Political Systems Of The World , Pressure Groups Today Rob Baggott, 1995. A coherent overview of pressure groups in Britain and how they influence the government, accessible to non-specialist graduate and undergraduate students. Discusses what pressure groups are and how they are studied, their place in a democracy, their internal structures and dynamics, their cooperation and resources, and their relationship to the central government, Parliament, the press, and public, and other pressure points. Distributed in the US by St Martin's Press. Annotation copyright by Book News Inc, Portland, OR.

Public Policy and the Arts: A Comparative Study of Great Britain and Ireland Ruth-Balandina M. Quinn, 2018-08-20. First published in 1998, this volume considers the subject of arts policy as a subject of public policy making proper in UK and Ireland, with a particular focus on theatre as a profession rather than a mere hobby. Previous studies have placed the burden of policy improvements on the arts themselves, looking at what the arts can do to be worthy of government funding and favourable policy, and have seen government actions as if they have a uniform effect. This study takes the arts out of the abstract and discusses specific ways that diverse activities with even more diverse needs can be best approached with government policy, assessing the strengths and weaknesses of government initiatives. It is aimed at both political scientists and anyone with an interest in arts and cultural policy.

The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Interest Groups, Lobbying and Public Affairs Phil Harris, Alberto Bitonti, Craig S. Fleisher, Anne Skorkjær Binderkrantz, 2022-06-20. The growing need for a concise and comprehensive overview of the world of interest groups, lobbying, and public affairs called for a compendium of existing research, key theories, concepts, and case studies. This project is the first transnational encyclopedia to offer such an interdisciplinary and wide overview of these topics, including perspectives on public relations, crisis management, communication studies, as well as political science, political marketing, and policy studies. It is an interdisciplinary work which involved an extraordinary pool of contributors made up of leading scholars and practitioners from all around the globe. It is a live and evolving project focused on drawing together grounded international knowledge for our diverse and developing world. The 200 entries of the Palgrave Encyclopedia of Interest Groups, Lobbying, and Public Affairs to be found as a live reference work online here and in two print volumes in 2022 address these research avenues, tackling a growing demand for a comprehensive international reference work regarding key global sectors and policymaking structures, looking beyond the traditional markets of Europe and North America to incorporate practice and research from Asia, Africa, Oceania, and Latin America. This encyclopedia acts as a synthesis of existing research and aims to aid academics, students, and practitioners.

navigate their relevant fields around the globe The Conspicuous Corporation Neil James Mitchell,1997 Shows why business sometimes loses in policy debates despite often having overwhelming resources Regulating Agriculture Philip Lowe,Terry Marsden,Sarah Whatmore,2023-06-08 Originally published in 1994 this volume brings together a set of essays reflecting the complex political social and institutional problems encountered by modern states in seeking to manage their agricultural sectors Drawing on different national and international viewpoints the essays present original analyses of agricultural regulation in a comparative context The aspects covered include the roots of the post war food order the roles of corporatism agribusiness and technological change the challenge of de regulation and environmental reforms the introduction of market principles and mechanisms into centrally planned economies and the efforts to forge a new order in international trade The Caribbean Banana Trade P. Clegg,2002-07-23 The Caribbean banana trade is a controversial issue within international affairs Peter Clegg investigates the complex political relationships between the traditional actors in the trade and how the issues of colonialism and globalization have shaped their interactions He presents a detailed analysis of the development of the Caribbean banana trade and analyzes why the influence and importance of the traditional actors within the trade has diminished over the last thirty years The Politics of Religion and the Religion of Politics Ira Sharkansky,2000-01-01 Prominent political theorist Ira Sharkansky looks at the intersection of religion and politics using the case of Israel where a chief rabbi officiates along with a prime minister to examine how the two inform each other Focusing more on similarities than differences Sharkansky demonstrates that both religion and politics can justify their position on the moral high ground Both are involved in shaping our values and standard of living however neither religion nor politics can claim a monopoly of virtue Political demagogues have their religious equivalents in self serving prophets and false messiahs and politicians and religious leaders both may violate the morality that they preach Sharkansky examines the place of intellectual certainty doubt charisma and passion in both realms He argues that Israel among other Western democracies where politics and religion intersect supports a successful fusion of the two Pressure Groups Jeremy John Richardson,1993 Financing Universal Access To Healthcare: A Comparative Review Of Landmark Legislative Health Reforms In The Oecd Alexander S Preker,2018-03-20 The recent expansion of health insurance coverage in the USA under the Affordable Health Care Act and current threats to reverse the benefits of this reform have once again focused the world s attention on the difficult challenges faced by other countries trying to provide better access to healthcare to their population at an affordable cost This textbook provides a comparative review of financing universal access to healthcare in the Organisation for Economic Co operation and Development OECD countries The first two chapters of the book provide a framework for financing universal access to healthcare The remaining eight chapters present case studies of eight OECD countries that have successfully introduced reforms to finance universal access to healthcare for their population through landmark legislative reforms A concluding chapter focuses on the lessons learned from the OECD and recommendations from policymakers and others who are planning similar reforms The book is designed as a learning tool for students and as a user guide for policymakers The Rise and Fall of Privatization in the Russian Oil Industry L. Sim,2008-10-24 A study of the actors and institutions that shaped decision making on privatization in the Russian oil industry between 1992 and 2006 The book analyses the origins of privatization as a policy on a macro industry wide level as well as presenting three in depth case studies of privatization on a company level From New Towns to Green Politics Dennis Hardy,2003-12-16 From the 1940s to the 1990s From New Towns to Green Politics charts the course of successive issues and campaigns from the reconstruction of Britain s war torn cities to the introduction of green belts and new towns to regional and community planning and so to the inner cities and most recently green politics Britain in Europe Tony Spybey,2008-02-20 This is the first introductory sociology text to look at Britain in terms of its geographical position within Europe and its political and economic situation as a member of the European Union Trade Unionism Ross Murdoch Martin,1989 Designed for students taking industrial relations courses this study examines the remarkably diverse purposes which have been attributed to the trade union movement and describes the varying forms of trade unions that exist in different countries and the reasons for these variations From Garden Cities to New Towns Dennis Hardy,2003-12-16 This book offers a detailed record of one of the world s oldest environmental pressure groups It raises questions about the capacity of pressure groups to influence policy and finally it assesses the campaign as a major factor in the emergence of modern town and planning and as a backdrop against which to examine current issues An Introduction to Political Science John A. Jacobsohn,1998 this book emphasizes the relationship between the society and the state rather than between the individual and the state It draws on as much cross cultural and even historical information as possible Pref An Introduction to Government and Politics M.
