Prentice Hall 2004-2005 Faculty Directory Hasselback,2003-07 Demand for Labor Daniel S. Hamermesh,2017-05-19

The book collects articles published by Daniel Hamermesh between 1969 and 2013 dealing with the general topic of the demand for labor The first section presents empirical studies of basic issues in labor demand including the extent to which different types of labor are substitutes how firms and workers investments affect labor turnover and how costs of adjusting employment affect the dynamics of employment and patterns of labor turnover The second section examines the impacts of various labor market policies including minimum wages penalty pay for using overtime hours or hours worked on weekends or nights severance pay for displaced workers and payroll taxes to finance unemployment insurance benefits The final section deals with general questions of discrimination by employers along various dimensions including looks gender and ethnicity in all cases focusing on the process of discrimination and the behavior that results Throughout the focus is on the development of theoretically based hypotheses and testing them using the most appropriate data often data collected uniquely for the particular project Advances in Accounting Education Bill Schwartz,Anthony H. Catanach Jr.,2009-09-01

Helps meet the needs of faculty members interested in ways to improve their classroom instruction This title includes articles that emphasize pedagogy that is explaining how faculty members can improve their teaching methods or how accounting units can improve their curricula programs The American Economic Review ,2006-06 Accounting and Financial System Reform in Eastern Europe and Asia Robert W. McGee,Galina G. Preobragenskaya,2006-03-14 Much has been written about the economic and political problems of countries that are in the process of changing from centrally planned systems to market systems Most studies have focused on the economic legal political and sociological problems these economies have had to face during the transition period However not much has been written about the dramatic changes that have to be made to the accounting and financial system of a transition economy This book was written to help fill that gap This book is the second in a series to examine accounting and financial system reform in transition economies The first book used Russia as a case study The present volume in the series examines some additional aspects of the reform in Russia and also looks at the accounting and financial system reform efforts that are being made in Ukraine Bosnia Herzegovina Armenia and five Central Asian republics Advances in Accounting Behavioral Research Vicky

Arnold,2011-07-25 Includes research focused on developing an instrument for measuring taxpayer locus of control developing a scale for examining social norms related to tax compliance identifying characteristics of audit partners that might predict risky behavior and identifying facets of culture that influence employee satisfaction Social
