Turner, 2021-07-28 Liturgical dance is a way to present reflect instruct learn study and share religious beliefs with one s self within one s worship community and with one s God Such a belief is confirmed and witnessed within a variety of religious settings throughout the world from the beginning of time to this present age However there is a vacuum of resources that connect liturgical dance within the Christian context as a tool for religious learning within the field of religious education With the continual rise of liturgical dance as an artistic form of expression this book proposes that liturgical dance offers unique attributes conducive to the teaching and learning of faith and to faith formation Kathleen S Turner shows how liturgical dance is religious education in two very important ways first by addressing the power and potential liturgical dance has in nourishing the faith life of Christian congregants through means that are both educative and reflective and second by giving examples of how liturgical dance can be implemented as a religious education tool within the teaching life of the church

Preaching Prophetic Care Phillis Isabella Sheppard, Dawn Ottoni-Wilhelm, Ronald J. Allen, 2018-06-25 Preachers often think of prophetic preaching in the caricature of the prophet as the lonely outsider confronting the congregation often angrily with the congregation's complicity in social injustice and with a bracing call for repentance The twenty seven essays and sermons in this book offer a different perspective by viewing prophetic preaching specifically and ministry practical theology and theological education more broadly as pastoral care for the community in prophetic perspective Such preaching does indeed bring a critical theological analysis of justice concerns to the center of the sermon but in such a way as to invite the congregation to consider how the move toward justice is a pastoral move that is a move that seeks to build up community Rather than contributing to the polarization so rampant in today's social world the preacher seeks to help the congregation build bridges along which concern for justice can travel The contributions honor the work of the late Dale Andrews a scholar of preaching and practical theology at the Divinity School Vanderbilt University whose seminal work inspires the notions of prophetic care and building bridges to justice

T&T Clark Handbook of African American Theology, 2019-07-25 This handbook explores the central theme of Christian faith from various disciplinary approaches and different contexts of black experience in the United States The central unifying theme is freedom an important concept both in American culture and Christianity African American theology represents a Christian understanding of God's freedom and the good news of God's call for all humankind to enter life true human identity and moral responsibility in genuine and just community Contributors to the volume argue that African American theology highlights how racism and other intersecting forms of oppression complicate the human predicament and that their eradication requires an expansion of salvation to include the liberation of persons who lack full participation in society and enjoyment of the good and goods made possible by that society. The essays in this handbook employ the tools of biblical criticism, history, cultural and social analysis, religious studies, philosophy, and systematic theology in order to explore and assess the nature and impact of race, ethnicity, gender, sexuality, class, immigration, and cultural and moral pluralism in America, as well as the intersections between African American and African diasporan religious thought and life.

Practical Theology for Black Churches Dale P. Andrews, 2002-01-01 Exploring the concept of church as refuge offers a way to bridge the gap between black theology with its social and political concerns and black churches with their emphases on pastoral care and piety.

Black Religion and Aesthetics A. Pinn, 2009-07-06 A great deal of attention has been given to the sociopolitical and theological importance of Black Religion. However, of less academic concern up to this point is the aesthetic qualities that define much of what is said and done within the context of Black Religion. Recognizing the centrality of the black body for black religious thought and life, this book proposes a conversation concerning various dimensions of the aesthetic considerations and qualities of Black Religion as found in various parts of the world, including the Americas, the Caribbean, Africa, and Europe. In this respect, Black Religion is simply meant to connote the religious orientations and arrangements of people of African descent across the globe.

Salt, Light, and a City, Second Edition Graham Joseph Hill, 2020-07-24 Jesus is calling his church to be a multiethnic and missional people who listen and learn from the many voices of world Christianity. Graham Joseph Hill issues a moving call for churches to be missional by being conformed to the image of Jesus Christ. Hill does this by exploring the thinking of twenty-five Asian, African, Latin American, Indigenous, African American, diaspora, Caribbean, Oceanian, Eastern European, and Middle Eastern pastors and theologians. These are as diverse as Melba Padilla Maggay, Emmanuel Katongole, Lamin Sanneh, Oscar Muriu, Ruth Padilla DeBorst, Pope Francis, Richard Twiss, Lisa Sharon Harper, Willie James Jennings, Ada Maria Isasi, Diaz Soong Chan, Rah, and Mitri Raheb. These voices show us the future of missional churches in world Christianity. When churches are conformed to Christ, they make disciples, heal a broken world, and witness to Jesus and his gospel. Jesus forms us in his image and moves us to be a people of shalom, humility, character, justice, peace, wisdom, prayer, beauty, and witness. The church has had a Reformation, but now it needs a Conformation. Hill explores biblical themes and the voices of world Christianity to show that a missional church is conformed to the image of the incarnate, crucified, resurrected, and glorified Christ. Conformity to Christ is the heart of missional ecclesiology and discipleship.
