Nurturing Today's Children Cultivating The Family Of Faith:

Nurturing Today's Children Gaynell Bordes Cronin, John J. Rathschmidt, 2002 Jesus often used planting analogies in his parables Following Jesus example and using the imagery of a garden Nurturing Today's Children shows us that raising children requires special care if the harvest is to be good Just as a garden starts with soil preparation Christian families must prepare their homes to be good soil for growing children Once planted a garden must be blessed with favor flavor and gratitude just as our children require models of kindness joy and appreciation Without water a garden dies and without healing respect for feelings and diversity our children will suffer the dryness of a spiritual desert As our garden grows we must tend it in the same way we must encourage our children by providing a safe place for them to become their own persons Some important topics covered in this helpful book are how to be together as a family cultivating good intentions fostering the habit of gratitude dealing with fear and death learning patience and setting up a household church Nurturing Today's Children will bring thoughtful guidance about each stage of raising your children and encouraging their growth especially in spirit and faith A welcome companion and thoughtful resource that can make your home and family yield an abundant spiritual harvest Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2002 Faith Traditions and the Family Phyllis D.

Airhart, Margaret Lamberts Bendroth, 1996-01-01 This exploration offers readers fresh and broad ranges of ways to evaluate their own religious traditions when dealing with issues related to the future of the family Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children La Verne Tolbert, 2014-05-19 Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children A Holistic Approach answers questions about the most effective ways to help children pre teens and teens develop spiritually This collection of research gleaned from presentations during the Fourth Triennial Children's Spirituality Conference at Concordia University in 2012 is divided into four major sections 1 theological and historical foundations 2 engaging parents and congregations 3 engaging methodologies and 4 exploring children at risk child pornography social justice intercultural diversity and abstinence education Researchers acknowledge that the home is the foundation for Christian nurture In Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children both scholars and ministry leaders come together with parents to promote a holistic environment where children are encouraged to love respect and obey God From birth to high school children's voices resonate throughout these studies as they are invited to share their reflections and experiences Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children is a lively easy to read collection that reflects a broad range of faith traditions and is ideal for all those who are committed to the spiritual development of children Enduring Connections Janice A Haywood, 2007-06-01 Enduring Connections gives churches and ministers significant guidelines for establishing a quality childhood ministry with preschoolers and grade schoolers Enduring Connections is especially helpful to ministers and directors of childhood ministry that are called from the laity to staff positions By focusing on building a childhood ministry that intentionally connects children to God and the community of faith through paths that are driven by relationship rather than programs Janice Haywood has produced a resource that will help churches of any size design their own unique ministry for children A TCP Leadership Series title Adoptive Church (Youth, Family, and Culture) Chap Clark, 2018-10-16

Teens and emerging adults don't feel at home in the church because they are not fully included in the church body How can congregations nurture young adults welcome them as siblings into God's household and empower them to become fully embedded contributors within and to their faith community Integrating the latest research on adolescent faith and young adult ministry for the local church this book presents a new way of thinking about youth ministry Chap Clark offers today's youth leaders highly practical principles based on his extensive experience showing how they can implement a sustainable youth ministry program in their local church He presents the adoptive youth ministry model as a way to help congregations see youth ministry as a bridge to inclusion participation and contribution in the body of Christ Clark's comprehensive plan for designing and implementing youth ministry shows churches how to intentionally welcome young people and create an environment where they belong

Foundations of Faith and Family Dr. Gordon Lesley Rolls, Foundations of Faith and Family A Biblical Guide to Generational Wealth by Rev Dr Gordon Lesley Rolls is a compelling exploration of the sacred role of family in society Dr Rolls combines spiritual and social perspectives offering insights into building strong marriages and nurturing godly children The book emphasizes financial stewardship outlining principles for investing in generational wealth within a faith context Addressing the challenges faced by families Dr Rolls provides practical guidance for navigating adversities While rooted in Christian principles the book's teachings extend across diverse cultures and generational settings A valuable resource for various audiences it outlines a roadmap for contributing to the greatness of the family Readers are encouraged to acquire revisit and actively apply its principles to make a lasting impact on family life and beyond

Different Visions of Love Brian Griffith, 2008 Griffith's narrative moves like a searchlight over each phase of church history illuminating the visions options and choices behind events He traces the rise of a dominator version of Christianity in which the primary concern was a chain of command to be followed with rewards or punishments according to the degree of obedience And beside this he illuminates another face of Christianity concerned with healing all divisions between loved and unloved people The story Griffith presents is often deeply disturbing as in his unstinting accounts concerning the gospel for women or the age of holy wars and witch hunts But ultimately his story offers solid grounds for optimism He shows that all contention between different religious visions can be a process of building partnership As Griffith points out Jesus himself wished to debate his opponents openly not to silence or eliminate them He was not afraid of real encounter or the potential of creative conflict I want to congratulate Brian Griffith on this masterful controversial and highly readable account His book offers hope in a divided world where reaction against globalized godless corporate secularism meets with a war on religious fundamentalism I hope to see other writers do comparable work in highlighting the partnership and dominator visions within their religious traditions around the world Riane Eisler author of The Chalice the Blade Sacred Pleasure Tomorrows Children

The Power of Partnership The Real Wealth of Nations I find it gives me an incredibly clarifying perspective on Christianity way beyond my previous understanding It should be read by everyone with an interest in Western Civilization It is a marvelous companion to The Great Turning David Korten author of The Great Turning From Empire to Earth Community
