the funeral as well as 82 previously unpublished photographs Subject Transportation Bonnie Scottish Trucks: A Celebration of Scottish Style Bill Reid, 2016-12-01 Traditional Scottish liveries have long featured combinations of tartans thistles stags piper and monograms on a strong background colour Bonnie Scottish Trucks brings together 231 high quality photos of trucks operated by past and present Scottish companies small firms and owner drivers who have used their vehicles as a means of attracting the eye of potential customers and as a matter of pride in the presentation of their business To emphasise the ownership and purpose of the vehicle the user's name is emblazoned on the front and sides in shade lettering leaving the onlooker in no doubt Although not exclusive to Scotland this treatment seems to have been more prolific and has stood the test of time in Scotland The beautiful vehicles featured in this book were spotted by author Bill Reid around the country in towns in cattle markets on the road and anywhere else trucks or lorries can be found This striking collection will appeal to drivers road transport enthusiasts and in particular those with an interest in vintage commercial vehicles The Writing's on the Truck John Corah, 2019-10-01 The Writing's on the Truck is a pictorial look at the traditional art of signwriting on commercial vehicles by renowned signwriter John Corah John began signwriting in 1982 working for Brian Harris Transport Ltd Brian's well turned out trucks were regularly seen on the roads between the Southwest and the North of Scotland and with this excellent showcase for his skills John quickly built up a large customer base Since then he has written on ERFs Leylands Guys Fodens Atkinsons Albions and AECs to name but a few and he is responsible for the distinctive livery of a number of traditional family run haulage companies In some cases he worked on the vehicles when brand new and then again when restored some 20-30 years later Sadly many of the once familiar and iconic companies have disappeared over the years and today computer generated vinyl lettering has almost completely taken over the art and few modern fleets are signwritten The Writing's on the Truck includes 210 fully captioned and previously unpublished photos of the vehicles he worked on many of which will be remembered by transport fans UK wide The book tells the story of the development of John's business the methods he uses to create particular effects and numerous anecdotes from his working life It will be of interest to anyone involved with road haulage and the preservation of classic trucks Bus Preservation & Rallies Malcolm Batten, 2023-06-30 The preservation of our transport heritage is something that the British excel at The Buses magazine Museum Rally Guide 2020-21 lists forty museums in the United Kingdom plus one in the Republic of Ireland with collections of buses and sometimes trams or trolleybuses amongst their exhibits The rally calendar section lists hundreds of events taking part every year This has all developed since the 1950s Prior to this a few far sighted companies such as The London General Omnibus Company later London Transport had put aside some old vehicles but they were not on regular display Private preservation started in the 1950s and the first clubs for preservationists were established such as the Historic Commercial Vehicle Club in 1958 A few early events were held but the first regular event was the HCVC now HCVS London to Brighton Run which began in 1962 and has continued ever since Museum sites were established in the 1960s The Museum of British Transport opened in stages between 1961 and 1963 and would lead eventually to the London Transport Museum The East Anglian Transport Museum at Carlton Colville and the Sandtoft Transport Centre both opened in the 1960s But it would be the 1970s when the rallies and Open Days we know today really began to take off This book looks back at the formative years to 1980 when the seeds of the preservation and rally movement of today were being sown
