Re-Envisioning Transformation David C. Scott, 2018-09-14 In today s church use of the term transformation has become commonplace Various perspectives are offered on what a Christian view of transformation is and on how it may be achieved These often conflicting views suggest an ecclesial landscape characterized by pluralism division fragmentation confusion relativism individualism pragmatism and subjectivism Despite the current interest in transformational theology the absence of a common coherent and integrated vision and the lack of transformation is often accepted and affirmed Re Envisioning Transformation looks at the possibility of moving toward a vision of transformational theology that is cohesive unified broad effectual and distinctly Christian In this book the contributions of two radically different theologians of the Christian life are examined This provides the basis from which to develop a comprehensive and integrated framework of transformational theology pointing God's people toward the need to express and live out a distinctly Christian vision Just Business
