Presence Of The Light:

The Presence of Light Matthew Kapstein, 2004-11-03 There is perhaps no greater constant in religious intuition and experience than the presence of light In spiritual traditions East and West light is not only ubiquitous but something that assumes strikingly similar forms in altogether different historical and cultural settings This study examines light as an aspect of religiously valued experiences and its entailments for mystical theology philosophy politics and religious art The essays in this volume make an important contribution to religious studies by proposing that it is misleading to conceive of religious experience in terms of an irreconcilable dichotomy between universality and cultural construction An esteemed group of contributors representing the study of Asian and Western religious traditions from a range of disciplinary perspectives suggests that attention to various forms of divine radiance shows that there is indeed a range of principles that if not universal are nevertheless very widely occurring and amenable to fruitful comparative inquiry What results is a work of enormous scope demonstrating compelling cross connections that will be of value to scholars of comparative religions mysticism and the relationship between art and the sacred Contributors Catherine B Asher Raoul Birnbaum Sarah Iles Johnston Matthew T Kapstein Andrew Louth Paul E Muller Ortega Elliot R Wolfson Mimi Hall Yiengpruksawan Hossein Ziai

Being in Time to the Music David Ross, 2008-12-18 Being in time to the music from the ground up is a work in phenomenology where this term is broadly defined comprehending Plato Heidegger Hegel and Marx The most direct referent is Hegel together with the theoretical revolution that he initiated with Phenomenology of Mind This text's more general purpose is to set the tone for a 21st communism based upon the idea of dancing with death assuming full responsibility for one's mortality and abandoning the self to love as the meaning of existence This dance is choreographed through my conversations with the above mentioned writers In conversing with them I aim to displace if not usurp them from the throne of honour which is nothing more than the authority borrowed from me By this I do not intend to deny completely their other to me character However they exist or even figure for me both in the sense of of count having importance as those that I read and by which I read myself They have borrowed my authority namely my own potential to be an author So reading them is to re assume that borrowed authority The life of the reader to paraphrase Barthes begins with the death of the author

Proceedings of the Section of Sciences Koninklijke Nederlandse Akademie van Wetenschappen,1916 Radiation in Chemistry Richard Alan Morton,1928 The Birth to Presence Jean-Luc Nancy,1993 The epoch of representation is as old as the West Indeed representation is the West understood as what at once designates and expands its own limits But what comes after the West What comes after representation s disclosure of its own limit The central problem posed in these essays collected from over a decade of work is how in the wake of Western ontologies to conceive the coming the birth that characterizes being We are now at the limit of representation where objects as we experience them have been show to be merely objects of representation or rather of presentation since there is nothing to re present The first part of this book Existence asks how today one can give sense of meaning to existence as such arguing that existence itself as it comes nude into the world must now be our sense In examining what this birth to presence might be we should not ask what presence is rather we should conceive presence as presence to someone including to presence itself This birth is not the constitution of an identity but the endless departure of an identity from and from within its other or others Its coming is not desire but jouissance the joy of averring oneself to be continually in the state of being born a rejoicing of birth a birth of rejoicing The second section Poetry asks What art exposes this In writing in the voice in painting And what if art is exposed to it How does it inscribe or rather exscribe in a term the book develops the coming existence as such The author s trajectory in this book crosses those of Hegel Schlegel Baudelaire Nietzsche Freud and Heidegger in their comments on art and politics existence and corporeality everyday life and its modes of existence and ecstasy An analysis that dares this crossing involves all the varied accounts of existence political as well as philosophical and all the realms of poverty Water and Ions as the Conditions Necessary for the Presence of Life Raul Cuero,2022-11-01 This book drawing on the author s extensive scientific research in different parts of the world and reports from other scientists explores the intricate interdependence between water and ions Water is well known as the best diluent for supporting life which allows the flow of molecules which are made up of ions from one particular point to another but in many cases despite the presence of water life and biological entities are not found This book allows the reader to pursue an answer to this mystery through scientific knowledge as has never been presented before showing how metal ions complement water for sustaining life It considers the effects of cosmic dust and solar energy on the progression of biological systems and the presence of metal ions such as sulfur as part of our proteins calcium in animal and human skeletons iron in our blood fluoride in our teeth sodium and potassium in our physiological activity along with magnesium and zinc in plants Furthermore it explains the presence of the carbon element which is ubiquitous in all biomolecules on earth This book also provides techniques such as biomarkers computational modeling and artificial intelligence to identify undetectable biological entities
