Preschool Education Ralph W. Colvin, Esther M. Zaffiro, 1974 Preschool Education Ralph W. Colvin, Esther D. Zaffiro, 1974 Handbook of Research on Empowering Early Childhood Educators With Technology Burris, Jade, Rosen, Dina, Karno, Donna, 2021-06-18 Computers and mobile technologies have become widely adopted as sought after tools in the field of education The prevalence of technology in early childhood education ECE is increasing and teachers both pre service and in service are using best practices to integrate tools effectively to improve teaching and learning within the field This includes settings such as childcare centers family childcare and community programs that have both educators and administrators adapting to the use of technology Therefore it has become critical to research and explore the best practices of technology integration and successful strategies to improve the use of technology in ECE The Handbook of Research on Empowering Early Childhood Educators With Technology examines best practices that focus specifically on those that facilitate the development of competencies in teaching young children birth to age 8 and technology integration The chapters include information on the foundations of technology in early childhood education content specific technology applications developmentally appropriate practices DAP for learners using technology and how to meet diverse learner needs with technology The target audience for this book is early childhood professionals teacher educators pre and in service teachers in early childhood settings faculty and researchers in the field of education instructional technologists childcare and elementary school administrators early education policy organizations and advocacy groups that are interested in the best practices and successful strategies for implementing technology in ECE Exploring Teaching in Early Childhood Education Helen F. Robison, 1983 International Handbook on Education in Southeast Asia Lorraine Pe Symaco, Martin Hayden, 2021-12-23 This International Handbook provides a detailed account of the education systems of 11 Southeast Asian nations including Brunei Darussalam Cambodia Indonesia Lao People s Democratic Republic Malaysia Myanmar the Philippines Singapore Thailand Timor Leste and Vietnam It presents a systematic sector by sector explanation of how these national education systems deliver educational services and respond to national and international issues and challenges With 56 chapters the International Handbook is the region s most comprehensive educational reference source In the first of its chapters the editors introduce the regional context and draw attention to the distinctive characteristics of each of the 11 systems Southeast Asia representing 8.5% of the world s population is as dynamic as it is diverse The International Handbook charts progress and establishes a benchmark for documenting future developments It also provides a stepping off point for more detailed investigations of decision making processes and outcomes across the 11 national education systems Mentoring Early Childhood Educators Carol Hillman, 2006 This book is a tour de force deceptively simple and yet breathtaking in its scope Mary Eames Ucci Educational Director Wellesley College Child Study Center The first few months in the classroom are a combination of on the job training and rite of passage a time when novice teachers need someone to show them the ropes and be there to answer the tough questions But if you are a teacher s mentor or supervisor your task isn t as simple as it seems What is the best way for you and your teaching community to propel a new teacher into a joyful engaging career in the classroom In Mentoring Early Childhood Educators Carol Hillman shares an innovative collaborative supervisory model that gives preservice and novice teachers the opportunity to discover what real classrooms look and feel like while they develop the skills and thoughtfulness to work through both everyday issues and the more difficult problems of practice From your first meeting with a new teacher to end of year goodbyes Hillman s program supports quality teaching and offers proven strategies that show you what to look for during classroom observations when to communicate suggestions ideas and strategies and how to do so without criticizing how to handle difficulties between mentor and novice how to coordinate supervision to deepen and broaden the experience for the new teacher In addition to carefully explaining her supervisory model Hillman offers strategies for implementing it sample observations and journal responses and many useful forms for the cooperating teacher Read Mentoring Early Childhood Educators it will give you a rock solid program for not only introducing new teachers into the profession but also making the time a professional learning experience for you
