Rediscovering French Film:

Rediscovering French Film Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.),1981      French Cinema R mi Fournier Lanzoni,R mi Fournier-Lanzoni,2015-10-22 An all encompassing history of French motion pictures and cinematographic trends chronologically from 1895 to the present      Rediscovering French Film Mary Lea Bandy,1983      Rediscovering French Film ,1982      French Film Theory and Criticism Richard Abel,1993-09-12 These two volumes examine a significant but previously neglected moment in French cultural history the emergence of French film theory and criticism before the essays of Andr  Bazin Richard Abel has devised an organizational scheme of six nearly symmetrical periods that serve to bite into the discursive flow of early French writing on the cinema Each of the periods is discussed in a separate and extensive historical introduction with convincing explications of the various concepts current at the time In each instance Abel goes on to provide a complementary anthology of selected texts in translation Amounting to a portable archive these anthologies make available a rich selection of nearly one hundred and fifty important texts most of them never before published in English      Rediscovering French Science-Fiction in Literature, Film and Comics Philippe Mather,Sylvain Rheault,2016-02-29 French science fiction SF is as old as the French language Cyrano de Bergerac wrote about a trip to the moon that was published back in 1657 as did Jules Verne in 1865 this time using hard scientific facts The first movie showing a trip to the moon was made by Georges M li s in 1902 In the comics format Herg  had Tintin walk on the moon in 1954 15 years before Neil Armstrong These are just a few of the many unique French contributions to SF that rightly deserve to be better known One of the purposes of this collection is to introduce French SF to an English speaking audience Rediscovering French Science Fiction first revisits proto science fiction from authors like Cyrano de Bergerac and Jules Verne before delving into contemporary science fiction works from authors such as Ren  Barjavel and Jacques Spitz A contribution from preeminent SF author Lisabeth Vonarburg from Quebec helps to understand the constraints and advantages of writing SF in French A third section is devoted to French SF in movies and graphic novels media where French creators have been recognized worldwide This collection explores many aspects of French SF including the genre's deep roots in popular culture the influence of key authors on its historical development and the form and function of science and fantasy as well as the impact of films and graphic novels on the public perception of the genre's nature      Rediscovering French Film, 1930-1960 Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.),Pacific Film Archive,1982      French Film Theory and Criticism, Volume 2 Richard Abel,2021-05-11 These two volumes examine a significant but previously neglected moment in French cultural history the emergence of French film theory and criticism before the essays of Andr  Bazin Richard Abel has devised an organizational scheme of six nearly symmetrical periods that serve to bite into the discursive flow of early French writing on the cinema Each of the periods is discussed in a separate and extensive historical introduction with convincing explications of the various concepts current at the time In each instance Abel goes on to provide a complementary anthology of selected texts in translation Amounting to a portable archive these anthologies make available a rich selection of nearly one hundred and fifty important texts most of them never before published in English

Marcel Carné Jonathan Driskell, 2019-01-04 This book provides a scholarly yet accessible account of the work of Marcel Carné one of the great directors of classical French cinema and the key figure behind the poetic realist film movement of the 1930s His films a number of which were made in collaboration with the poet turned scriptwriter Jacques Prévert include such well known works as Le Quai des brumes Le Jour se lève and Les Enfants du paradis As the first book to be written on Carné for a number of years it offers a fresh perspective on his cinema particularly through a re-examination of his post-war work although many of these films were very popular and offer a fascinating insight into France at the time they have until now largely been neglected Adopting a carefully crafted aesthetic his films explore a tension between pessimism and entrapment on the one hand and transcendence idealised romantic love and a populist celebration of working class life on the other His career traversed key moments in French cinema including poetic realism the tradition of quality and the French New Wave and spanned important historical moments such as the Popular Front of the 1930s the Second World War and France's post-war modernisation This book will be of interest to scholars students and film lovers alike

The Classic French Cinema, 1930-1960 C. G. Crisp, 1993 Colin Crisp re-evaluates the stylistic evolution of the classic French cinema and represents the New Wave film makers as its natural heirs rather than the mould breakers they perceived themselves to be

Nonfiction Film Richard Barsam, 1992-11-22 Richard Barsam has given us as comprehensive a study of the origins and development of the nonfiction mode in motion pictures as we are ever likely to have in one volume He draws on all the major written sources and many which are little known and he shares with us many eloquent descriptions of the films themselves giving us a valuable textbook

