Notebooks Of Malte Laurids Brigge:

The Notebooks of Malte Laurids Brigge Rainer Maria Rilke, 2008-10-01 First published in 1910 Rilke's Notebooks of Malte Laurids Brigge is one of the first great modernist novels the account of poet aspirant Brigge in his exploration of poetic individuality and his reflections on the experience of time as death approaches A young man named Malte Laurids Brigge lives in a cheap room in Paris while his belongings rot in storage Every person he sees seems to carry their death within them and with little but a library card to distinguish him from the city's untouchables he thinks of the deaths and ghosts of his aristocratic family of which he is the sole living descendant Suffused with passages of lyrical brilliance Rilke's semi autobiographical novel is a moving and powerful coming of age story This new translation by Burton Pike is a reaction to overly stylized previous translations and aims to capture not only the beauty but also the strangeness the spirit of Rilke's German

The Notebooks of Malte Laurids Brigge Rainer Maria Rilke, 2011-04-06 This is the definitive widely acclaimed translation of the major prose work of one of our century's greatest poets a masterpiece like no other Elizabeth Hardwick Rilke's only novel extraordinary for its structural uniqueness and purity of language First published in 1910 it has proven to be one of the most influential and enduring works of fiction of our century Malte Laurids Brigge is a young Danish nobleman and poet living in Paris Obsessed with death and with the reality that lurks behind appearances Brigge muses on his family and their history and on the teeming alien life of the city Many of the themes and images that occur in Rilke's poetry can also be found in the novel prefiguring the modernist movement in its self awareness and imagistic immediacy

Helga Bettina Buerger Fagg, 1970 Twilight Memories Andreas Huyssen, 1995 As we are approaching our fin de siècle issues of time and memory haunt contemporary culture Museums and memorials are being constructed rapidly as if there were no tomorrow Contemporary art and literature focuses on memory and the past rather than claiming radical breakthroughs into some unknown future With the recent resurgence of nationalism and issues of national identity the political future too seems to fold itself back into the past rather than offering a bold vision of the 21st century The great paradox of our fin de siècle culture is that novelty is even more associated with memory and the past rather than future expectation But if the obsession with memory is one salient symptom in this age of a modernity grown old then cultural and political amnesia is undoubtedly its counterpoint Rather than blaming amnesia on television or the school Twilight Memories argues that the danger of amnesia is inherent in the information revolution Our obsessions with cultural memory can be read as re representing a powerful reaction against the electronic archive and they mark a shift in the way we live structures of temporality In this book the media are the hidden veil through which the author looks at the problem of cultural memory and an emerging new sensibility of temporality in literature art politics media theory and the museum Modernism Ástráður Eysteinnsson, Vivian Liska, 2007 The two volume work Modernism has been awarded the prestigious 2008 MSA Book Prize Modernism has constituted one of the most prominent fields of literary studies for decades While it was perhaps temporarily overshadowed by postmodernism recent years have seen a resurgence of interest in modernism on both sides of the Atlantic These volumes respond to a need for a collective and multifarious view of literary modernism in various genres locations and languages Asking and responding to a wealth of theoretical aesthetic and historical questions 65 scholars from several countries test the usefulness of the concept of modernism as they probe a variety of contexts from individual texts to national literatures from specific critical issues to broad cross cultural concerns While the chief emphasis of these volumes is on literary modernism literature is seen as entering into diverse cultural and social contexts These range from inter art conjunctions to philosophical environmental urban and political domains including issues of race and space gender and fashion popular culture and trauma science and exile all of which have an urgent bearing on the poetics of modernity
