Prepare to Shed Them Now George R. Sims, 1968      The Yale Literary Magazine, 1848      The Ascent of the Detective Haia Shpayer-Makov, 2011-09-29 Explores the diverse and often arcane world of English police detectives during the formative period of their profession from 1842 until the First World War with special emphasis on the famed detective branch established at Scotland Yard      The Letters of T. S. Eliot T. S. Eliot, 2011-01-01 The first volume of Eliot's correspondence covers his childhood in St Louis Missouri through 1922 when he married and settled in England Volume two covers the time period of Eliot's publication of The Hallow Men and his developing ideas about poetry      American Popular Music and Its Business the late Russell Sanjek, 1988-07-28 Volume two concentrates exclusively on music activity in the United States in the nineteenth century Among the topics discussed are how changing technology affected the printing of music the development of sheet music publishing the growth of the American musical theater popular religious music black music including spirituals and ragtime music during the Civil War and finally music in the era of monopoly including such subjects as copyright changing technology and distribution invention of the phonograph copyright revision and the establishment of Tin Pan Alley      Screen Culture and the Social Question, 1880-1914 Ludwig Vogl-Bienek, Richard Crangle, 2014-01-20 Essays exploring how reformers and charities used the magic lantern to raise public awareness of poverty Public performances using the magic or optical lantern became a prominent part of the social fabric of the late nineteenth century Drawing on a rich variety of primary sources Screen Culture and the Social Question 1880 1914 investigates how the magic lantern and cinematograph used at public lectures church services and electoral campaigns became agents of social change The essays examine how social reformers and charitable organizations used the art of projection to raise public awareness of the living conditions of the poor and the destitute as they argued for reform and encouraged audiences to work to better their lot and that of others      Illustrated poems and songs for young people, ed. by mrs. [L.D.] Sale Barker Illustrated poems, 1885      An Extravaganza on the Ancient Ballad of Lord Bateman William Wigglesworth Chamberlin, 1878      Into Unknown England, 1866-1913 P. J. Keating, 1976      Pictures of Poverty Lydia Jakobs, 2021-10-26 From Charles Dickens's Oliver Twist to George Sims's How the Poor Live illustrated accounts of poverty were en vogue in Victorian Britain Poverty was also a popular subject on the screen whether in dramatic retellings of well known stories or in documentary photographs taken in the slums London and its street life were the preferred setting for George Robert Sims's rousing ballads and the numerous magic lantern slide series and silent films based on them Sims was a popular journalist and dramatist whose articles short stories theatre plays and ballads discussed overcrowding drunkenness prostitution and child poverty in dramatic and heroic episodes from the lives and deaths of the poor Richly illustrated and drawing from many previously unknown sources Pictures of Poverty is a comprehensive account of the representation of poverty throughout the Victorian period whether disseminated in newspapers illustrated books and lectures presented on the theatre stage or projected on the screen in magic lantern and film performances Detailed case studies reveal the intermedial context of these popular pictures of poverty and their mobility across genres With versatile author George R Sims as the starting point this study explores the influence of visual media in historical discourses about poverty and the highly controversial role of the Victorian state in poor relief     Billboard ,1942-08-15 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends     Making Ireland Irish Eric G. E. Zuelow,2009-03-01 From the dark shadow of civil war to the pastel painted towns of today Making Ireland Irish provides a sweeping account of the evolution of the Irish tourist industry over the twentieth century Drawing on an extensive array of previously untapped or underused sources Eric G E Zuelow examines how a small group of tourism advocates inspired by tourist development movements in countries such as France and Spain worked tirelessly to convince their Irish compatriots that tourism was the secret to Ireland's success Over time tourism went from being a national joke to a national interest Men and women from across Irish society joined in eager to help shape their country and culture for visitors eyes The result was Ireland as it is depicted today a land of blue skies smiling faces pastel towns natural beauty ancient history and timeless traditions With lucid prose and vivid detail Zuelow explains how careful planning transformed Irish towns and villages from grey and unattractive to bright and inviting sanitized Irish history to avoid offending Ireland's largest tourist market the English and supplanted traditional rural fairs revolving around muddy animals and featuring sexually suggestive ceremonies with new family friendly festivals and events filling today's tourist calendar By challenging existing notions that the Irish tourist product is either timeless or the consequence of colonialism Zuelow demonstrates that the development of tourist imagery and Irish national identity was not the result of a handful of elites or a postcolonial legacy but rather the product of an extended discussion that ultimately involved a broad cross section of society both inside and outside Ireland Tourism he argues played a vital role in making Ireland Irish     The Practical Teacher ,1885     Christian Register and Boston Observer... ,1919     Examination Bulletin ,1897     Annual Report New York (State) University. Division of examination and inspection,University of the State of New York. Division of Examination and Inspection,University of the State of New York. Examination Dept,1898     Report of the Examination Department University of the State of New York. Examination Department,1898     Documents of the Senate of the State of New York New York (State). Legislature. Senate,1898     Rosenbaum Review ,1922     An English verse-book, arranged by T.U. Cross Thomas Ultermare Cross,1886
