National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1993      Home-Based Services for Troubled Children Ira M. Schwartz,2016-02-01

There is mounting interest in services to strengthen families and if possible to keep them together preventing unnecessary and costly out of home placements Unfortunately although these programs are proliferating throughout the country many are developing without the benefit of existing historical conceptual and scholarly data information needed to make sound fiscal policy and programmatic decisions This book fills this critical void with a systematic examination of home based services for abused neglected delinquent and emotionally disturbed children and their families With the most authoritative research on the topic to date this book will be of interest to practitioners policymakers and child advocates      Preventing Child Sexual Abuse Sandy K. Wurtele,Cindy L. Miller-Perrin,1993-01-01

The past decade has seen a dramatic increase in the attention paid to the problem of child sexual abuse Professionals from the social work mental health medical academic and legal fields are all involved in researching the prevalence causes and consequences of abuse Child sexual abuse in multidimensional it is determined by forces at work in victims and offenders in the family and in the community and society at large Thoroughly researched Preventing Child Sexual Abuse surveys incidence and prevalence studies lists risk and protective factors in abuse discusses various indicators of abuse and reports on legislation related to abuse It reviews preventive programs aimed at children and adults and provides suggestions for an expanded involvement of parents professionals policymakers researchers and the general public In doing so it provides the information needed to create prevention programs that attack the problem on several fronts at once

Health Issues for Minority Adolescents Marjorie Kagawa-Singer,1996-01-01 Adolescents are an underserved group in terms of health care Poor and minority youth are particularly shortchanged in our current system In view of the high incidence of many medical and psychological syndromes associated with poverty and discrimination this situation is paradoxical This book examines both common and unique health issues associated with a number of different groups African American Latino Native American Asian American and Hawaiian and explores the role of traditional and nontraditional treatments for each The chapters represent a compendium of the most up to date studies summarized by leading researchers and include specific recommendations for improving health care services which will prove valuable to providers and those concerned with public policy The authors conclude that unless greater attention and resources are devoted to these youth the consequences will continue to be dire both for the groups involved and for society as a whole Marjorie Kagawa Singer a nurse and anthropologist is an assistant professor in the School of Public Health and Asian American Studies Center at ucla She is the author of numerous articles concerning cross cultural health care and multicultural issues in cancer care Phyllis A Katz is a clinical and developmental psychologist She is the director of the Institute for Research on Social Problems where she researches children s gender role development and racial attitude acquisition She is coauthor of Big World Small Screen

The Foster Care Crisis Patrick Almond Curtis,Grady Dale,Joshua C. Kendall,1999-01-01 The inadequacy of the foster care system has long been recognized One of the biggest obstacles to reforming the system is the relative unavailability of research data from the field information that would shed light on key empirical trends and pressing issues This long overdue volume provides a much needed overview of the current state of foster care Leading researchers and practitioners summarize and discuss the results of their current research providing through their data an unparalleled detailed glimpse of the inner workings of the foster care system in its entirety The volume is also valuable for its survey and syntheses of important issues and trends affecting foster care Subjects discussed include welfare reform reporting systems family reunification mental health services and the needs of minority children Wide ranging and detailed in its coverage this collection is destined to become an essential reference and guide to the foster care system Success in Early Intervention

Arthur J. Reynolds,2000-01-01 This book is a valuable source of information on the long term effects of early intervention programs on the education of children living in economically disadvantaged areas and in other contexts Early intervention programs such as Head Start enjoy popular and legislative support but until now policymakers and practitioners have lacked hard data on the long term consequences of such locally and federally mandated efforts Success in Early Intervention focuses on the Child Parent Center CPC program in Chicago the second oldest after Head Start federally funded early childhood intervention program Begun in 1967 the program currently operates out of twenty four centers which are located in proximity to the elementary schools they serve The CPC program s unique features include mandatory parental involvement and a single sustained educational system that spans preschool through the third grade Central to this study is a 1986 cohort of nearly twelve hundred CPC children and a comparison group of low income children whose subsequent activities challenges and achievements are followed through the age of fifteen The lives of these children amply demonstrate the positive long term educational and social consequences of the CPC program Family Violence Across the Lifespan Ola
