Nurse One Woman's Effort To Succeed:

From Spinster to Career Woman Arlene Young, 2019-05-30 The late Victorian period brought a radical change in cultural attitudes toward middle class women and work Anxiety over the growing disproportion between women and men in the population combined with an awakening desire among young women for personal and financial freedom led progressive thinkers to advocate for increased employment opportunities The major stumbling block was the persistent conviction that middle class women ladies could not work without relinquishing their social status Through media reports public lectures and fictional portrayals of working women From Spinster to Career Woman traces advocates efforts to alter cultural perceptions of women work class and the ideals of womanhood Focusing on the archetypal figures of the hospital nurse and the typewriter Arlene Young analyzes the strategies used to transform a job perceived as menial into a respected profession and to represent office work as progressive employment for educated women This book goes beyond a standard examination of historical social and political realities delving into the intense human elements of a cultural shift and the hopes and fears of young women seeking independence Providing new insights into the Victorian period From Spinster to Career Woman captures the voices of ordinary women caught up in the frustrations and excitements of a new era

Disaffection And Diversity Judith Calder, 2004-01-14 First Published in 1993 A quiet but profound revolution in the design and delivery of learning opportunities for adults and in the accreditation of learning outcomes is taking place Higher education is expanding at a rate which exceeds even that of the Robbins era alternative routes for adults into further and higher education and into training are being introduced through the use of Access courses and through the recognition of competencies acquired in a whole variety of different ways The structure of the courses and training which adults can now undertake the methods of teaching those courses and the types of qualifications which are beginning to be awarded reflect the accelerating social technological and economic changes in the UK It is aimed at professionals who are engaged in the management provision or supervision of organized learning and training opportunities for adults
