Murders and Outrages William A. Blair,2021-09-13 After the Civil War s end reports surged of violence by Southern whites against Union troops and Black men women and children While some in Washington D C sought to downplay the growing evidence of atrocities in September 1866 Freedmen s Bureau commissioner O O Howard requested that assistant commissioners in the readmitted states compile reports of murders and outrages to catalog the extent of violence to prove that the reports of a peaceful South were wrong and to argue in Congress for the necessity of martial law What ensued was one of the most fascinating and least understood fights of the Reconstruction era a political and analytical fight over information and its validity with implications that dealt in life and death Here William A Blair takes the full measure of the bureau s attempt to document and deploy hard information about the reality of the violence that Black communities endured in the wake of Emancipation Blair uses the accounts of far flung Freedmen s Bureau agents to ask questions about the early days of Reconstruction which are surprisingly resonant with the present day How do you prove something happened in a highly partisan atmosphere where the credibility of information is constantly challenged And what form should that information take to be considered as fact Enemy Bloodline Umar Quadeer,2014-06-27 Son of a black gangster and an

Italian mother with ties to a high profile mobster the deadly mixture allows Spaz to become the most ruthless gangster in the City of Brotherly Love What starts off as a plot to move his mother out of the lethal streets of North Philly turns into a multi million dollar drug enterprise With his mafia drug supplier Sticky Scilionni in his right ear and the leader of the Black Boss Family Kareem in his left ear who can Spaz trust once he becomes a threat to the very street mentors that have trained him His life takes on a ferocious transformation as he rises in power and becomes the gatekeeper of the hood between warring families
