Kierkegaard and Levinas Patrick Sheil, 2017-03-02 The Danish Christian existentialist Søren Kierkegaard 1813 1855 and the Jewish Lithuanian born French interpreter of modern phenomenology Emmanuel Levinas 1906 1995 have enabled theology and philosophy to illuminate and confront one another in radical and important ways This book addresses the theological and philosophical thought of both Kierkegaard and Levinas with a focus on the special form that exists in the grammar of many languages for cases of uncertainty possibility hypothesis and for expressions of hope the subjunctive mood As well as presenting arguments and observations about Kierkegaard and Levinas through an analysis of the subjunctive mood Patrick Sheil offers an interesting and accessible way into the thought of these two major European philosophers and he explores a wide range of Kierkegaardian and Levinasian texts throughout

Causatives and Causation Jae Jung Song, 2014-06-11 Causatives and Causation is the first comprehensive study of causative constructions found in the world's languages This important new research based on a data base of more than 600 languages not only investigates fully the richness and variety of causative types but also presents an alternative perspective to the traditional typological approach The new typology enables a better understanding of how the human mind cognizes causation and how this is reflected in language Causatives and Causation is also an important attempt to integrate language typology with diachrony by constructing a diachronic model of causative affixes on the basis of this new typology Drawing on the theoretical insight of Role and Reference Grammar this book provides a case study of the causative constructions in Korean providing additional support for both the proposed new typology and the diachronic model It also examines the pragmatic foundations of causatives an important but previously unexplored area of study Savoir-Faire Elspeth Broady, Catrine Carpenter, 2002-09-11 Savoir Faire meaning know how or skill is a wide ranging language course for undergraduate learners of French It focuses on communication skills in areas that graduates will need if they are to use their knowledge of French professionally focusing particularly on report writing translating and interpreting making presentations Savoir Faire comprises a course book teacher's book and three 60 minute audio cassettes Each of the ten chapters deals with a distinct topic and set of skills and is built around the audio recordings and written texts all taken from authentic sources Although designed with first year students in mind with its emphasis on transferable skills Savoir Faire could be successfully adapted for use with second and final year students The Structure of Modern Standard French Maj-Britt Mosegaard Hansen, 2016-04-16 This book is an advanced student's grammar of French that integrates traditional grammar with knowledge and insights from modern linguistics Maj Britt Mosegaard Hansen takes a structural approach to French grammar she provides clear descriptions of grammatical rules based explicitly on syntactic structure and places descriptive emphasis on instances where the grammatical structures of French differ from those used in corresponding contexts in English The first part of the book provides an introduction to French sentence structure before the following parts examine the grammar of verbs nominals particles and clauses and sentences The Structure of Modern Standard French will be a valuable resource for students of French at undergraduate level and beyond It assumes some prior knowledge of French grammar but is designed to be accessible to those with no background in linguistics The Advanced Learner Variety Emmanuelle Labeau, 2009 This volume originates from a workshop entitled Revisiting advanced varieties in L2 learning organized by the editors at Aston University Birmingham UK in June 2006 It consists of a peer reviewed selection of the best contributions Many different approaches have been used in the study of advanced learners and their characteristics Specific areas of language have repeatedly been found to remain problematic even at advanced levels and much empirical research has been carried out In particular areas of grammar such as the tense or agreement systems often pose difficulties as well as lexical idiosyncrasies such as formulaic sequences and the discourse pragmatic constraints operating in French This volume brings together recent research exploring the advanced learner capabilities in each of those domains as well as possible explanations for the difficulties they raise for the L2 learner of French Additionally one of the areas which has received considerable attention in the French L2 literature on advanced learners tense and aspect is also explored from the point of view of French learners of English to explore any parallels In presenting this research the book clarifies the concept of the advanced learner how does s/he differ from native speakers and why
