Breaking Through the Stained Glass Ceiling HiRhoo Park, Susan Willhauck, 2013-07-23 Can women successfully pastor churches of 1 000 or more How can they possibly take care of their large diverse flocks and themselves How can they balance their work ministry with their home and family life How do they motivate their team members and manage the occasional conflict that arises amid staffs and congregations of such size and diversity And above all in the midst of their call to keep their membership in love with Christ how can they keep their own spiritual relationships fresh and vital In Breaking Through the Stained Glass Ceiling seasoned and anointed women

pastors answer these questions and many others In addition to a foreword by world renowned feminist theologian Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza chapters include Leadership Styles Work and Family The Art of Conflict Management and much more Woman of God if Spirit led ministry is what you desire then this book is for you In 2006 in an international meeting of United Methodist clergywomen questions were raised about how women were breaking gender stereotypes to serve in large membership churches Two years later the Lead Women Pastors Project LWPP a vision of a General Board of Higher Education and Ministry staffer the Rev Dr HiRhoo Park was launched with 64 clergywomen The LWPP seeks to affirm empower and nurture women who pastor United Methodist churches with 1 000 or more members The leadership team includes the Rev Dr Susan Willhauck seminary professor and consultant the Rev Trudy Robinson and the Rev Patricia Farris As a result of the LWPP as of 2012 the UMC had 137 clergywomen compared to 1 223 male clergy serving as senior pastors in large churches The Routledge Companion to Leadership John Storey, Jean Hartley, Jean-Louis Denis, Paul 't Hart, David Ulrich, 2016-09-13 Leadership has never been more important and divisive than it is today The idea and discourse of the leader remains a critical factor in organizational and societal performance but there is evident tension between the persistent focus on the critical importance of individual leaders and the increasing emphasis on collective leadership The Routledge Companion to Leadership provides a survey of the contentious and dynamic discipline of leadership This collection covers key themes in the field including advances in leadership theory leadership in a range of contexts and geographies leadership failure leadership process and leadership development Topics range from micro studies to wider political analyses of leadership taking in unusual but important aspects such as portrayals of leadership in architecture media and science fiction Contributions from 61 internationally renowned authors from 16 countries make available the full range of perspectives approaches and insights on the idea of leadership Providing both a social sciences and a psychological approach these go beyond common themes to offer diverse perspectives on such topics as emotion and leadership portrayals of leadership This volume situates leadership debates and evidence within contemporary leadership crises while ensuring that the explorations of the issues are of enduring relevance With wide and critical coverage of the key topics and potent contextualization of themes in current events The Routledge Companion to Leadership is the ideal resource for graduate study in leadership

Creation's Wisdom Chiradeep Patra, 2025-08-25 Nature has always been one of God's profound classrooms From the silent industry of ants to the soaring majesty of eagles the Bible often draws our attention to the creatures around us not just as part of His creation but as teachers of wisdom discipline and leadership This book Leadership Lessons from Nature is a compilation of five articles I originally wrote for Christian Manager magazine Each chapter reflects on a different creature mentioned in the Scriptures Ants Lions Eagles Bees Locusts Flies and Doves and explores the values and principles they teach us about leadership work ethic and character development These reflections are not merely allegorical they are rooted in biblical truth and practical application In a world saturated with corporate models and self help paradigms we often overlook the divine simplicity and depth with which God communicates His principles through creation My hope is that these pages inspire leaders whether in ministry marketplace or personal life to look at God s creation with renewed wonder and to draw strength strategy and humility from it Leadership is not just about guiding others it is about learning constantly And sometimes the most enduring lessons come not from the boardroom but from the field the sky or the hive I remain grateful to Christian Manager for giving me the opportunity to first share these reflections through their platform I also thank you the reader for choosing to journey with me through these lessons from nature and through the lens of God s Word
