Reel Power Spiritual Growth Through Film:

Reel Power Marsha Sinetar, 1993-01-01 The Cinematic Mirror for Psychology and Life Coaching Mary Banks Gregerson, 2009-12-12 Cinema both reflects life and contours life that is its psychological power And for decades clinicians and educators have recognized the value of this power using it to respectively heal in therapy and educate in the classroom The Cinematic Mirror for Psychology and Life Coaching mines the illustrative value of cinema offering therapists and life coaches access to ideas that can motivate and enlighten clients Although many movie guides exist this volume complements the available literature by adding positive psychology mental health and wellness perspectives to the clinical educational coaching mix The serious intent to cull from cinema its underlying psychological value has motivated noted clinicians life coaches and cultural critics to offer science based analysis and intervention strategies Readers may add their own movie insights and professional expertise to this rich foundation The volume covers international as well as domestic cinema in a variety of genres providing a range of film choices relevant to clients lives Beyond this it expands on universal concepts of strengths capabilities and coping methods Chapters in The Cinematic Mirror analyze how movies can create and relieve trauma challenge Hollywood's portrayal of the American family overview the use of movies to examine relationships in therapy explore the acclaimed Up television cinema verite series as studies in personal growth and social change reinterprets images of disability in terms of positive psychology examines models or the lack thereof for the American adolescent rite of passage traces the history of mental illness stereotypes in film The collective wisdom found in The Cinematic Mirror for Psychology and Life Coaching will bring professionals involved in healing coaching counseling education and mentoring not only new applications but new appreciation for the transformative power of film That power already exists Readers just have to SEE it E-motion Picture Magic Birgit Wolz, 2005 Like no other medium before it the popular movie presents the potential of a new power for illuminating the depth of human experience E Motion Picture Magic employs that power as a tool to increase consciousness Cinema therapy offers more perspective on life prompting the viewer to step back from his or her problems in order to feel less insecure worried or discontented Using films for self improvement allows a shift in perspective when viewed with conscious awareness The use of movies for personal growth and healing carries forward a long standing connection between storytelling and self reflection that may date back to the beginnings of spoken language The movie experience used in very specific ways can have significant benefits for those who are willing to apply themselves using E Motion Picture Magic that can be both beneficial as well as enjoyable Film, Lacan and the Subject of Religion Steve Nolan, 2011-10-20 In their study of religion and film religious film analysts have tended to privilege religion Uniquely this study treats the two disciplines as genuine equals by regarding both liturgy and film as representational media Steve Nolan argues that in each case subjects identify with a represented other which joins them into a narrative where they become participants in an ideological reality Finding many current approaches to religious film analysis lacking Film Lacan and the

Subject of Religion explores the film theory other writers ignore particularly that mix of psychoanalysis Marxism and semiotics often termed Screen theory that attempts to understand how cinematic representation shapes spectator identity Using translations and commentary on Lacan not originally available to Screen theorists Nolan returns to Lacan s contribution to psychoanalytic film theory and offers a sustained application to religious practice examining several priest films and real life case study to expose the way liturgical representation shapes religious identity Film Lacan and the Subject of Religion proposes an interpretive strategy by which religious film analysts can develop the kind of analysis that engages with and critiques both cultural and religious practice Moving on Sarah Ban Breathnach,2006 The author offers an inclusive inspirational guide to help readers understand themselves and use their insights to accept change and move on after life changing events Mental Health, Psychiatry and the Arts Victoria Tischler,2018-10-08 Medicine and psychiatry both based on science require the art of caring using the principles of art in learning and teaching Sitting with a patient making sense of their distress being empathetic in understanding both the symptoms and the person and alleviating suffering needs a human touch For that doctors need the soul of an artist and must be aware of the value that arts have for society and the individual from the Foreword by Dinesh Bhugra This comprehensive book explores how visual art cinema music poetry literature and drama can inform the teaching and practice of psychiatrists and mental health professionals Edited and written by a team of expert practitioners teachers and researchers including both clinicians and users of mental health services this comprehensive book will provide valuable insights for undergraduate and postgraduate educators with teaching responsibilities in psychiatry and mental health Students of the medical humanities art music and drama therapists and educators in occupational therapy and psychology will also find this a valuable and insightful handbook The authors of this wonderful handbook provide a convincing argument that the arts are good for what ails us They have each used a preferred artistic medium to deepen personal reflection and to enhance their own creativity as physicians teachers and therapists Their models are clear their suggestions practical but none of the approaches you ll find here is reductive or simplistic Try some of the reflective exercises and teaching strategies You will be sure to rediscover something you have always cherished about the art of healing from the Foreword by Allan D Peterkin To Build the Life You Want, Create the Work You Love Marsha Sinetar,1995-12-15 The author of the million copy bestseller Do What You Love the Money Will Follow now delivers a provocative sequel which shows readers how to embrace the seven inner qualities of effective fulfilled entrepreneurs a practical handbook for anyone who wants to do what they love for a living The Simple Abundance Companion Sarah Ban Breathnach,2025-05-01 This workbook is based on the author s popular workshops and expands more upon the wisdom provided in her best sellers Simple Abundance and Something More Simple Abundance Sarah Ban Breathnach,2019-11-19 In times of crisis countless women have turned to Simple Abundance for comfort and joy and now this mega bestselling guide is updated and expanded for everyone who loved the original book as well as a new generation that needs it now more than ever First published in 1995 Simple Abundance topped the New York Times Bestseller list for over two years and is responsible for introducing two hugely popular concepts the Gratitude Journal and the term Authentic Self With daily inspirational meditations and reflections the Simple Abundance phenomenon became a touchstone for a generation of women helping them to reclaim their true selves find balance during life's busiest moments and rediscover what makes them truly happy Simple Abundance's powerful messages are needed now more than ever as we navigate the discord and stress instigated by a constant stream of breaking news cycles and our 24/7 social media culture Sarah Ban Breathnach has refreshed her bestselling phenomenon to address the needs of a new generation with her signature candor wit and wisdom that made her a trusted and compassionate confidant for millions of women A perennial classic whose time has come again Sarah's work celebrates quiet joys simple pleasures and well spent moments and reminds us how to find the beauty in the everyday

