Reflections An Exhibition Catalogue:

The Art of Reflection Marsha Meskimmon, 1996 Marsha Meskimmon examines a wide variety of women's self-portraiture from performance to body art in lively and accessible prose. She takes the cultural focus from the dominant male self-portraiture to the more marginalized gender, bringing women artists' perspectives to the forefront. Adman's Dilemma Paul Rutherford, 2018-01-01 The Adman's Dilemma is a cultural biography that explores the rise and fall of the advertising man as a figure who became effectively a licensed deceiver in the process of governing the lives of American consumers. Apparently, this personage was caught up in a contradiction both compelled to deceive yet supposed to tell the truth. It was this moral condition and its consequences that made the adman so interesting to critics, novelists, and eventually filmmakers. The biography tracks his saga from its origins in the exaggerated doings of P. T. Barnum, the emergence of a new profession in the 1920s, the heyday of the adman's influence during the post-WW2 era, the later rebranding of the adman as artist, until the apparent demise of the figure symbolized by the triumph of that consummate huckster Donald Trump. In The Adman's Dilemma, author Paul Rutherford explores how people inside and outside the advertising industry have understood the conflict between artifice and authenticity. The book employs a range of fictional and nonfictional sources, including memoirs, novels, movies, TV shows, websites, and museum exhibits, to suggest how the adman embodied some of the strange realities of modernity. Reflections Sarah Buxton, Laura Campbell, Tracey Dawe, 2020-11-30 Mirroring, doubling, imitation, parody, intertextuality. The contributors to this volume, all postgraduate researchers at the time of writing, engage with some of these familiar words to produce articles that deal with the concept of reflections in literary and visual culture. Ranging from Italian Golden Age theatre to contemporary French literature and from Cuban film to German fiction, the twelve essays in this volume provide a fresh look at Modern Language Studies, highlighting in particular the interdisciplinary nature of this field. On one level, the volume speaks to those exploring Modern Language Studies for the first time, for example, undergraduate students who seek a greater understanding of the dialogue between language and culture. However, the individual essays also have the potential to attract experienced scholars, either looking for new knowledge on specialist subjects or ways of approaching research in Modern Languages. Through its central theme, Reflections: New Perspectives in Modern Languages and Cultures, makes some suggestions about the way forward for Modern Language Studies. Reflections on Female and Trans* Masculinities and Other Queer Crossings Nina Kane, Jude Woods, 2017-06-23 This collection of essays emerged out of the Agender conference and various queer cultural activities associated with the PoMoGaze project, Leeds Art Gallery, 2013. 2015 PoMoGaze was a term created to promote queer co-curatorial projects held at the gallery as part of Community Engagement activities and references PoMo as a shortening of Postmodern combined with Gaze as a play on words linking the act of looking with LGBTIQ activities. The book presents many voices exploring themes of female and trans masculinities, gender equality, and the lives, work, and activism of LGBTIQ artists and thinkers. It includes discussion of arts making, cultural materials diverse identities contemporary queer politics and social histories and travels across time telling gender crossing stories of creative resistance Readers with an interest in the performing and visual arts literature philosophy and queer and gendered cultural readings with an intersectional emphasis will be stimulated by this eclectic and thought provoking collection Bay Area Figurative Art, 1950-1965 Caroline A. Frick engaged some of his era's most important art dealers to build a notable collection and the best decorators to create suitable Gilded Age interiors to accommodate the works. This story traces the journey that led to the creation of one of America's finest art collections. At its heart, this story centers on Frick and his daughter Helen Clay Frick, both pivotal figures in the formation of the renowned Frick Collection. The volume delves into the Fricks' exposure to and acquisition of some of the finest art of their time. With an exquisite blend of textual narrative and ample imagery showcasing masterpieces and the sumptuous interiors of homes in Pittsburgh and New York, the book offers a captivating narrative of ambition, wealth, and cultural patronage. White Allom Co. and Elsie de Wolfe worked with Frick on the decoration of his houses and influenced the choice of many furnishings the owner acquired and that formed the backdrop for his paintings. As was commonplace at the time, decorators often collaborated with dealers in creating spaces suitable for the esteemed works of art. Further influential figures who shaped the era's cultural landscape include Frick's business partner Andrew Carnegie and noted art dealers Joseph Duveen in London and Charles Carstairs of M. Knoedler Co. in New York. Presenting the glittering halls of their homes and the masterpieces adorning the walls of The Frick Collection, this volume is a testament to the enduring allure of art and the power of patronage in shaping cultural institutions.

Rembrandt's Passion Series Simon McNamara, 2015-05-13

Rembrandt's Passion Series is the name given to five paintings of similar size and format executed over a six-year time frame, 1633-39. The works were commissioned by Frederick Hendrick, Prince of Orange and Stadtholder of the United Provinces, for his gallery at The Hague. Although each of the paintings depicts a traditional scene from the Passion of Christ, they do not form anything like a complete Passion Cycle. Seven years later, Hendrick ordered a further two works of the same size and format of subjects from the Nativity of Christ. Six of the seven paintings now hang in the Alte Pinakothek, Munich. As the works were executed between Rembrandt's well-documented early Leiden period and his rapid rise to prominence as a portraitist in Amsterdam, the works have not attracted the scholarly attention they might, although the commission was undoubtedly the most prestigious of the young Rembrandt's career. Rembrandt's Passion Series is the first monograph to focus solely on this important group of paintings by the most famous artist of the Dutch Golden Age. In it, Simon McNamara traces the history of the commission by way of extant documentation, places the works in a seventeenth-century Dutch religious milieu, and shows how the series is both reflective of contemporary theological exegesis and embedded in theoretical artistic debates of the age. The book also highlights the extraordinary nature of the self-images seen in three of the paintings and discusses the legacy of the series in later graphic works by Rembrandt and in paintings by his pupils. In doing so, Rembrandt's Passion Series presents a series of unifying factors, both stylistically and thematically, for the works that allows the Passion Series to be properly and finally called a series.
