Technical Report of the Commission on Obscenity and Pornography: Preliminary studies United States.

Commission on Obscenity and Pornography,1971 Naked Krista K. Thomason,2018-01-04 We know shame can be a morally valuable emotion that helps us to realize when we fail to be the kinds of people we aspire to be We feel shame when we fail to live up to the norms standards and ideals that we value as part of a virtuous life But the lived reality of shame is far more complex and far darker than this the gut level experience of shame that has little to do with failing to reach our ideals We feel shame viscerally about nudity sex our bodies and weaknesses or flaws that we can t control Shame can cause self destructive and violent behavior and chronic shame can cause painful psychological damage Is shame a valuable moral emotion or would we be better off without it In Naked Krista K Thomason takes a hard look at the reality of shame The experience of it she argues involves a tension between identity and self conception namely what causes me shame both overshadows me my self conception and yet is me my identity We are liable to feelings of shame because we are not always who we take ourselves to be Thomason extends her thought provoking analysis to our current social and political landscape shaming has increased dramatically because of the proliferation of social media platforms And although these online shaming practices can be used in harmful ways they can also root out those who express racist and sexist views and enable marginalized groups to confront oppression Is more and continued shaming therefore better and is there moral promise in using shame in this way Thomason grapples with these and numerous other questions Her account of shame makes sense of its good and bad features its numerous gradations and complexity and ultimately of its essential place in our moral lives

Commission on Obscenity and Pornography,1971 Naked Politics Brett Lunceford,2012-06-14 Naked Politics Nudity Political Action and the Rhetoric of the Body by Brett Lunceford examines the rhetorical power of the unclothed body as it relates to protest and political action This study explores what the disrobed body communicates and how others are invited to make sense of this display The actions examined range from grassroots protests to those of professionalized social movement organizations Specifically Lunceford examines PETA and the use of chained women and the Running of the Nudes lactivists or women engaging in public breastfeeding as protest action in both online and physical space the World Naked Bike Ride s worldwide protest against oil dependency and attempt to raise awareness of the vulnerability of cyclists and a contest held on College Humor that invited women to write their preferred presidential candidate on their exposed breasts and send the picture to them to post on the site Although these actions may seem to have little in common beyond their use of body exposure they all share the notions that something can happen when you take your clothes off and that the act of disrobing can have social and political consequences Moreover these groups illustrate the often paradoxical views of the exposed body by both the participants and the observers and how such bodies

The Concept of Service Quality in Commercial Practice Amelikeh Confidence E. N.,2020-07-30 Commercial Practice is the work done for the earning acquisition and ownership of existence and within existence What one acquires the one is said to own resulting in the application of ownership to anything at all acquirable including the slave however the slave is held in possession disowned and hence cannot be said to be owned We cannot accurately say that one owns a slave nor that a slave has owner when the slave is held disowned The disowned thing has no owner The application of ownership to the slave has brought difficulty in telling the relationship between parent and child husband and wife employer and employee and citizen and state for instance as a person being owned sounds as the person being a slave We have redeemed the reality of ownership There are things one can own and things one cannot own although acquirable therefore there are things one has the Right to acquire and things one has no Right to acquire If you cannot own it and you acquire it then you have stolen it rendering you a criminal as theft is a crime Learn Commercial Practice it is the legitimate method of acquiring and possessing and ownership
