Klyukanov, 2010-09-02 A Communication Universe Manifestations of Meaning Stagings of Significance presents a new theoretical understanding of communication Igor E Klyukanov conceptualizes the process of communication in terms of space and time i e as a continuous process of meaningful spatiotemporal transformation He goes on to examine four fundamental transformations and the four theoretical perspectives on the nature of communication From the first perspective communication appears to be pure space then time comes into play more and more actively and from the fourth perspective communication appears to be pure time Following the fourth transformation communication is seen as returning back to the first stage where it again appears as pure space however now its reality contains all meanings created in the process of the previous transformations Based on these four transformations the process of communication is understood as a universe meaning whole entire turned into one Handbook of School-Family Partnerships Sandra L. Wren, 2012-07-16 The concept of culture stands clearly but unsteadily at the heart of multicultural education This book provides a systematic in depth understanding of the role that culture plays in the massive literature of multicultural education as multiple and antithetical definitions of culture exist The book also shows multicultural educators how to discern the definition used in any particular book or article Thomas Wren deploys methods and concepts from philosophy and the social sciences to provide an analytic framework within which the history and current state of culture theory can be understood both for its own sake and for its educational significance Although the book is full of theory it is not a theoretical book in the usual sense It is a road map accompanied by the related theoretical information and tools that graduate students and faculty need to 1 navigate the complex terrain of multicultural education literature 2 apply the book's analytical framework to that literature and to their own future practice and 3 anticipate the social changes and accompanying conceptual changes in our notions of culture that are now occurring as part of the cultural hybridity of today's students
