RECKONING AT NUREMBERG Larry Barthurst, 2021-01-11 The trial of the Nazi war criminals which took place in Nuremberg Germany from November 1945 through October 1946 is perhaps the quintessential story of good versus evil These twenty two men authored some of the most shameful depraved acts in the annals of human history but now shorn of their brief authority they would be given something that they never afforded millions of their victims a fair trial The New Histories of International Criminal Law Immi Tallgren, Thomas Skouteris, 2019-03-21 The language of international criminal law has considerable traction in global politics and much of its legitimacy is embedded in apparently axiomatic historical truths This innovative edited collection brings together some of the world's leading international lawyers with a very clear mandate in mind to re evaluate retry the dominant historiographical tradition in the field of international criminal law Carefully curated and with contributions by leading scholars The New Histories of International Criminal Law pursues three research objectives to bring to the fore the structure and function of contemporary histories of international criminal law to take issue with the consequences of these histories and to call for their demystification The essays discern several registers on which the received historiographical tradition must be retried tropology inclusions exclusions gender race representations of the victim and the perpetrator history and memory ideology and master narratives international criminal law and hegemonic theories and more This book intervenes critically in the fields of international criminal law and international legal history by bringing in new voices and fresh approaches Taken as a whole it provides a rich account of the dilemmas conundrums and possibilities entailed in writing histories of international criminal law beyond against or in the shadow of the master narrative The educational significance of sixteenth century arithmetic from the point of view of the present time Lambert Lincoln Jackson, 1906 The Bitter Taste of Victory Lara Feigel, 2016-01-28 As the Second World War neared its conclusion Germany was a nation reduced to rubble 3 6 million German homes had been destroyed leaving 7 5 million people homeless an apocalyptic landscape of flattened cities and desolate wastelands In May 1945 Germany surrendered and Britain America Soviet Russia and France set about rebuilding their zones of occupation Most urgent for the Allies in this divided defeated country were food water and sanitation but from the start they were anxious to provide for the minds as well as the physical needs of the German people Reconstruction was to be cultural as well as practical denazification and re education would be key to future peace and the arts crucial in modelling alternative less militaristic ways of life Germany was to be reborn its citizens as well as its cities were to be reconstructed the mindset of the Third Reich was to be obliterated When later that year twenty two senior Nazis were put in the dock at Nuremberg writers and artists including Rebecca West Evelyn Waugh John Dos Passos and Laura Knight were there to tell the world about a trial intended to ensure that tyrannous dictators could never again enslave the people of Europe And over the next four years many of the foremost writers and filmmakers of their generation were dispatched by Britain and America to help rebuild the country their governments had spent years bombing Among them Ernest Hemingway Martha Gellhorn Marlene Dietrich George Orwell Lee Miller W H Auden Stephen Spender Billy Wilder and Humphrey Jennings The Bitter Taste of Victory traces the experiences of these figures and through their individual stories offers an entirely fresh view of post war Europe Never before told this is a brilliant important and utterly mesmerising history of cultural transformation The Antiquary ,1873
