exclusionary and nationalistic purposes

Sport, Migration, and Gender in the Neoliberal Age Niko Besnier, Domenica Gisella Calabrò, Daniel Guinness, 2020-10-25 This ethnographic collection explores how neoliberalism has permeated the bodies subjectivities and gender of youth around the world as global sport industries have expanded their reach into marginal areas luring young athletes with the dream of pursuing athletic careers in professional leagues of the Global North Neoliberalism has reconfigured sport since the 1980s as sport clubs and federations have become for profit businesses in conjunction with television and corporate sponsors Neoliberal sport has had other important effects which are rarely the object of attention as the national economies of the Global South and local economies of marginal areas of the Global North have collapsed under pressure from global capital many young people dream of pursuing a sport career as an escape from poverty But this elusive future is often located elsewhere initially in regional centres though ultimately in the wealthy centres of the Global North that can support a sport infrastructure The pursuit of this future has transformed kinship relations gender relations and the subjectivities of people

This collection of rich ethnographies from diverse regions of the world from Ghana to Finland and from China to Fiji pulls the reader into the lives of men and women in the global sport industries including aspiring athletes their families and the agents coaches and academy directors shaping athletes dreams It demonstrates that the ideals of neoliberalism spread in surprising ways intermingling with categories like gender religion indigeneity and kinship Athletes migrations provide a novel angle on the global workings of neoliberalism This book will be of key interest to scholars in Gender Studies Anthropology Sport Studies and Migration Studies
