Presenting Scotlands Story:

Presenting Scotland's Story Scottish Museums Council,1989 The History of Scotland; from the Earliest Period to the Present Time ... Illustrated with Portraits, Etc Thomas Wright,1852 The Church of Scotland, past and present, ed. by R.H. Story Robert Herbert Story,1890 History of Scotland to the Present Time: To the accession of Mary Stewart Peter Hume Brown,1911 The History of Scotland from the Earliest Period to the Present Time George Buchanan,1852 The history of Scotland... to the present time George Buchanan,1856 The history of Scotland. With notes, and a continuation to the present time. By James Aikman George Buchanan,1827 The Story of Scotland from the Earliest Times to the Present Century John Mackintosh,1894 Scotland's First War of Independence Sarah Crome,1999 Making Histories in Museums Gaynor Kavanagh,2005-12-01 This exciting new series recognizes the tremendous potential of museum based histories and the ways in which they can engage people with ideas about the past People encounter and use museums on many different levels personal social and intellectual and access meanings that best fit their agendas Histories in museums can stimulate the imagination provoke discussion and increase our ability to question what we know From this it can be deduced that history in museums is as much about the present as it is about the past as much about how we feel as about what we know as much about who we are as about who we have been The first volume in the series Making Histories in Museums examines museological features but deals particularly with the historiographical issues that have previously been underplayed Each contributor looks at theoretical frameworks within a specific field of study using case studies and comparisons of practice Good practice is highlighted and potential ways forward explored The book establishes the themes that will be the subject of more detailed study in later volumes This series will prove an invaluable resource for all those concerned with or interested in museums museum professionals museum students historians and students of history as well as the general reader Heritage and Museums J.M. Fladmark,2015-11-17 Papers from the 1999 conference by the Museum of Scotland Aims to generate international comparison and debate about interpretation and presentation of heritage assets and to examine the role of museums in shaping national identity Children's Books for Christmas Presents ,1912 Scotland from the Earliest Times to the Present Century John Mackintosh,1902 Scotland, Stories of ,1896 Child Life ,1911 The Dynamics of Heritage Laurence Gouriévidis,2016-03-23 There has been much academic interest in the role of museums as places where understanding of the past is shaped and legitimised for a wide and increasingly diverse public This book focuses on the museum representations of the Highland Clearances a much neglected aspect of one of the most disputed and politically charged issues in modern Scottish history Drawing together a range of inter disciplinary themes and notions it considers the cultural legacy of the period brings to light the socially and historically conditioned meanings and values encapsulated in museum narratives of the Clearances and shows the significance of collective memory in the negotiations inherent in heritage work Examining both national and local museums in Scotland and concluding with comparisons with Australian museums of migration Dynamics of Heritage contributes to our understanding of the processes of heritage construction and its relationship to issues of memory and other modes of engagement with the past Building on Batik Michael Hitchcock,Wiendu Nuryanti,2016-12-05 The word batik is possibly of Malay origin from the word tik meaning to drip or to drop The term is applied to a resist dye technique invented independently in locations as diverse as Ancient Egypt Japan and Turkestan Batik is a remarkably flexible textile technique and is suited to small scale methods of production but demand from the fashion and tourism industries is increasing This volume brings together the experiences and concerns of the international community of batik producers It gives voice to their suggestions for ensuring that the producers of this traditional craft are integrated into its increasingly global production rather than excluded from it Building on the work of batik designers and producers the book discusses the emergence of a global craft consciousness Batik producers report on innovative measures taken both individually and collectively to hold their market position while commercial producers frequently annex and mass produce traditional batik design The book concludes with a discussion of marketing and production innovations and tourism which enable the producers of batik to maintain the integrity of their designs whilst harnessing the benefits of new commercial forms

Mighty Scot, The , Scotland's Future History Stuart McHardy,2015-04-06 McHardy presents a new approach to history changing our mindset to look at Scotland as the centre of our story Rather than starting from the Mediterranean from the classical Christian bias we have been taught for centuries Rather than being a remote dark land populated by barbaric tribes Perhaps we were the centre of a well organised civilisation around the Orkneys and islands and coasts and rivers with our own priorities community centred locally self sufficient well versed in lore of all kinds Who were are we The great centres of ritual in Orkney Lewis and Kilmartin suggest an indigenous population much more sophisticated in terms of social ritual and communal rule than we have been led to believe In whose interest is it that we accept the classical Christian version of history relayed to us by monks These are some of the questions McHardy addresses in a passionate and accessible style Read and become more Alba centric in terms of what we see as important to research study and understand
