Reflections upon Childhood and Adolescence Anna Wilczewska,2014-07-18 The thesis is devoted to the intertextual analysis of The Cement Garden the first novel of a famous postmodern British novelist Ian McEwan In the following chapters I shall prove that the novel exhibits both intertextual relations with particular works of fiction and also enters into a discourse with the generic archetypes The first chapter refers to the intertextual relation text text and concentrates on the profound interconnectivity between McEwan s The Cement Garden and Golding s Lord of the Flies The focus is also placed upon depiction of childhood and in a more general sense human nature by both authors in relation to the literary tradition The chapter traces various techniques employed by McEwan in the novel in order to refresh the already read and provide a modern vision of childhood and adolescence The second and the third chapters are devoted to the intertextual discourse with the generic literary tradition namely Gothic fiction and psychological novel of development Both chapters depict the ways generic conventions are used in The Cement Garden but also portray the author s deliberate departure and inversion of particular attributes of the genres The author either provides the parody and inversion of the generic conventions or employs particular generic aspects in order to effectively express and emphasize certain issues brought about in the novel Thanks to the skillful use of the genres and their conventions McEwan achieves an extraordinary effect and invites the reader to explore a complex network of literary allusions

Adulthood in Children's Literature Vanessa Joosen,2018-09-06 While most scholars who study children's books are pre occupied with the child characters and adult mediators Vanessa Joosen re positions the lens to focus on the under explored construction of adulthood in children's literature Adulthood in Children's Literature demonstrates how books for young readers evoke adulthood as a stage in life enacted by adult characters and in relationship with the construction of childhood Employing age studies as a framework for analysis this book covers a range of English and Dutch children's books published from 1970 to the present Calling upon critical voices like Elisabeth Young Bruehl Margaret Morganroth Gullette Peter Hollindale Maria Nikolajeva and Lorraine Green and the works of such authors as Babette Cole Philip Pullman Ted van Lieshout Jacqueline Wilson Salman Rushdie and Guus Kuijer Joosen offers a fresh perspective on children's literature by focusing not on the child but the adult

Multicultural Literature for Children and Young Adults Mingshui Cai, 2002-10-30 There is much discussion of multiculturalism in education This is especially true of multicultural literature for children and young adults The rise of multicultural literature is a political rather than a literary movement it is a movement to claim space in literature and education for historically marginalized social groups rather than one to renovate the craft of literature itself Multicultural literature has been closely bound with the cause of multiculturalism in general and thus has been confronted with resistance from conservatives This book discusses many of the controversial issues surrounding multicultural literature for children and young adults The volume begins with a look at some of the foundational and theoretical issues related to multicultural literature The second part of the book addresses issues related to the creation and critique of multicultural literature including the authorship of such works and the role of the reader in determining whether or not a work is multicultural The third looks at the place of multicultural literature in the education of children and young adults Throughout its discussion the book makes extensive references to a large body of multicultural fiction and provides a thorough review of research on this important topic

How Picturebooks Work Maria Nikolajeva, Carole Scott, 2013-02-01 How Picturebooks Work is an innovative and engaging look at the interplay between text and image in picturebooks The authors explore picturebooks as a specific medium or genre in literature and culture one that prepares children for other media of communication and they argue that picturebooks may be the most influential media of all in the socialization and representation of children Spanning an international range of children's books this book examines such favorites as Curious George and Frog and Toad Are Friends along with the works of authors and illustrators including Maurice Sendak and Tove Jansson among others With 116 illustrations How Picturebooks Work offers the student of children's literature a new methodology new theories and a new set of critical tools for examining the picturebook form