Le Jour se Lève Ben McCann, 2014-06-10 Le Jour se lève 1939 directed by Marcel Carné is widely recognised as the classic French Poetic Realist film Told in flashback it recounts the story of a man who has committed a murder and who awaits his fate as the police close in Carné shuttles between different registers tones and textures throughout marshalling the studio's resources to create striking pictorial compositions The film also contains the great French star Jean Gabin's most iconic performance as François marooned at the top of his apartment building Ben McCann's perceptive and lively book traces the evolution of Le Jour se lève and situates it in a very specific historical moment He also underlines the importance of actors Jules Berry and Arletty production designer Alexandre Trauner writer Jacques Prévert and cinematographer Curt Courant in establishing the film's tone mood and visual style He charts the national and international reception of the film uncovering a work that deeply divided critics at a time of national crisis He also reveals Le Jour se lève to be a key transitional work between European and American noir and compares it with the 1947 Hollywood remake Highlighting its combination of the poetic and the realist this book finally stresses how Le Jour se lève represents the very best of pre-war French studio filmmaking

To Desire Differently Sandy Flitterman-Lewis, 1996

Explores impact of 3 women filmmakers on French films      The A to Z of French Cinema Dayna Oscherwitz, MaryEllen Higgins, 2009-09-02 It can be argued that cinema was created in France by Louis Lumière in 1895 with the invention of the cinematographe the first true motion picture camera and projector While there were other cameras and devices invented earlier that were capable of projecting intermittent motion of images the cinematographe was the first device capable of recording and externally projecting images in such a way as to convey motion Early films such as Lumière's La Sortie de l'usine a minute long film of workers leaving the Lumière factory captured the imagination of the nation and quickly inspired the likes of Georges Méliès Alice Guy and Charles Pathé Through the years French cinema has been responsible for producing some of the world's best directors Jean Renoir Jean-Luc Godard François Truffaut and Louis Malle and actors Charles Boyer Catherine Deneuve Gérard Depardieu and Audrey Tautou The A to Z of French Cinema covers the history of French film from the silent era to the present in a concise and up to date volume detailing the development of French cinema and major theoretical and cultural issues related to it This is done through a chronology an introduction photographs a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on many of the major actors directors films movements producers and studios associated with French cinema Going beyond mere biographical information entries also discuss the impact and significance of each individual film movement or studio included This detailed scholarly analysis of the development of film in France is useful to both the novice and the expert alike      Selling Hollywood to the World John Trumbour, 2007-09-21 The global expansion of Hollywood and American popular culture in the first decades of the twentieth century met with strong opposition throughout the world Determined to defeat such resistance the Hollywood moguls created a powerful trade organization that worked closely with the US State Department in an effort to expand the American film industry's dominance worldwide This book offers insight into and analysis of European efforts to overcome the American film industry's pre-eminence It focuses particularly on Britain Hollywood's largest overseas market of the interwar years France a nation with an alternative vision of cinema and Belgium which was entrusted by the Vatican with coordination of the international movement against depravity in films In contributing to the understanding of American popular culture at home and abroad this study demonstrates Hollywood's role in orchestrating the American Century      The Routledge Encyclopedia of Films Sabine Haenni, Sarah Barrow, John White, 2014-09-15 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Films comprises 200 essays by leading film scholars analysing the most important influential innovative and interesting films of all time Arranged alphabetically each entry explores why each film is significant for those who study film and explores the social historical and political contexts in which the film was produced Ranging from Hollywood classics to international bestsellers to lesser known representations of national cinema this collection is deliberately broad in scope crossing decades boundaries and genres The encyclopedia thus provides an introduction to the historical range and scope of cinema produced throughout the world

Spectacle in Classical Cinemas Tom Brown, 2015-08-11 Spectacle is not often considered to be a significant part of the style of classical cinema Indeed some of the most influential accounts of cinematic classicism define it virtually by the supposed absence of spectacle Spectacle in Classical Cinemas Musicality and Historicity in the 1930s brings a fresh perspective on the role of the spectacular in classical sound cinema by focusing on one decade of cinema the 1930s in two modes of filmmaking musical and historical films and in two national cinemas the US and France This not only brings to light the special rhetorical and affective possibilities offered by spectacular images but refines our understanding of what classical cinema is and was
