helpful pedagogical elements are added The Ministry of Lament Gene T. Fowler,2010-07-01 For pastors and congregations caring for those who are grieving is a very important but difficult job Gene Fowler believes that the church needs a theological understanding of bereavement that can inform the ministry of caring for grieving people The heart of The Ministry of Lament addresses the relationship between bereavement and the Christian faith in the service of caring ministry Throughout the book Fowler brings the psalms of lament into dialogue with a contemporary understanding of mourning so that the entire grief process can be addressed theologically Helping Those Experiencing Loss Robert J. Grover Professor Emeritus,Susan G. Fowler,2011-07-13 This book provides a guide for grieving youth and adults as well as extensive descriptive lists of recommended professional literature resources Grief caused by loss is both a very common human experience and a highly individualized one For example children experience a number of losses that are unique to their young age such as sibling and parent death adoption or divorce and should be given special consideration by professionals and parents helping them in these situations For gay lesbian or cohabiting heterosexual couples that suffer the loss of a partner societal standards often deny the survivors in these relationships the right to grieve Helping Those Experiencing Loss A Guide to Grieving Resources is a book like no other supplying compassionate information for navigating the emotional distress that every man and woman will experience in their lifetime as well as a comprehensive guide to the literature of bereavement and grieving It explains the grieving process interpreting the results of research on the topic in plain language and addressing specific groups children young adults parents who have lost a child adults who have lost spouses and the aging population The Church Leader's Counseling Resource Book Cynthia Franklin Ph.D.,Rowena Fong,2011-02-01 This all in one guide is designed to better equip clergy and the church leaders to meet their congregations needs in a spiritually grounded and scientifically sound manner Succinct easy to read chapters summarize all a pastor needs to know about a given problem area including its signs or symptoms questions to ask effective helping skills and most importantly when to refer to a mental health professional Synthesizing what research says about treatment approaches for mental health issues this user friendly reference is filled with guidelines case scenarios key points to remember resources for further help advice on integrating scripture and theology with the best available research and tips on partnering with others to provide the best possible care for each church member Each chapter is designed for quick lookup by problem area empowering church leaders to understand and help meet the challenges facing the children adults families and communities that they serve The Ministry of Lament Gene Fowler,2022-05-17 Through his own hard won wisdom as a pastor who is thoroughly acquainted with grief Gene Fowler shows how these biblical and contemporary understandings of lament provide invaluable guidance for the pastor who knowing that the grieving of irrevocable losses is an ever present reality in the life of the congregation seeks realistic and reliable guidance in how to care for the bereaved and how to enable the congregation to become a genuine community of fellow mourners Donald Capps Princeton Theological SeminaryGene Fowler skillfully maneuvers the winding road of bereavement with the psalms of lament as accompaniment With attention to the terrain of individuality as well as the congregational setting Fowler traverses new territory in a twenty first century approach to caring for grieving people Unlike an interstate with its clear ramps markers and exits the valley of the shadow of death is uneven with hidden crevices detours and dimly lit passages Challenging the traditional understanding of grief as a series of universal stages unfolding according to a preconceived timetable Fowler draws from psychotherapists and theologians to ground a new relationship between spirituality and grief Jeanne Stevenson Moessner Perkins School of Theology SMU While making a compelling case for how notions of care have been hijacked truncated and curtailed Gene Fowler expands the ability of caregivers and congregations to provide the long term acts of faithful healing that deep loss requires The book is given particular clarity through examples of movies books stories and Psalms that help healers see anew their task to compassionately and creatively encourage the bereaved as they rewrite the story of their lives Andrew L McDonald Senior Pastor Westminster Church Lincoln Nebraska
