Red Funnelled Boat:

Titanic and the Mystery Ship Senan Molony, 2011-08-31 As the Titanic was swallowed by a freezing sea over 800 miles from the nearest land her 2 200 passengers and crew attempted desperately to avert tragedy Lifeboats were lowered and constant SOS signals sent but most realised they would require a miracle to avoid their doom And then it came Approaching over the horizon was a ship coming ever closer and then stopping within five or six miles of the Titanic The joy on board the sinking ship was unimaginable the crew even reassured passengers that rescue was imminent Agonisingly however the vessel did not come to the rescue despite rockers of appeal but gradually turned and moved away abandoning over 1 500 people to their fate The search for the Mystery Ship began immediately and both Britain and the USA accused a ship called the Californian of deserting the Titanic in her hour of need But was the Mystery Ship the Californian For the first time this book explores the totality of evidence with the discovery of the Titanic s actual wreck site in 1985 allowing crucial insights not available during official investigations seventy three years earlier Combining a penetrating argument with an extensive collection of archive photographs and materials this book aims to find clear answers to the many riddles of the Titanic s Mystery Ship The Modern Railroad Edward Hungerford, 1911 Merchant Ships of the World Frank Charles Bowen, F. Under the Volcano in his lifetime numerous other works most of which have since been edited for publication were in various stages of composition at his death La Mordida the longest and most significant of the manuscripts that have not been previously published is a draft of a novel based on Lowry's visit to Mexico in 1945-46 which ended in the arrest and deportation of Lowry and his wife following a nightmarish run in with corrupt immigration authorities On its most immediate level the title La Mordida which means the little bite Mexican slang for the small bribe that officials are apt to demand in order to expedite matters refers to the autobiographical protagonist's legal difficulties In a larger sense however it also represents his inability to escape his past to repay the fine or debt that he owes The central narrative of La Mordida involves a descent into the abyss of self culminating in the protagonist's symbolic rebirth at the book's end Lowry planned to use this basic narrative pattern as the springboard for innumerable questions about such concerns as art identity the nature of existence political issues and alcoholism Above all La Mordida was to have been a metafictional work about an author who sees no point in living events if he cannot write about them and who is not only unable to write but suspects that he is just a character in a novel A reading of La Mordida in the context of Lowry's aesthetic theories and psychological problems shows why he dreaded the completion of his projects to such an extent that he called success a horrible disaster and compared death to the accepted manuscript of one's life The reason La Mordida makes clear lies partly in the aesthetic theories that led Lowry to attempt a book that he prophetically called something never dreamed of before a work of art so beyond conception it could not be written Patrick A McCarthy's edition of La Mordida is based on materials held in the Malcolm Lowry Archive at the University of British Columbia Its publication provides essential evidence for a balanced assessment of Lowry's creative processes and his achievement as a writer

SPLASHDOWN Russell Smith, 2023-08-30 This book tells of a young couple who struggled against the odds to introduce a seaplane service to New Zealand's Marlborough Sounds and to members of the travelling public between the South and North Islands Locals looked askance at what was a totally new concept to the area but the aeroplanes soon became accepted especially after their lifesaving use in emergencies was recognised by people in the far flung reaches of the outer Sounds Russell Smith owner and pilot writes of years of incredible happenings some adventurous many humorous and some just plain harrowing One account bordering on surreal occurred at a boat ramp where he was surrounded by nine policemen accused of being a UFO from outer space Unbelievable but true as is the whole book
