Mosaics of Mary Mary Daugharty, 2008-08-14 Mosaics of Mary is a compulation of poems I have written over the past seven years. This book is a reflection of years of hard work I have gone through in order to understand and accept being an abandoned child. Writing poetry has given me an outlet that I did not have as a child. My goal in releasing this book is to have a voice. It is not my intention to cause harm or intentionally hurt others. Some of the poems are painful, whereas others are fun and random. Life is not perfect, nor is this first piece of work I am releasing. It will not speak to everyone, but I hope that if just one poem speaks to someone who is hurting, then the risk I have taken in putting my work out there will be worth it.

Poetic Inquiry Sandra L. Faulkner, 2019-07-22 Poetic Inquiry: Craft, Method, and Practice examines the use of poetry as a form of qualitative research representation and method used by researchers, practitioners, and students from across the social sciences and humanities. It serves as a practical manual for using poetry in qualitative research through the presentation of varied examples of Poetic Inquiry. It provides how-to exercises for developing and using poetry as a qualitative research method. The book begins by mapping out what doing and critiquing Poetic Inquiry entails via a discussion of the power of poetry, poets, and researchers' goals for the use of poetry and the kinds of projects that are best suited for Poetic Inquiry. It also provides descriptions of the process and craft of creating Poetic Inquiry and suggestions for how to evaluate and engage with Poetic Inquiry. The book further contends with questions of method, process, and craft from poets and researchers' perspectives. It shows the implications for the aesthetic and epistemic concerns in poetry and furthers transdisciplinary dialogues between the humanities and social sciences. Faulkner shows the importance of considering the form and function of Poetic Inquiry in qualitative research through discussions of poetry as research method, poetry as qualitative analysis and representation, and Poetic Inquiry as a powerful research tool.
