Preparing for Service Barry L. Callen, 1988 Making Good the Claim Rufus Burrow, 2016-02-16 The Church of God Reformation Movement founded in 1881 has the distinction of having been founded on the two core principles of holiness and visible unity Standard histories of the group proudly argue that the founder and pioneers exhibited a zeal for interracial unity that began to wane only in the early years of the twentieth century This book rejects that claim and argues instead that little to no extant hard evidence supports that view Moreover Making Good the Claim argues that while blacks eagerly joined the group they did so not because whites expended much energy evangelizing among them but because they heard something deeper in the message of holiness and visible unity than God's expectation that members achieve spiritual and church unity Unlike most whites blacks interpreted the message to call for unity along racial lines as well This book challenges members of the Church of God to begin forthwith to make good their historic claim about holiness and visible unity particularly as it applies to interracial unity An Encyclopedia of Religions in the United States William Bedford Williamson, 1992

Pentecostal Higher Education Daniel Topf, 2021-09-16 This book presents a theological and missiological argument for pentecostals to engage more forcefully in higher education by expanding and renewing their commitment toward operating their own colleges and universities The volume's first part describes past and present developments within higher education highlighting strengths and weaknesses of both pentecostal and post secular institutions The second part highlights the future potential of pentecostal higher education which is enriched by a Spirit empowered and mission minded spirituality that focuses on forming the hearts heads and hands of students Pentecostals increasingly desire to influence all spheres of society an endeavor that could be amplified through a strengthened engagement in higher education particularly one that encompasses a variety of institutions including a pentecostal research university In developing such an argument this research is both comprehensive and compelling inviting pentecostals to make a missional difference in the knowledge based economies that will characterize the twenty first century Strategic Planning for Private Higher Education Robert E Stevens, David L Loudon, Kenneth W Oosting, R Henry Migliore, Carle M Hunt, 2013-04-15 With Strategic Planning for Private Higher Education you will improve your effectiveness in strategic planning to ensure the growth success and viability of your institution The book's emphasis on tested techniques and the examples from the authors experiences in leading several private educational organizations give you the practical insight you need to learn how to benefit from strategic planning The entire strategic planning process is covered from vision casting to evaluation for all types of private educational institutions including colleges universities seminaries graduate schools in education and business and even K 12 academies Strategic Planning for Private Higher Education will inspire you to make planning happen in a manner that will change the future and make a difference in the life of your institution You'll see the strategic planning process from a senior administrator's perspective in real time with the idea of empowering all participating stakeholders for input and ownership of the process

This book shows education administrators faculty and students how to develop a vision that is understood shared and acted upon create a mission that adequately communicates who we are to be used in guiding every decision of the institution meet accreditation requirements of institutional effectiveness scan and analyze the external environment for changes that create either opportunities or threats to the institution establish and implement strategy tactics and action plans evaluate and control the strategic planning process assess the cultural and internal situation The book s end of chapter questions provide projects and assignments that reinforce the text materials Also included are sample strategic plans for departments schools and colleges illustrating how to apply textual concepts and principles Yet another valuable feature of Strategic Planning for Private Higher Education is its presentation of a master case study illustrating a number of key points including interaction between a college president and board of trustees the use of a strategic planning task force to collect primary data and to expand participation rewriting the mission statement of the college and an illustration of a strategic planning calendar in relation to the budgeting calendar

What Happened in the Garden Abner Chou,2016 Evangelicals are no strangers to the creation versus evolution debate Now the argument has spread beyond the contents of the creation account and into Genesis 2 3 with speculation about the historicity of Adam and the fall But does it matter which position one holds Is anything really at stake The faculty of The Master s College come together to contend that the second and third chapters of Genesis are indeed historical that there are excellent reasons for believing so and that it is an essential issue within Christian thought and life The contents of these chapters establish the history of how everything in the world came to be what it is today This Scripture passage Genesis 3 especially explains what we observe in the legal system literature gender roles education psychology and science Far from irrelevant the theology and historicity of Genesis are in fact critical to our everyday lives What Happened in the Garden includes new scientific literary business educational and legal perspectives on creation Through this multidisciplinary look at the debate the contributors prove that to change our understanding of the fall is to change the way we understand reality to revise the Christian worldview and to reshape the faith itself
