My Mother Told Me Stories I. M. Ramsey, 2023-09-20 About the Book Megan is a ten year old biracial girl growing up in a small town in the southeastern corner of Washington state in the early 1960s Megan has the usual struggles of growing up that most children have but her concerns are complicated with the reality that she is half Japanese and half white She also struggles with one concern that is unique to her understanding why her mother Hitomi is overly protective and hovering so different from the mothers of her friends The mystery grows when she discovers her sister a sister she never knew existed until she finds pictures of her mother standing with a little Asian girl she had never seen before in front of a drab and desolate looking building somewhere in an empty and arid landscape On the back of the picture is written Minidoka 1943

My Mother Told Me Stories is a heart wrenching story of loss tragedy and one woman s journey through the shadows of despair But it is also a story of surprising kindness generosity and friendship of forgiveness and reconciliation and the enduring love of family About the Author I M Ramsey has worked in a variety of roles in counseling teaching and administration at the collegiate level and feels very fortunate to have spent her entire professional career in academia Her primary research interest has focused on the impact of empathy and forgiveness and the relational dynamics between perpetrators and those who extend forgiveness to them This is her first novel with the story based upon the themes found in her South African research of political perpetrators who received empathy and forgiveness from family members of their victims I M Ramsey lives in Washington state and enjoys spending time with her husband their daughters sons in law and three grandsons a k a the three scampering squirrels

Here's Looking at You Ernest D. Giglio, 2010 Now in its third edition Here's Looking at You Hollywood Film and Politics examines the tangled relationship between politics and Hollywood which manifests itself in celebrity involvement in political campaigns and elections and in the overt and covert political messages conveyed by Hollywood films The book's findings contradict the film industry's assertion that it is simply in the entertainment business and examines how while the majority of Hollywood films are strictly commercial ventures hundreds of movies ranging from Birth of a Nation to Capitalism do indeed contain political messages This new edition has been updated with new photos and cartoons and includes two new chapters one on Afghan Iraqi war films and the other on the treatment of race and gender in Hollywood films that are sure to stimulate discussion Here's Looking at You serves as a basic text for political film courses and as a supplement in American government and film studies courses and will also appeal to film buffs and people in the film industry Weekly World News, 1992-06 Rooted in the creative success of over 30 years of supermarket tabloid publishing the Weekly World News has been the world's only reliable news source since 1979 The online hub www.weeklyworldnews.com is a leading entertainment news site Live Television Stephanie Marriott, 2007-11-18 The study of television still the most powerful of modern media has long been fascinated by its capacity for liveness Marriott offers an insightful analysis of the complexities of this phenomenon particularly its increasingly vital connection with the use of new media A timely contribution to our understanding of media events 24 hour news and the phenomenology of mediated experience Andrew Tolson De Montfort University In the steps of Marshall McLuhan and Alfred Schutz Stephanie Marriott offers us a timely and sustained reflection upon the nature of mediation and the changing qualities of the live experience made possible by television Elegant lucid witty and thought provoking her account will become a canonical text in television studies Martin Montgomery University of Strathclyde In a fragmenting multichannel and multiplatform global broadcasting environment live television continues to attract huge audiences bucking the trend towards narrowcasting and niche markets yet little of a comprehensive nature has been written about the live television event In this fascinating book Stephanie Marriott engages in a close and detailed analysis of the nature of live television She examines the transformations in our experience of time and space which are brought about by the capacity of broadcasting to bring us the world in the moment in which it is unfolding situating the live television event in the context of an expanding and increasingly complex global communicative framework Building her argument by means of a series of case studies of events as diverse as the assassination of President Kennedy in 1963 the attack on the World Trade Centre in 2001 the 2005 London bombings election night coverage and live sports coverage Marriott provides a meticulous and articulate account of the way in which live television mediates the event for its audience This book will be essential reading for students and academics working in media cultural studies cultural sociology and linguistics and is an exciting new contribution to the field of broadcast talk and media discourse Story of the World, Vol. 4: History for the Classical Child: The Modern Age (Vol. 4) (Story of the World) Susan Wise Bauer, 2005-06-17