Across the Threshold, Into the Questions Caren Goldman, Ted Voorhees, 2008-10-01 Offers reflections on how the words of a first century Jew can offer meaning hope and wholeness to readers today Across the Threshold into the Questions includes new encounters with Jesus and his parables and teachings from the Gospel stories in Mark Matthew and Luke This volume continues to build the strong foundation needed for another volume that uses Goldman and William Dols method to explore the non canonical Gospel of Thomas

Seeing What Is Sacred Ken Gire, 2006-05-08 Around us there are hints that there is a way of life vastly richer and deeper than all this hurried existence a life unhurried serenity and peace and power A life where we see all that is sacred It seems the more we pack into our lives the less we experience of our lives We've become modern day Marthas busy distracted and empty instead of like her sister Mary calm focused and fulfilled How do we like Mary create pauses in our days and weeks to hear what the Savior has to say to us How do we make time for the things that ultimately matter How can we become more spiritually sensitive to the everyday moments of life In Seeing What Is Sacred formerly titled The Reflective Life acclaimed writer Ken Gire unlocks the door to change by introducing us not to a trendy new method but to a centuries old tradition of seeing the sacred in the everyday through reflective living In this momentous work readers will Discover this rich heritage that stretches from David Solomon and Jesus himself to Augustine Brother Lawrence and Mother Teresa Learn habits of the heart that deepen their intimacy with Christ through Scripture meditation and prayer Cultivate a spiritual sensitivity that allows them to see God at work in all of life's moments

Peace and Plenty Sarah Ban Breathnach, 2010-12-29 As featured on Oprah's podcast SuperSoul Conversations When money is plentiful this is a man's world When money is scarce it is a woman's world Unearthed in a 1932 Ladies Home Journal this quote is the call to arms that begins Peace and Plenty Sarah Ban Breathnach's answer to the world's and her own personal financial crisis As only Ban Breathnach can she culls together this compendium of advice deeply personal anecdotes and excerpts from magazines books and newspapers particularly those of the Great Depression to inspire readers who are mired in today's financial difficulties Focusing on her own personal path Sarah Ban

Breathnach will relate never before revealed details about how she fell from the financial top to the bottom Readers will immediately see how deeply she understands the plight of those trying to maintain a happy and comfortable home while at the same time not even knowing if they will be able to make the mortgage to keep that home Sarah has proved to be the voice of comfort for years to women who are spiritually bankrupt and now she will reach to those who are financially strapped showing them how to pull themselves out of their psychic and fiscal crises while providing deep comfort and reassurance throughout

Finding Jesus, Discovering Self Caren Goldman, William Dols, 2006-01-01 As we meet Jesus of Nazareth in the Gospel narratives we come face to face with our own deepest selves Finding Jesus Discovering Self invites readers to see Jesus with new eyes and then explore know experience and live questions about how 2000 year old stories and events happen in the world and in our lives today Each chapter focuses upon a passage from the Gospels A narrative by one of the authors recalls a personal experience reflecting the ancient text Questions to which there are no right answers offer multi dimensional opportunities to explore the stories and wonder Contemporary poetry and prose open new doors to meeting Jesus as a first century Jew and discovering creative compelling and challenging possibilities for one s own story self and relationship to God Written by a Jewish author and an Episcopal priest Finding Jesus Discovering Self is a perfect volume for personal reflection or group study and a unique resource for the Lenten season
