Reflections Of A Whale Watcher:

Reflections of a Whale-watcher Michelle A. Gilders, 1995 A biologist describes her voyages and experiences through the Sea of Cortez and the Pacific Ocean in search of whales

Eye of the Whale Dick Russell, 2001 Eye of the Whale focuses on one great whale in particular the coastal traveling California gray whale Gray whales make the longest migration of any mammal from the lagoons of Baja California to the feeding grounds of the Bering Strait between Alaska and Siberia nearly 6 000 miles That the gray whale exists today is nothing short of miraculous Whaling fleets twice massacred the species to near extinction first during the nineteenth century and again during the early part of the twentieth century

In Pursuit of Leviathan Lance E. Davis, Robert E. Gallman, Karin Gleiter, 2007-12-01 In Pursuit of Leviathan traces the American whaling industry from its rise in the 1840s to its precipitous fall at the end of the nineteenth century Using detailed and comprehensive data that describe more than four thousand whaling voyages from New Bedford Massachusetts the leading nineteenth century whaling port the authors explore the market for whale products crew quality and labor contracts and whale biology and distribution and assess the productivity of the American fleet They then examine new whaling techniques developed at the end of the nineteenth century such as modified clippers and harpoons and the introduction of darting guns Despite the common belief that the whaling industry declined due to a fall in whale stocks the authors argue that the industry's collapse was related to changes in technology and market conditions Providing a wealth of historical information In Pursuit of Leviathan is a classic industry study that will provide intriguing reading for anyone interested in the history of whaling

Miraculous Air C. M. Mayo, 2007 This exquisite book is a rare jewel in the literature of Mexico and its little known peninsula Baja Describing her adventures on this austere and beautiful slip of land C M Mayo creates a multi layered map of place filled with daredevil aviators sea turtle researchers Stone Age cave painters and countless other colorful characters Covering Baja from Cabo San Lucas to Tijuana Mayo's wit and curiosity help her weave a story that seamlessly combines history myth art and local color

A Second REFLECTION Stacey Gatrost, 2018-06-03 A young woman is perplexed by recurring dreams but finds herself catapulted to the edge of a parallel universe of immortality when her husband and son are killed in a car accident after which she becomes aware of a ghostly presence As this presence reveals himself to her she learns he is someone who last reincarnated in 1776 and has come to help her reach within and find her inner strength and the will to go on The more he reveals himself to her she learns why he is so familiar to her and why she is so significant to him Through the intense and sometimes comical relationship that develops between them she finds healing wholeness and the ability to allow herself to be free to live and hope again It is intensely romantic and filled with a measure of suspense with a slight touch of comedy as you cross the bridge between two parallel realities

The Power of Words in International Relations Charlotte Epstein,2008-10-03 The role of discursive power in shaping international relations analyzed through the lens of whaling politics In the second half of the twentieth century worldwide attitudes toward whaling shifted from widespread acceptance to moral censure Why Whaling once as important to the global economy as oil is now had long been uneconomical Major species were long known to be endangered Yet nations had continued to support whaling In The Power of Words in International Relations Charlotte Epstein argues that the change was brought about not by changing material interests but by a powerful anti whaling discourse that successfully recast whales as extraordinary and intelligent endangered mammals that needed to be saved Epstein views whaling both as an object of analysis in its own right and as a lens for examining discursive power and how language materiality and action interact to shape international relations By focusing on discourse she develops an approach to the study of agency and the construction of interests that brings non state actors and individuals into the analysis of international politics Epstein analyzes the society of whaling states as a set of historical practices where the dominant discourse of the day legitimated the killing of whales rather than their protection She then looks at this whaling world s mirror image the rise from the political margins of an anti whaling discourse which orchestrated one of the first successful global environmental campaigns in which saving the whales ultimately became shorthand for saving the planet Finally she considers the continued dominance of a now taken for granted anti whaling discourse including its creation of identity categories that align with and sustain the existing international political order Epstein s synthesis of discourse power and identity politics brings the fields of international relations theory and global environmental politics into a fruitful dialogue that benefits both

Animals in Person John Knight,2020-08-29 Our relationship with animals is complex and contradictory we hunt kill and eat them yet we also love respect and protect them This ambivalent relationship is further complicated by the fact that we attribute human emotions and intelligence to animals We even go as far as likening them to children and treating them as family members Drawing on a diverse range of case studies Animals in Person attempts to unravel our close and fascinating link with the animal kingdom This book highlights the theme of cross species intimacy in contexts such as livestock care pet keeping and the use of animals in tourism The studies draw on data from different parts of the world including New Guinea Nepal India Japan Greece Britain The Netherlands and Australia Animals in Person documents the existence of relations between humans and animals that in many respects recall relations among humans themselves
